

Fourth Quarter – 2022

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about the improvements made by both the Cherokee Community School District and the Galva-Holstein Lower and Upper Elementary Schools at the state level, in regards to the Iowa department of education school performance profiles.

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about Halloween safety. Cherokee County Sheriff Derek Scott sent out separate safety tips to the children, parents and to the area drivers.

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about the blizzard-like conditions and massive blowing snow throughout the area due to the 40+ mile per hour winds. Cherokee County Sheriff Derek Scott joined our newscast to remind our listeners about numerous winter driving safety tips.

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about a grant writing workshop at the Iowa State University Extension and Outreach Office in Cherokee on December 7th. The workshop focused on many different types of grant opportunities that folks could learn about and capitalize on, in an effort to open a new business or expand an existing business. Workshops such as this in the listening area do a nice job of promoting economic development.