

Third Quarter – 2022

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about a fundraiser put on by the American Legion Riders, in an effort to help pay for the costs of taking care of the service dogs of several area veterans. The money raised went in part to four different veterans in $500 increments to help with their service dog expenses. Veterans affairs is something strongly promoted throughout the year on many different fronts on the KCHE airwaves.

 KCHE Radio aired numerous news stories about the upcoming Plymouth County Fair. We not only focused on the upcoming recreational events associated with the Fair, but the talent and life lessons the youngsters learn by competing in different events at the Fair. The Plymouth County Fair began in late July, 2022.

 KCHE News aired numerous news stories about the grants received by the Cherokee Community School District and what they were specifically used for. Part of the money will be used for upcoming maintenance projects at Washington High School when supplies are able to be shipped and some went toward students in the district receiving free breakfasts.
