(g) Initiative: MOCK INTERVIEWS

Tuesday, February 16, 2015, Production Director was invited by Goshen College Professor, Melissa Kinsey, to participate in "Super Tuesday" with 4 Goshen College students ranging from Juniors to Seniors who are getting ready to start interviewing for jobs post college. Of the four, two were Broadcasting Majors, one was a Graphic Design Major and the final one was an Art Major. The first 20 to 30 minutes was a formal interview in which Production Director role played as a potential hiring manager for their specific field of interest. With the help of Center for Sales Strategy, Production Director asked real questions that they could be confronted with in an actual interview. After the formal interview Production Director spent 10 to 15 minutes talking about what went right and wrong during the interview, discussing appearance, enthusiasm, credibility, answers given, resume, etc. Once done, Production Director spent 5 to 10 minutes "Grading" their interview through a questionnaire. The purpose of this training was to help soon-to-be graduates prepare for their life after college in the working world. Production Director also kept each student's resume.
