

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

2nd Quarter 2019

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A three-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 am

Quality of Life

4.20.19 Chick-fil-A in Saint Joseph served enough chicken in one day to donate nearly $8,000 to help area flood victims; with Ruthie Seitz, owner, and Kylee Strough, President, United Way of Greater Saint Joseph.

Education

4.6.19 A new partnership will bring more education and training options for Saint Joseph residents to help meet the needs of the local workforce; with Kristi Bailey of the Saint Joseph Chamber of Commerce.

5.25.19 The Saint Joseph School District launches the first steps of its Master Facilities Plan process; with Superintendent of Schools Dr. Doug Van Zyl.

6.8.19 Reflections on the 75th anniversary of D-Day; with Devlin Scofield, Assistant Professor of History, Northwest Missouri State University.

6.29.19 Missouri Western State University economics professor worries about the Trump Administration's approach to China; with Professor Reza Hamzaee.

Health

6.22.19 A grant will pay for efforts to combat the opioid crisis in rural areas of northwest Missouri; with Terry Peterson of Northwest Health Services.

Government

5.11.19 Interstate 29 reopens after emergency flood repairs; with Scott Suhr, Iowa Department of Transportation, and Jennifer Sardigal, Missouri Department of Transportation.

6.1.19 The Missouri Governor takes another first-hand look at flood damage in Saint Joseph; with Governor Mike Parson.

Political Issues

4.13.19 US Senator Roy Blunt of Missouri says the 2019 flood seems to look a lot like the 2011 flood; with Senator Blunt.

Economic Development

5.4.19 Temporary repairs of the broken Missouri River Basin levee system are underway; with Ted Streckfuss of the Omaha office of the US Army Corps of Engineers.

5.18.19 US trade representatives give their version of the trade dispute with China; with Chief Agricultural Negotiator Gregg Doud and Undersecretary for Trade and Foreign Agricultural Affairs Ted McKinney.

6.15.19 US Department of Agriculture announces it will move its Economic Research Service and National Institute of Food and Agriculture from Washington DC to the Greater Kansas City area; with Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue and Congressman Sam Graves of Tarkio.

Service Organizations

4.27.19 Saint Joseph Habitat for Humanity builds a house that complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act; with Kelly Derks, a paralyzed accident victim, Cate Manley, executive director of Habitat, and Rev Mark Smith of Abundant Faith Church.