

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

1st Quarter 2019

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A three-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 am

Quality of Life

1.5.19 Two churches in Saint Joseph will begin the first Sunday of the new year by merging into one congregation; with Pastor Stan Saunders of the Cornerstone Church and Jimmy Root of the Manna Church.

3.2.19 Emergency management officials in Saint Joseph and Buchanan County will conduct a weather spotter class next week; with Buchanan County Emergency Management Director Bill Brinton.

Law Enforcement

2.23.19 A prescription drug drop box was installed this week at the Law Enforcement Center in downtown Saint Joseph; with Buchanan County Sheriff Bill Puett.

Education

1.12.19 Second annual Mini Maker Faire in Saint Joseph is searching for makers; with Julie Gaddie of the Heartland Foundation.

2.2.19 United Way of Greater Saint Joseph is looking for volunteers to read with children this spring and summer; with Jodi Bloemker, United Way Director of Community Investment.

2.9.19 A mentoring program for 6th grade boys kicked off this week at Edison Elementary School with help from officers in the Saint Joseph Police Department and Missouri Western State University football players; with Angie Hernandez, Edison Family Involvement Coordinator, police officer Jason Hill, and football player Evan Clark.

3.9.19 A week for entrepreneurs and anyone interested in business is coming up this month at Missouri Western State University; with Annette Weeks, Director of the Center for Entrepreneurship at Missouri Western's Craig School of Business.

Government

1.19.19 Many federal workers have now missed a paycheck and efforts to help them have been organized in Saint Joseph; with Penny Adams of AFL-CIO Community Services.

3.16.19 Missouri Department of Conservation sends out thanks to thousands of Missouri deer hunters who donated venison to the Share the Harvest program; with Michelle Fagerstone, Chief Development Officer, Second Harvest Community Food Bank in Saint Joseph.

Political Issues

1.26.19 The 16th annual Great Northwest Day is coming up at the Missouri capitol; with Lily White of the Maryville Chamber of Commerce.

Economic Development

2.16.19 An opportunity for maker-entrepreneurs to learn how to expand on their talents and small businesses will come up at a seminar next week in Maryville; with Lily White, Executive Director, Maryville Chamber of Commerce.

3.23.19 A Saint Joseph company plans vital role in NCAA basketball tournaments; with Brett Carolus of Hillyard Companies, maker of basketball floors, floor coatings, and maintenance products.

3.30.19 Flood damage to northwest Missouri farmland is extensive in counties along the Missouri River; with Undersecretary Bill Northey of the US Department of Agriculture.