

Quarterly Issues Programming Report

KQNY 91.9 FM

Plumas Community Radio

Reporting period from: 10/1/22 through: 12/31/22

Date placed in Public Information File:

Report completed by: Tommy Miles
Tommy Miles, General Manager

Issue(s): Feather River College foundation fundraising, activities, and programs.
Action: Interviewed Sara Frigo, foundation president.
Program(s): Feather River College Golder Eagle Update
Initial Broadcast Date: 10/10/22

Issue(s): School board election.
Action: Interviewed both candidates, Leslie Edlund(incumbent) and Coby Hakalir.
Program(s): Community Matters
Initial Broadcast Date: 10/11/22

Issue(s): Men's and women's basketball programs at Feather River College.
Action: Interviewed head coach Keshawn Johnson.
Program(s): Feather River College Golder Eagle Update
Initial Broadcast Date: 10/27/22

Issue(s): Outdoor recreation leadership program mini-courses available through Feather River College.
Action: Interviewed Saylor Flett, program director.
Program(s): Feather River College Golder Eagle Update
Initial Broadcast Date: 12/10/22

During this quarter, our three regularly-broadcast community affairs programs were:

Program Name:	Duration:	Initial Broadcast:	Rebroadcasts:
Community Matters	30 min.	Tue. 1200	Thur. 1200, Sat. 1400
FRC Golden Eagle Update	30 min.	Mon. 0900	Thur. 1700
The Jane and John Doe Show	60 min.	Thur. 2300	Sun. 2100

In each new program, The Jane and John Doe Show anonymously interviews local people who are in addiction recovery, discussing their experiences and offering support to local community members who are struggling with substance abuse issues.

The Jane and John Doe Show and The Feather River College Golden Eagle Update each receive at least three rebroadcasts, and Community Matters receives at least five rebroadcasts. The balance of programming on these shows consists of replays of relevant programs from earlier quarters for a total of five programs per week at the times shown above.