

Quarterly Issues Programming Report

KQNY 91.9 FM

Plumas Community Radio

Reporting period from: 7/1/22 through: 9/30/22

Date placed in Public Information File: 10/6/22

Report completed by: Tommy Miles
Tommy Miles, General Manager

Issue(s): Events at Feather River College, academic opportunities for local students, new degree and certificate programs.

Action: Interviewed Nick Maffei, Director of Marketing, Communication & Outreach, FRC, Merle Trueblood, Athletic Director, FRC, and Dr. Kevin Truntna, Superintendent/President, FRC.

Program(s): FRC GEU

Initial Broadcast Date: 8/16/22

Issue(s): Availability of salvaged lumber from the Dixie Fire at low cost to local residents.

Action: Interviewed Dan Kearns, community activist and partner at J&C Lumber, Crescent Mills.

Program(s): Community Matters

Initial Broadcast Date: 9/1/22

Issue(s): Events at Feather River College, recent accomplishments of the FRC rodeo team.

Action: Interviewed Nick Maffei, Director of Marketing, Communication & Outreach, FRC, and Tess Turk, faculty member and rodeo coach, FRC.

Program(s): FRC GEU

Initial Broadcast Date: 9/14/22

During this quarter, our three regularly-broadcast community affairs programs were:

Program Name:	Duration:	Initial Broadcast:	Rebroadcasts:
Community Matters	30 min.	Tue. 1200	Thur. 1200, Sat. 1400
FRC Golden Eagle Update	30 min.	Mon. 0900	Thur. 1700
The Jane and John Doe Show	60 min.	Thur. 2300	Sun. 2100

In each new program, The Jane and John Doe Show anonymously interviews local people who are in addiction recovery, discussing their experiences and offering support to local community members who are struggling with substance abuse issues.

Each of our community affairs programs produces a new show approximately every two weeks, so The Jane and John Doe Show and The Feather River College Golden Eagle Update receive at least three rebroadcasts, and Community Matters receive at least five rebroadcasts. The balance of programming on these shows consists of replays of relevant programs from earlier quarters for a total of five programs per week at the times shown above.
