Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Internship Programs in Web/Digital News, News Producer, Weather and Engineering - Production Tech.

WOFL/FOX 35, WRBW/FOX35PLUS and WOGX/FOX51 continue to offer an academic credit internship program for college/university, junior, senior and graduate students. The students work to receive college credit upon successful completion of their internship. Students are evaluated at the end of the internship and the evaluations are submitted to their respective college or university. Generally, internships are available in the following departments: News (including Weather and Web News), Creative Services (including Promotions and Community Affairs), Research/Programming, IT, Sales (including Web Sales) and Human Resources.

Program Objectives:

- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, media and related disciplines the opportunity to receive on-site exposure to and training from experienced television broadcast professionals who are in job positions to which students aspire.
- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, and media and related disciplines the opportunity to garner practical application experience and exposure to a work environment in their desired career.
- Identify students for the Station's job applicant pool for employment opportunities.
- The Station regularly distributes internship information to colleges, universities, and other education programs either through email or by posting directly on the websites / list services as requested by the organization.

Eligibility Requirements:

- College junior and senior, and graduate students preferred
- Receipt of academic credit

We accept students from the following colleges/universities: Full Sail University, University of Central Florida, Florida Atlantic University, University of Florida and any University in Florida that offers Media, Broadcasting degrees.

Participation in job banks, Internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies).

- www.fox35orlando.com
- www.foxcareers.com
- www.Linkedin.com
- All of our open positions are pulled by various job banks to include: indeed.com, glassdoor.com, Broadcasting & Cable Magazine, and various job boards.

Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.

Emma L. Bowen Foundations for Minority Interests in Media, Inc.

Established in 1989, the Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create career opportunities in the media industry for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. Students in the program work in media companies each summer and during school breaks, from high school through college. The students earn both wages and matching scholarship funds to be used for college tuition and related expenses. Over a period of up to five (5) years, the students experience numerous aspects of Company operations and develop professional and practical skills that will help prepare them for their careers, many of which begin at the companies where the students interned. Fox Television Stations have been a corporate partner in this program since its inception and two of the Company's executives are on the Foundation's Board.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Good academic standing and record
