Manager's Memo

I recently viewed the rough cut of our latest documentary, Battle Over Bears Ears, about the controversial situation brewing in southern Utah. Despite the fact that I have followed the evolving situation over time and felt well informed on the issue, the program revealed the multiple facets of a very complicated issue.

My take-away was realizing how many different viewpoints and factors are involved in whatever discussion comes next. I am impressed how producer Nancy Green made clear the situation in the one-hour documentary premiering on Monday, November 12 at 8:00 p.m. on Channel 7.1. As a Utahn, you should not miss it.

Also in the news at KUED are our recent Emmy awards garnered at the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences event in Phoenix. Nominees are submitted by producing stations and evaluated by other chapters across the country. KUED was nominated for seven awards and ultimately took home three Emmys for the following programs:

KUED ADVISORY BOARD

- Homeless at the End
Societal Concerns Program Special. Sally Shaum, Nancy Green, John Rogers (This program will be distributed by National Educational Television Association.)
- Lagoon: Rock and Rollercoasters
Audio-Live or Post Production. William Montoya, Brenton Winegar, Kevin Sweet
- On the Spectrum
Documentary Cultural/Topical. Dana Barraco, John Rogers, Brenton Winegar, Paige Sparks

In addition, the Society of Professional Journalists recognized Nancy Green and Sally Shaum for Homeless at the End, which is another significant recognition of quality in locally-produced television.

I am quite fortunate to have a Production Department with the caliber of producers that generate this kind of recognition, year after year.

UNDERWRITER PROFILE

Molina Healthcare provides care and services that focus on promoting health, wellness, and improved patient outcomes.

Since 1997, Molina Healthcare of Utah has provided government-funded health care to low-income individuals and families. The company's mission is to bring high-quality care to those who need it most. Today, that includes 88,000 Medicaid, CHIP (Children's Health Insurance Plan), and Medicare members across the state.

Molina was founded in 1980 in Long Beach, California, where the corporate office remains today. A multi-state organization, Molina Healthcare is a FORTUNE 500 company, ranked #152 on the FORTUNE 500 list for 2018. Through locally-operated health plans, Molina serves approximately 4.1 million members throughout the nation. In fact, Molina is the health plan with the most Medicare-Medicaid plan members in the United States.

At Molina, company culture includes giving back to each community where the company operates. To this end, Molina created the Community Champion Awards program in 2006, which brings together people whose leadership, volunteerism and public advocacy embody the Molina values of service and community. Nominated by community-based organizations, every winner receives a trophy and a $1,000 grant for the nonprofit organization of their choice.

Molina also proudly underwrites two KUED Education Outreach programs that support those in Utah who are most in need.

This fall, Molina is underwriting Ready to Learn Family Nights, events that serve 25 Title

1 schools in the Granite School District. Attracting 150 - 600 attendees at each location, Family Nights focus on reading and literacy, and offer fun games and activities for kids. Every child who attends receives a free book to take home, along with personal care essentials like hand sanitizer, toothbrushes, and lip balm – all donated by Molina.

This past September, Molina Healthcare also supported the Native America Educator Training in San Juan County, providing instructors with professional development. The trainings occurred in conjunction with the four-part PBS series about America's First Peoples, Native America, that premiered in October. The final two episodes air on Tuesday, November 13th at 8:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.
