Manager's Memo

PBS' Summer of Adventure continues this month with two new series – one exploring the vast Australian outback and one that journeys through Mexico.

Outback, airing Wednesdays, August 1-15 at 7:00 p.m., takes a year-long journey with the people and animals of the Kimberley region in the northern part of western Australia – an expansive, rugged, and remote wilderness bursting with character.

Wonders of Mexico, airing the same Wednesday nights at 8:00 p.m., travels through the tropical forests of the Maya, south along Mexico's mountain spine, and across the deserts of Northern Mexico to discover amazing wildlife and culture.

In a major new investigation, FRONTLINE: Documenting Hate: Charlottesville, on Tuesday, August 7 at 9:00 p.m., uncovers new information about white supremacists and neo-Nazis involved in violence at the Charlottesville rally.

James Morgese
General Manager KUED

FRONTLINE: Our Man in Tehran, a special two-part report with The New York Times, offers a fascinating and revealing view of life inside Iran on Monday, August 13 and Tuesday, 14 at 8:00 p.m.

The one-of-a kind Betty White, who has created some of the most memorable characters in television history, is profiled in Betty White: First Lady of Television that premieres on Tuesday, August 21 at 7:00 p.m. The special, which will be repeated several times, is by the producers of the series, Pioneers of Television. White was a groundbreaking pioneer both in front of and behind the camera.

UNDERWRITER PROFILE

ARCH | NEXUS

Architectural Nexus is a people-driven, employee-owned, architectural design firm focused on stewardship, inspiration, and re-generation. The company is a steward of both the built and natural environments, equally respecting both in order to create a world in which people can function and thrive. By making something out of nothing, the company's mission is to take nature and gently gather it, organize it, make it full of purpose, and preserve its beauty.

As design moves from a more commodity-driven commerce, Architectural Nexus believes that the future needs to look beyond the what and the how and into the uncharted territory of the why. To them, architecture is not about buildings. It's about the people in them and around them, their experiences, and the purposes they serve. Architectural Nexus is, by design, creating the world in which people live.

Both idealistic and practical, design is a mixture of art, psychology, and engineering, brought together by thoughtful interaction, purposeful decision-making, and the recognition of creative opportunity. Design is never predetermined nor is it accidental.

Architectural Nexus has designed many impactful environments and buildings in the Utah community including the Park City Hospital, the Huntsman Cancer Institute, the Millcreek Community Center, Orem's U Place Commercial Center, the Glendale Library, the Layton Family History Center, and many more.

Because Architectural Nexus believes in positively enhancing the environment and the community, the company is a proud supporter of KUED and 10 That Changed America, a series that looks at the impact of legendary streets, monuments, man-made marvels, and towns throughout the country.
