One of the things that makes this time of year so special, is that it's when we celebrate so many important and lasting traditions. One of the longest-standing traditions at the Eccles Broadcast Center is our annual Food and Clothing Drive, which will be held on Thursday, December 15, from 7:30 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. PBS Utah, KUER: NPR Utah, and UETN invite you to bring frozen turkeys, hams, and other food or clothing items to help Utah families in need during the holiday season through the Crossroads Urban Center.

Drive up to our tent in the EBC parking lot and employees will unload your items. Your monetary donation is also welcome and tax deductible. Checks may be made out to Crossroads Urban Center. We have held this Food and Clothing Drive for over thirty years, and we know it has become a tradition for many of our viewers. Thank you in advance to making this year's another success!

Another great tradition we have here is bringing you a terrific lineup of holiday specials, and this December is no exception. From the music of Ella Fitzgerald, to the cozy comforts of Mary Berry's holiday table; from the real story of the Nutcracker and the Mouse King, to the dazzling sounds of Christmas with the Tabernacle Choir; and even a marathon of Call the Midwife Holiday Specials, we have something to put every member of the family in a festive spirit. More details can be found in this guide.

From everyone at PBS Utah, we wish you a very happy holiday season!

SPONSOR PROFILE

The Children's Hour

The Children's Hour is a unique, locally-owned boutique tailored to women and children. An anchor of the 9th and 9th neighborhood in Salt Lake City, the family-owned business opened in 1984 exclusively as a children's bookstore.

Owner Diane Etherington, an avid reader and collector of books, originally founded her business to sell hardback children's books. But over time, as more and more people came to her for book recommendations for themselves in addition to their children, she wished she didn't have to point them somewhere else to buy them.

Now, 38 years later, The Children's Hour sells books for both children and adults (and everything in between!), as well as special jewelry, unique gifts, toys, stunning clothing and shoes for women and children, and even items for the kitchen. It is the perfect destination for a fun afternoon browse that will lead to delightful treasures hidden around every corner. The bookstore offers the very best of the items it sells, with merchandise sourced from the owner's travels, both domestic and abroad.

Customers love and appreciate that there is something literally for everyone on their gift list, with price points for every wallet, and a staff that is knowledgeable, helpful, and passionate about what they sell. The Children's Hour is not only a great place to find great books and clothing for children, young ladies, and women, it's also a great place to find fun cultural events that enrich the community.

The Children's Hour has been dedicated to providing quality products and a quality experience for everyone who walks into the store. The Children's Hour is also a proud sponsor of quality programming on PBS Utah, including dramas such as All Creatures Great and Small on Masterpiece.

The Children's Hour is located at 898 S 900 E in Salt Lake City. Hours of operation are 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Masks are encouraged for in-store shopping. To learn more, call (801) 359-4150 or visit www.childrenshourbookstore.com.
