Manager's Memo

The KUED engineering department has been hard at work installing nearly 500 translators in rural Utah. We're racing against the calendar as the weather gets cooler and winter is just around the corner. Translators are located on mountain tops where the snow builds up in late fall. We're thankful to T-Mobile for funding the purchase of the translators, budgeted at around $7 million, assuring that most of Utah will continue to receive television signals.

KUED was nominated for seven Emmy awards for its local programming. Search & Rescue, On the Spectrum, Homeless at the End, A Home of Their Own, Lagoon: Rock and Rollercoasters, local program promotions, and a promo for KUED's 60th Anniversary are all up for awards, competing with regional commercial stations.

Now that KUED broadcasts four channels – KUED 7.1, our main channel; WORLD, Channel 7.2; PBS Kid's 24/7, Channel 7.3; and CREATE, Channel 7.4 – our program guide is due for an update. We're planning to make changes after the first of the year to reflect a better picture of what's on each channel and to make it easier for you to find your favorite programs. Along with KUED Passport, access to KUED programming will be easier than ever.

James Morgese
General Manager KUED

KUED welcomes four new advisory board members, two of whom reside in Utah County to reflect our added responsibilities now that KBYU has changed its focus. From Provo comes Stephenie Larsen and Nikki Walker giving us perspective on Utah County. From Salt Lake City comes Spencer Critchett and Brendan Ryan.

KUED currently has 21 board members representing diverse geography, ethnicity, gender, and professions. The board generally meets every other month to help KUED better serve the state. The schedule of KUED advisory board meetings are announced in the SEVEN program guide and in on-air announcements. To be considered for the KUED advisory board, send a letter of interest and a resume to jmorgese@kued.org.

Please, also use the above email address to inform me of concerns or issues you wish to have addressed. Thank you for supporting KUED!

UNDERWRITER PROFILE

The Salt Lake Shakespeare Society

The Salt Lake Shakespeare Society is a volunteer-based, non-profit organization that is dedicated to the enjoyment and appreciation of Shakespeare and his times. The Society's membership shares a common love of Shakespearean writings and the history of those times. Shakespeare wrote during the English Reformation, a period that is responsible for the ascendancy of English Humanism. His writings, and those of his colleagues, promoted the adoption of humanism as a philosophy. The Society believes that studying liberal humanism leads to richer and more informed lives.

The Society achieves its mission in a variety of ways. The full membership meets monthly for lectures and discussions. Small groups of members meet to study a wide range of subjects, which comprise the field of classical humanism. Finally, the Salt Lake Shakespeare Society presents unique events that are open to the public throughout the year.

An increasing number of members share the vision of the organization with the community. Information on membership and events is located on their web site at www.shakespearealtlake.org.

The Salt Lake Shakespeare Society also gives to the community by proudly supporting KUED and underwriting the PBS series, Shakespeare Uncovered. Perfectly complementing the Society and its mission, the six-part series, returning Friday, October 12 at 8:00 p.m., includes six famous hosts who weave their personal passions with history, performances, and analysis to tell the stories behind Shakespeare's greatest plays.
