

2007 Second Quarter FCC Report
of
PUBLIC AFFAIRS / PUBLIC SERVICE

Presented by KTXL FOX40

In response to Community Issues and Concerns
April 1, 2007- June 30, 2007

KTXL FOX40's obligation is to ascertain the important issues and needs of the communities within our broadcast coverage area and to provide quarterly reports on the station's response and coverage of these issues.

The following list was determined after careful evaluation of information attained through KTXL FOX40's ascertainment process including viewer mail, participation in ascertainment groups, phone calls, communication with community leaders and key personnel affiliated with local organizations as well as site visits to community organizations. Significant challenges were presented in the following areas:

- Community Service
- Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice
- Diversity and Tolerance
- Economy and Growth (including housing, agriculture and environment)
- Education/ Arts and Culture
- Government
- Health and Safety (including alcohol and drug prevention, disabilities)
- Youth and Family Issues

From April 1 through June 30, 2007 KTXL FOX40 addressed these community issues and needs through the following on-air program vehicles, as well as supplemental off-air outreach and initiatives detailed in this report.

- FOX40 Morning News weekday broadcasts
- FOX40 NEWS at 10 nightly broadcasts
- "Our Roots" monthly FOX40 News at 10 segment profiling diversity in our local area.
- "A Place Called Home" monthly profile on children awaiting to be adopted
- Crime Alert, in partnership with law enforcement, weekly profiles of wanted fugitives in our local area.
- "FOX40 In Focus" a weekly 30-minute public affairs program providing coverage of local interest issues and community profiles.
- Severe Weather Alerts
- Public Service Announcements

FOX40 Morning News airs weekdays from 6:00 AM to 8:00 AM and features local and national news, weather forecasts, current traffic and commuter updates.

FOX40 News at 10 airs Monday through Sunday featuring local and national news, sports and weather.

DATE: 3/02/07, 5/07/07, 6/04/07

Time: 10PM

A Place Called Home. There are currently an estimated 20,000 children in California waiting to be adopted. Many myths surround adoption, such as "it is too difficult, it costs too much, etc." KTXL has been working with Sierra Adoption Services since 1998 to address the issues surrounding adoption. As part of this effort, the station continues "A Place Called Home," a monthly FOX40 NEWS segment, which highlight children waiting to be adopted. Since 1998 more than 100-featured children have been placed in adoptive homes.

A Place Called Home. There are currently an estimated 20,000 children in California waiting to be adopted. Many myths surround adoption, such as "it is too difficult, it costs too much, etc." KTXL has been working with Sierra Adoption Services since 1998 to address the issues surrounding adoption. As part of this effort, the station continues "A Place Called Home," a monthly FOX40 NEWS segment, which highlight children waiting to be adopted. Since 1998 more than 100-featured children have been placed in adoptive homes.

Rio Linda Protest. A protest began outside Rio Linda High School after a student was suspended and other students were told to leave school property for coming to school wearing graphic anti-gay t-shirts. Along with the shirts these students handed out flyers asking, "what does the bible really say about homosexuality?" It is believed many of the students protesting belong to the same church.

Video Game Addiction. The American Medical Association thinks video games are just as addictive as drugs and alcohol. The AMA will be voting on allowing gaming to be classified as a psychiatric disorder and wants addicts to be able to get help under their insurance plans. A gaming anonymous group says it gets ten people signing up everyday to get help with their addictions. Psychiatrists say that if video games are classified as an addiction so should blackberries or cell phones.
