

WOMR/WFMR

Quarterly Issues Report

January 1, 2024 – March 31, 2024

January 15, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Cape Climate – Issue addressed: Provincetown's resiliency in the face of sea level rise and climate change

February 19, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. Cape Climate – Issue addressed: Local students engagement with issues of climate change via the Cape Cod Commission's Climate Ambassadors program

March 18, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Cape Climate – Issue addressed: Floodwaters resulting from new over-washes and their effects on mosquito control

February 6, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - The Lowdown – Issue addressed: Accessory dwelling units and their role in combating the housing crisis

January 5, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News – Issues addressed: major real estate transactions in Provincetown and Brewster, fallout from the resignation of the Wellfleet town administrator

January 12, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News – Issues addressed: major changes in Orleans real estate including a new housing development, and the potential conversion of a Dennis nursing home into a homeless shelter

January 19, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News – Issues addressed: more flooding in Provincetown's East End, more resignations in Wellfleet Town Hall, update on housing development in Truro

January 26, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News - Issues addressed: State Representative Sarah Peake's decision not to run again, return of right whales to Cape Cod Bay, Duck Harbor over-washes

February 2, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News – Issues addressed: ongoing chaos in Wellfleet Town hall, candidates to replace Sarah Peake as state representative, candidates for Truro select board.

February 9, 2024 – 12:30pm – 30 mins. - Outer Cape News – Issues addressed: Chapel on the Pond owners selling the building and evicting the congregation, tax delinquent, negligent property owners the Delgizzi family, erosion on Morris Island Chatham threatens private and public structures.