CHILDREN'S TELEVISION PROGRAMMING REPORT
CORE PROGRAMMING
SYNOPSIS OF SHOWS: 2008/2009 SEASON

1. Teen Kids News

Target Audience: Ages 13 years to 16 years

First kid-to-kid newscast, created for and delivered by children. Hosted by a diverse news team made up of child "journalists" reporting from a professional news set. Meets the needs of children whose sophistication and curiosity about their world is motivated by the information explosion. Delivered eye-to-eye with a pre-adolescent sensibility and sense of humor. Emphasis on diversity and experience.

2. Animal Exploration with Jarod Miller

Target Audience: Ages 13 years to 16 years

"Animal Exploration with Jarod Miller is a half-hour live action television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children. In each episode, Jarod looks at exotic and domestic animals from his own unique perspective. Every week Jarod travels to zoos and aquariums to explore animals that fit a particular theme, whether it's the need for speed or animal heroes – there's always something amazing happening. The mission of this program is to inspire viewers, children and adults alike

3. Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures

Target Audience: Ages 13 years to 16 years

"Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures" is a half-hour action television program designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children. In each episode, the cameras follow Jack as he spends time with nature's creatures across the continents. Jack talks with people that are knowledgeable about each animal and habitat, teaching as he goes. Each episode is designed to reveal to children the world around them in a way that presents positive role models and pro-social values within an environmentally responsible universe.

4. Jack Hanna: Into the Wild

Target Audience: Ages 13-16

"Jack Hanna's: Into the Wild" is a live-action television series designed to educate and inform children 13-16 years of age, although Jack strives to make this show educational and fun viewing for all audiences. The series is based on Jack traveling the world with friends & family, taking the viewer to his favorite destinations and introducing them to new & amazing creatures each week. Throughout his travels, he raises awareness of different cultures, geography and spectacular animals and animal facts, while teaching children the importance of stewardship of our environment through his documented donations to conservation efforts worldwide.

5. Gladiators 2000

Target Audience: Ages 13-17

"Gladiators 2000" is a fun and interactive fitness-based educational program geared towards high school-aged children. Though the show's emphasis lies in health and nutritional education, the program blends other core academic subjects such as English, History, Social Studies and Mathematics in a balanced and exciting manner. Through a series of team-based competitions, 2 pairs of students are challenged to earn points by running relays, maneuvering through obstacle courses and thinking quickly on their feet. The completion of these physical tasks is complemented by the correct answering of subject based questions. Overall, Gladiators 2000 is an educational tool which may be used in or out of the classroom as a supplement to health and nutrition curriculum, and reinforces the moral values necessary to developing a healthy mind & body.

6. Saved By The Bell

Target Audience: Ages 13 years to 16 years

"Saved By The Bell" is a weekly television series targeted to teens 13-16 years of age, which explores social themes and coping strategies through the daily school life of six teen-aged friends at Bayside High who help each other make the most of growing up in a complicated world. The multi-ethnic cast members serve as role models for young teen viewers as they deal with such issues as the death of a loved one, the right to say "no", the meaning of heroism, teenage alcohol use and other issues of particular concern to young teens.
