

WIL-FM

92.3 FM
St. Louis, Missouri

Quarterly Issues/Programs Report

3rd Quarter, 2013

Talk of the Town Radio Program

3rd Quarter, 2013

Air Date: 07/07/13

Title: Open Spaces Council

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: The Open Spaces Council – Katherine Dockery tells us about the importance of maintaining our area waterways and green space. Operation Clean Stream removes on average about 35,000 pounds of metal from area waterways and banks every year.

Local issues, Environmental awareness, education and services

Air Date: 07/14/13

Title: Bridge

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: Reverend Cathleen Wilder is the Executive Director of Bridge in St. Louis. Bridge is a shelter and food pantry for those in need in the St. Louis area. Wilder tells us about Bridge and that it is one of the only day shelters in the metro area. Their belief is that every person should be able to have access to basic human needs.

Local issues, Hunger, Poverty, community support, homeless

Air Date: 07/21/13

Title: Campbell House Museum

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: In this edition of Talk of the Town, the Executive Director of the Campbell House Museum tells us about one of the St. Louis areas littlest known treasures; The Campbell House Museum. The museum is located in the heart of downtown on Locust and was home to a very rich 19th century immigrant. It's fascinating and complex history included visits by Presidents, high profile business men and women, celebrities and others.

Local issues, culture, arts, preservation, civic pride

Talk of the Town Radio Program

3rd Quarter, 2013

Air Date: 07/28/13

Title: ProNet International Gifts and Scholarships

Time: 5:30am

Running time: 30 min

Summary: Lawrence Abrams, President of ProNet International Gifts and Scholarships joins us to talk about ProNet Int. The St. Louis area organization provides scholarship funds and gifts to Veterans that are seeking higher education. The organization hopes to allow Veterans a more secure future after serving our country.

Local issues, education, veterans, community support, economy

Air Date: 08/04/13

Title: Mercy Center

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: Mercy Center Executive Director Dawn Springfield joins us on this edition of Talk of the Town to explain all of the ways Mercy Center provides much needed service to St. Louisans. The 72 acre non-profit retreat center offers guests a healthy, supportive environment for spiritual, business or personal retreats.

Local issues, Rehabilitation, social services, lifestyle

Air Date: 08/11/13

Title: Rare Genomics

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: An estimated 250 million people worldwide suffer from a rare disease. For most, there is no cure because of the rarity of their disease. Often times, only 5 or 10 people are affected by the disease. Jimmy Lin is the President and Founder of Rare Genomics, an organization that utilizes crowd funding and dozens of volunteers to research and find cures for those rare diseases.

Local issues, Health, financial aid, research

Talk of the Town Radio Program

3rd Quarter, 2013

Air Date: 08/18/13

Title: National Council of Jewish Women

Time: 5:30am

Running time: 30 min

Summary: The National Council of Jewish Women tells us about their annual Back To School Store. Many children that attend school simply can't afford even the most basic supplies. The National Council of Jewish Women in St. Louis hosts an annual Back to School Store event to help supply those children in need with the supplies they need. The NCJW in St. Louis also raises funds through a resale shop to provide care and counseling to abused or widowed women.

Local Issues, poverty, children education, abused women, Social services

Air Date: 08/25/13

Title: Missouri Military Memorial Foundation

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: As of August 25th, there were 157 Missouri men and women killed or injured while fighting the Global War on Terror. The Missouri Military Memorial Foundation wants to raise funds to dedicate a memorial to those men and women. The organization believes the time to erect a monument and memorial is now.

Local issues, military awareness, community support, recognition

Air Date: 09/01/13

Title: Peaches Neet Feet

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: Angela Barger is an artist and community director of Peaches Neet Feet . Angela joins us on this edition of Talk of the Town to tell us about Paying it Forward. Peaches Neet Feet's goal is to simply spread smiles and kindness. The organization started when Madison "Peach" Steiner began painting shoes for children going through tough times. Now, volunteer artists across the globe paint designs on ordinary shoes to cheer up children around the world.

Local issues, Lifestyle awareness, community support, social services

Talk of the Town Radio Program

3rd Quarter, 2013

Air Date: 09/8/13

Title: Madison County Child Advocacy Group

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: It's estimated that 3,500 children are physically and sexually abused every year in Madison County, Illinois. Madison County Child Advocacy group provides much needed professional support and intervention to help fight child abuse. The Executive Director joined us to talk about the importance of the organization, and how sensitive dealing with child abuse can be.

Local Issues – Child Abuse, Child Abuse prevention, Child Abuse Intervention

Air Date: 09/15/13

Title: Giving is a Family Tradition

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: Giving is a Family Tradition; An organization that began as one family surprising families of children in the hospital with gifts during the holiday season. Now, Jennifer Krassinger, President and founder of the organization told us how one family's idea has turned into a thriving organization. G.I.F.T. provides much needed items and support to families with infants in intensive care units in the St. Louis area.

Local Issues - community support, poverty, children

Air Date: 09/29/13

Title: Rise STL

Time: 5:30am

Running Time: 30 min

Summary: When neighborhoods and communities began to fall apart, it can often be a difficult task to revitalize the area. Steven Acree, President and Executive Director of RISE STL told us how his organization provides much needed support and services for neighborhoods to rebuild and revitalize. Using a network of volunteers from city planners, engineers, lawyers and politicians – RISE helps organize and coordinate the task of rebuilding and putting new life into communities.

Local issues, community support, restoration, legal services, city planning, education, social services

Music And The Spoken Word

3rd Quarter 2013

Air Dates: 7/1/2013-9/30/2013

Time: Sunday's 6:00AM

Running Time: 30 minutes

Summary:

Each week's show is a touching program that includes songs from the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. In addition to the half hour program's worship songs, each show features a special message and testimony that is uplifting and spiritually rewarding.
