

3rd Quarter 2015

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was scheduled and aired on 1490 KNAM, Monday through Friday at 6:50am. It is also scheduled as fill programming on this station, therefore it airs at random times throughout each day as well.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
July 1 - July 3, 2015

Issue: Community/Youth 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Fair Ambassador Emma Gardner. Emma talks about the importance of the fair to local 4-H activities and her involvement with the fair. The fair runs July 14th through 18th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday July 1st 2015.

Issue: Energy/Fracking 2 min.: Interview with CU Professor Joseph Ryan about fracking and a new study finding 15 compounds of hundreds in fracking wastewater could be hazards if making their way to drinking water. The CU study found 9 of those would have toxic concern.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday July 2nd 2015.

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder Leeds School of Business professor Dr. Richard Wobbekind on business indicators from the second quarter of 2015. He says the number dipped slightly, but continues to be positive.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday July 3rd, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
July 6, 2015 - July 10, 2015

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder Leeds School of Business professor Dr. Richard Wobbekind on business indicators from the second quarter of 2015. He says the number dipped slightly, but continues to be positive.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday July 6th, 2015.

Issue: Energy/Fracking 2 min.: Interview with CU Professor Joseph Ryan about fracking and a new study finding 15 compounds of hundreds in fracking wastewater could be hazards if making their way to drinking water. The CU study found 9 of those would have toxic concern.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday July 7th 2015.

Issue: Community/Youth 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Fair Ambassador Emma Gardner. Emma talks about the importance of the fair to local 4-H activities and her involvement with the fair. The fair runs July 14th through 18th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday July 8th 2015.

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder Leeds School of Business professor Dr. Richard Wobbekind on business indicators from the second quarter of 2015. He says the number dipped slightly, but continues to be positive.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday July 9th 2015.

Issue: Community/Youth 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Fair Ambassador Emma Gardner. Emma talks about the importance of the fair to local 4-H activities and her involvement with the fair. The fair runs July 14th through 18th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday July 10th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
July 13 - July 17, 2015

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with C-SPAN producer Ashley Hill on the cable network's City Tours. The program is in the Grand Valley taping interviews with residents about the history of the valley and its well known authors. They plan to air a segment on their C-SPAN networks including Book TV. They'll air the first week in September and be featured on the non-profit network's website.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday July 13th, 2015.

Issue: Community Giving 2 min.: Interview with Antonelli's Advanced Automotive owner Daniel Antonelli on a car give away his business is doing. The KIA Rio will be given away July 15th through email entries. Antonelli says he's given away cars before, but this is the first time he'll meet the winner. In the past he's given them to groups and churches that then presented them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday July 14th 2015.

Issue: Community/Crime 2 min.: Interview with Carrissa Christensen, a college student from Grand Junction organizing a Take Back the Night walk. She's encouraging people to join her on a walk to call attention to the problem of sexual assault on college campuses.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday July 15th 2015.

Issue: Environment 2 min.: Interview with Karen Sjoberg, the director of a new group called Citizens for Clean Air. The group is conducting a research project to find out what people know about open burning laws. They believe problem air in the Grand Valley is partly attributable to open and agricultural burning.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday July 16th 2015.

Issue: Environment 2 min.: Interview with Karen Sjoberg, the director of a new group called Citizens for Clean Air. The group is conducting a research project to find out what people know about open burning laws. They believe problem air in the Grand Valley is partly attributable to open and agricultural burning.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday July 17th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
July 20 - July 24, 2015

Issue: Community/Crime 2 min.: Interview with Carrissa Christensen, a college student from Grand Junction organizing a Take Back the Night walk. She's encouraging people to join her on a walk to call attention to the problem of sexual assault on college campuses.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday July 20th, 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with C-SPAN producer Ashley Hill on the cable network's City Tours. The program is in the Grand Valley taping interviews with residents about the history of the valley and its well known authors. They plan to air a segment on their C-SPAN networks including Book TV. They'll air the first week in September and be featured on the non-profit network's website.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday July 21st 2015.

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder Leeds School of Business professor Dr. Richard Wobbekind on business indicators from the second quarter of 2015. He says the number dipped slightly, but continues to be positive.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday July 22nd 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Peach Festival Recipe Contest spokeswoman Dixie Burmeister. She talks about using the Internet to get recipes and how to correctly note where the recipe came from. Also prizes in the contest as old as the Festival--47 years this year.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday July 23rd 2015.

Issue: Disabilities 2 min.: Interview with STRiVE program development director Doug Sorter on the group's association with the Western Colorado Botanical Gardens. They hold concerts at the gardens to raise funds and to involve the community in STRiVE's work.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday July 24th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
July 27 - July 31, 2015

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Peach Festival Recipe Contest spokeswoman Dixie Burmeister. She talks about using the Internet to get recipes and how to correctly note where the recipe came from. Also prizes in the contest as old as the Festival--47 years this year.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday July 27th, 2015.

Issue: Community/Crime 2 min.: Interview with Carrissa Christensen, a college student from Grand Junction organizing a Take Back the Night walk. She's encouraging people to join her on a walk to call attention to the problem of sexual assault on college campuses.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday July 28th 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Chamber of Commerce Director Julianne Adams on the Palisade Peach Festival. It's in its 47th year and has a variety of attractions. She talks about a new Tour of the Orchards bus tour, and Peach Day at the GJ Rockies.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday July 29th 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with HomewardBound of the Grand Valley Procurement and Volunteer Coordinator Megan Kemmis on ground breaking of the homeless shelter's new 40-unit apartment complex, Pathways Village. It's equipped with in-unit washer and dryers, Internet access, and a Library and will include services from Hilltop Community Resources.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday July 30th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Independence Academy Charter School Executive Director Damon Lockhart on the 400-student school opening a new building this year. The school operates with help from District 51 but on a different schedule. The start school two weeks after D51 and end at the same time by foregoing week breaks in October and at spring break.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday July 31st, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
August 3 - August 7, 2015

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Chamber of Commerce Director Julianne Adams on the Palisade Peach Festival. It's in its 47th year and has a variety of attractions. She talks about a new Tour of the Orchards bus tour, and Peach Day at the GJ Rockies

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday August 3rd, 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Independence Academy Charter School Executive Director Damon Lockhart on the 400-student school opening a new building this year. The school operates with help from District 51 but on a different schedule. The start school two weeks after D51 and end at the same time by foregoing week breaks in October and at spring break.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday August 4th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with District 51 spokesman Dan Dougherty on the new school bus contract. Student Transportation of America providing new diesel buses with state of the art technology. Once it's hooked up, parents will be able to track their kids by GPS on the buses.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday August 5th 2015.

Issue: Community/Sports/Health 2 min.: Interview with Erika Doyle, parent of Piper Doyle who suffered a concussion last year and is working to organize a group for students to deal with the effects of concussions, called Teen TBI for Traumatic Brain Injury. Piper is getting ready to launch a website and waiting on approval from medical professionals.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday August 6th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Diabetes Counts president Lorraine Cole on the group for kids and parents of kids with Type 1 Diabetes. They're planning a family camp at Camp Cedaredge at the end of the month. The camp involves the entire family because they're all affected by the disease in different ways.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday August 7th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
August 10 - August 14, 2015

Issue: Community/Sports/Health 2 min.: Interview with Erika Doyle, parent of Piper Doyle who suffered a concussion last year and is working to organize a group for students to deal with the effects of concussions, called Teen TBI for Traumatic Brain Injury. Piper is getting ready to launch a website and waiting on approval from medical professionals.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday August 10th, 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Peach Festival Recipe Contest spokeswoman Dixie Burmeister. She talks about using the Internet to get recipes and how to correctly note where the recipe came from. Also prizes in the contest as old as the Festival--47 years this year.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday August 11th 2015.

Issue: Community Sporting 2 min.: Interview with Grand Valley BMX operator Nick Adams on the new Olympic track at the Mesa County Fairgrounds. It's one of only three in the country offering Olympic qualifying specifications and will draw bikers from all over the world.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday August 12th 2015.

Issue: 9-11 2 min.: Interview with 9-11 Stairclimb organizer Shawn Duncan. The Denver stairclimb at Red Rocks is 7 years old and along with other similar climbs has raised over $1 million for NYFD counseling and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday August 13th 2015.

Issue: Community Sporting 2 min.: Interview with Grand Valley BMX operator Nick Adams on the new Olympic track at the Mesa County Fairgrounds. It's one of only three in the country offering Olympic qualifying specifications and will draw bikers from all over the world.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday August 14th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
August 17 - August 21, 2015

Issue: 9-11 2 min.: Interview with 9-11 Stairclimb organizer Shawn Duncan. The Denver stair climb at Red Rocks is 7 years old and along with other similar climbs has raised over $1 million for NYFD counseling and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday August 17th, 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the Tour of the Valley bike ride. It has 4 routes including a new one that uses the riverfront trail from Fruita to Palisade. Money raised is used to help valley programs like CMU Cycling and COPMOBA.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday August 18th 2015.

Issue: Youth Issues 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Partners One on One Case Manager Joe Funk on the mentoring program. He talks about the commitment from both mentor and mentee, and what they are looking for in new mentors. There's a 70- kid wait list for mentors.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday August 19th 2015.

Issue: BMX/Youth/Economy 2 min.: Interview with Grand Valley BMX operator Nick Adams on the new Olympic track at the fairgrounds. He talks about an international competition being staged this weekend with competitors earning olympic qualifying points at the track which is one of only three in the country offering Olympic qualifying specifications.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday August 20th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with District 51 spokesman Dan Dougherty on the new school bus contract. Student Transportation of America providing new diesel buses with state of the art technology. Once it's hooked up, parents will be able to track their kids by GPS on the buses.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday August 21st, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
August 24 - August 28, 2015

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the Tour of the Valley bike ride. It has 4 routes including a new one that uses the riverfront trail from Fruita to Palisade. Money raised is used to help valley programs like CMU Cycling and COPMOBA.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday August 24th, 2015.

Issue: Law Enforcement 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff Matt Lewis on his climb to the top of the organization. Lewis talks about instilling integrity, service and community in his deputies. He says all three are important both on and off the job. He says he holds deputies to a higher standard.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday August 25th 2015.

Issue: Youth Issues 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Partners One on One Case Manager Joe Funk on the mentoring program. He talks about the commitment from both mentor and mentee, and what they are looking for in new mentors. There's a 70- kid wait list for mentors.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday August 26th 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the Tour of the Valley bike ride. It has 4 routes including a new one that uses the riverfront trail from Fruita to Palisade. Money raised is used to help valley programs like CMU Cycling and COPMOBA.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday August 27th 2015.

Issue: Youth/Health 2 min.: Interview with Diabetes Counts President Lorain Cole on what the group does. She talks about the challenges of being a parent of a child with Type 1 Diabetes, and activities Diabetes counts does to help parents and children.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday August 28th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of August 31 - September 4, 2015

Issue: 9-11 2 min.: Interview with 9-11 Stairclimb organizer Shawn Duncan. The Denver stairclimb at Red Rocks is 7 years old and along with other similar climbs has raised over $1 million for NYFD counseling and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday August 31st, 2015.

Issue: Law Enforcement 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff Matt Lewis on his climb to the top of the organization. Lewis talks about instilling integrity, service and community in his deputies. He says all three are important both on and off the job. He says he holds deputies to a higher standard.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday September 1st 2015.

Issue: Youth Issues/ Law Enforcement 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police Officer Suzette Freidenberger on a presentation for high school upperclassmen and CMU students on making good decisions in bad situations. The program Sex, Drugs and Alcohol is given in the fall and spring, and to groups who request it.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday September 2nd 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Homeward Bound Volunteer and Procurement Coordinator Megan Kemmis on the shelter's Sock Drive, No Sock Left Behind. The shelter serves about 130 people a night, many who don't have cover for their feet. The drive asks people to donate their single socks to the shelter.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday September 3rd 2015.

Issue: Wildlife 2 min.: Interview with Colorado Parks and Wildlife spokesman Mike Porras on a CSU/CPW study partially funded by the energy industry on impacts to wildlife from oil and gas development, especially in the Piceance Basin. He says there are several factors affecting the mule deer population in Colorado, not just energy. The research is being used in the Colorado West Slope Mule Deer Strategy.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday September 4th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
September 7 - September 11, 2015

Issue: Youth Issues/ Law Enforcement 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police Officer Suzette Freidenberger on a presentation for high school upperclassmen and CMU students on making good decisions in bad situations. The program Sex, Drugs and Alcohol is given in the fall and spring, and to groups who request it.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday September 7th, 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Orchard Mesa Middle School PTO President Maggie LaHue on the school's annual 5k. The run/walk is a fundraiser for the school's library and computer lab. When the Mesa County Library moved out of the school, it took the books with it. Now the PTO is trying to replace them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday September 8th 2015.

Issue: Weather 2 min.: Interview with National Weather Service forecaster Joe Ramey on a free Storm Spotter Training in Delta. Attendees will learn about thunderstorms, hail, wind and rain, and reporting it to the weather service in Grand Junction.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday September 9th 2015.

Issue: Wildlife 2 min.: Interview with Colorado Parks and Wildlife spokesman Mike Porras on recent human/bear conflicts on the front range. Bears have been spotted in several neighborhoods because of a lack of food. Two bear cubs were killed by a man who fired a gun to scare them away from his dog. It's against the law to kill an animal to protect a pet.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday September 10th 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Homeward Bound Volunteer and Procurement Coordinator Megan Kemmis on the shelter's Sock Drive, No Sock Left Behind. The shelter serves about 130 people a night, many who don't have cover for their feet. The drive asks people to donate their single socks to the shelter.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday September 11th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
September 14 - September 18, 2015

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Orchard Mesa Middle School PTO President Maggie LaHue on the school's annual 5k. The run/walk is a fundraiser for the school's library and computer lab. When the Mesa County Library moved out of the school, it took the books with it. Now the PTO is trying to replace them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday September 14th, 2015.

Issue: Weather 2 min.: Interview with National Weather Service forecaster Joe Ramey on a free Storm Spotter Training in Delta. Attendees will learn about thunderstorms, hail, wind and rain, and reporting it to the weather service in Grand Junction.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday September 15th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Orchard Mesa Middle School PTO President Maggie LaHue on the school's annual 5k. The run/walk is a fundraiser for the school's library and computer lab. When the Mesa County Library moved out of the school, it took the books with it. Now the PTO is trying to replace them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday September 16th 2015.

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Central High School Director of Bands Dylan Ford on the annual Colorado West Marching Band Festival. 30-plus bands will be in Grand Junction the weekend of Sept 25 and 26th for parade and field competition. They earn points to compete at the state festival in Denver in October.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday September 17th 2015.

Issue: Child Abuse 2 min.: Interview with CASA Director Janet Rowland on a new collaboration called Fostering Need. It brings together CASA, Mesa County Partners and the Department of Human Services to let potential volunteers decide which program best suits them. A meeting scheduled next week.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday September 18th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
September 21 - September 25, 2015

Issue: Education 2 min.: Interview with Central High School Director of Bands Dylan Ford on the annual Colorado West Marching Band Festival. 30-plus bands will be in Grand Junction the weekend of Sept 25 and 26th for parade and field competition. They earn points to compete at the state festival in Denver in October..

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday September 21st, 2015.

Issue: Wildlife 2 min.: Interview with Colorado Parks and Wildlife spokesman Mike Porras on a CSU/CPW study partially funded by the energy industry on impacts to wildlife from oil and gas development, especially in the Piceance Basin. He says there are several factors affecting the mule deer population in Colorado, not just energy. The research is being used in the Colorado West Slope Mule Deer Strategy.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday September 22nd 2015.

Issue: Drug Abuse 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police spokeswoman Heidi Davidson on the National Drug Take Back event this Saturday. Law Enforcement and the DEA partner to have people drop off leftover prescription medication. One of the biggest problems with drug abuse is prescription drugs and the best way to dispose of leftovers is through law enforcement agencies.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday September 23rd 2015.

Issue: Climate 2 min.: Interview with National Weather Service Meteorologist Jeff Colton on prospects for El Nino. Some parts of the state can expect more snow than usual this winter, but in the Grand Valley, average conditions are likely.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday September 24th 2015.

Issue: Drug Abuse 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police spokeswoman Heidi Davidson on the National Drug Take Back event this Saturday. Law Enforcement and the DEA partner to have people drop off leftover prescription medication. One of the biggest problems with drug abuse is prescription drugs and the best way to dispose of leftovers is through law enforcement agencies.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday September 25th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
September 28 - September 30, 2015

Issue: Homeless 2 min.: Interview with The House Director John Mok-Lamme on a deal just signed with the operators of Graff Dairy. When the business reopens in December, they've agreed to give kids at The House first a guaranteed shot at a job.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday September 28th, 2015.

Issue: 2 min.: Child Abuse 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County CASA Director Janet Rowland on the group's fundraiser, the Super Hero 5K this weekend at Colorado Mesa University.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday September 29th 2015.

Issue: Developmental Disabilities 2 min.: Interview with STRiVE programs coordinator Doug Sorter and mother Jennifer Cutts. Cutts talks about her experience with STRiVE and its impact on her 5 month old daughter and Sorter about the Rollin' on the River 3k next week.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday September 30th 2015.