

2nd Quarter 2015

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was scheduled and aired on 1490 KNAM, Monday through Friday at 6:50am. It is also scheduled as fill programming on this station, therefore it airs at random times throughout each day as well.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
April 1 - April 3, 2015

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Psychiatrist Dr. Robert Sammons on a new treatment for depression called Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation or TMS. He's opened a clinic with the machine similar to an MRI to treat severe cases of depression in people who have tried medication with no results.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday April 1st, 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Chamber of Commerce Director Julianne Adams on the International Honeybee Festival. The fest includes bug experts, agricultural talks, costume contests and cooking demonstrations calling attention to the agricultural necessity of bees.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday April 2nd, 2015.

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with St. Mary's Hospital Chaplain Bryan Newman on National Healthcare Decisions Day. He's part of the Mesa County Advance Care Planning Task Force which has put together informational sessions on the need for end-of-life decisions.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday April 3rd, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
April 6 - April 10, 2015

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Psychiatrist Dr. Robert Sammons on a new treatment for depression called Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation or TMS. He's opened a clinic with the machine similar to an MRI to treat severe cases of depression in people who have tried medication with no results.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday April 6th, 2015.

Issue: Community 2 min: Interview with Palisade Chamber of Commerce Director Julianne Adams on the International Honeybee Festival. The fest includes bug experts, agricultural talks, costume contests and cooking demonstrations calling attention to the agricultural necessity of bees.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday April 7th 2015.

Issue: Child Abuse 2 min.: Interview with Colorado CASA Coordinator Lauren Mueller on the program and her experience with CASA as a youth. Mueller will speak to a Child Abuse Awareness luncheon put on by Mesa County CASA, Court Appointed Special Advocates.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday April 8th 2015.

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsolf on the hospital's new building progress. Countdown clock in place at the current hospital and a topping out party at the new facility Friday April 10th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday April 9th, 2015.

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with St. Mary's Hospital Chaplain Bryan Newman on National Healthcare Decisions Day. He's part of the Mesa County Advance Care Planning Task Force which has put together informational sessions on the need for end-of-life decisions.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday April 10th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
April 13 - April 17, 2015

Issue: Child Abuse 2 min.: Interview with Colorado CASA Coordinator Lauren Mueller on the program and her experience with CASA as a youth. Mueller will speak to a Child Abuse Awareness luncheon put on by Mesa County CASA, Court Appointed Special Advocates.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday April 13th, 2015.

Issue: Land Use 2 min: Interview with Bureau of Land Management spokesman Christopher Joyner on the Resource Management Plan for the Grand Junction Field Office. Ten years in the making, the document includes oil and gas leasing on the one million acres covered by the office. The most significant part of the plan involves travel restrictions.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday April 14th 2015.

Issue: Child Health/Birth Defects 2 min.: Interview with March of Dimes West Slope Division Director Terri Jones on the annual March for Babies. 1 in 10 children in Colorado is born prematurely. March of Dimes funds research to reduce that number. The March is Saturday April 25th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday April 15th 2015.

Issue: Land Use 2 min: Interview with Bureau of Land Management spokesman Christopher Joyner on the Resource Management Plan for the Grand Junction Field Office. Ten years in the making, the document includes oil and gas leasing on the one million acres covered by the office. The most significant part of the plan involves travel restrictions.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday April 16th, 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Relay for Life Bring the People Lead Wendy Likes on the annual Relay June 12th. Relay is the largest worldwide fundraiser. They're encouraging people to get teams together to raise funds for cancer research.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday April 17th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
April 20 - April 24, 2015

Issue: Child Health/Birth Defects 2 min.: Interview with March of Dimes West Slope Division Director Terri Jones on the annual March for Babies. 1 in 10 children in Colorado is born prematurely. March of Dimes funds research to reduce that number. The March is Saturday April 25th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday April 20th, 2015.

Issue: Child Health/Birth Defects 2 min.: Interview with March of Dimes West Slope Division Director Terri Jones on the annual March for Babies. 1 in 10 children in Colorado is born prematurely. March of Dimes funds research to reduce that number. The March is Saturday April 25th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday April 21st 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Velo worker and Palisade Gran Fondo coordinator Jennifer Sniley on the first ever Palisade Gran Fondo. a 100k/69 mi timed bicycle ride. The group is putting on the ride to bring attention to riding opportunities in the east side of the valley. The ride is May 16.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday April 22nd 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with beer distributor CR Goodman sales associate Monty Haltiner on the Palisade Brews and Cruise Festival May 1st and 2nd. In its second year, 28 craft breweries and 80 different craft brews will be there.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday April 23rd, 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Relay for Life Bring the People Lead Wendy Likes on the annual Relay June 12th. Relay is the largest worldwide fundraiser. They're encouraging people to get teams together to raise funds for cancer research.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday April 24th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
April 27 - May 1, 2015

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with beer distributor CR Goodman sales associate Monty Haltiner on the Palisade Brews and Cruise Festival May 1st and 2nd. In its second year, 28 craft breweries and 80 different craft brews will be there.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday April 27th, 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Velo worker and Palisade Gran Fondo coordinator Jennifer Sniley on the first ever Palisade Gran Fondo. a 100k/69 mi timed bicycle ride. The group is putting on the ride to bring attention to riding opportunities in the east side of the valley. The ride is May 16.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday April 28th 2015.

Issue: Law Enforcement 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on a program being offered to sworn officers. It provides special screening and blood testing to prevent heart disease and heart programs. Coronary Artery Risk Evaluation was started in Boise, Idaho and the MCSO signed on after staff read about it in a trade magazine. It's paid for with grants and in cooperation with Community Hospital.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday April 29th 2015.

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the hospital's new physician-finder app. The service has been offered for years on the hospital's website, but with the advance of smart phones and other mobile devices, they decided to offer the service on a free app.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday April 30th 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with beer distributor CR Goodman sales associate Monty Haltiner on the Palisade Brews and Cruise Festival May 1st and 2nd. In its second year, 28 craft breweries and 80 different craft brews will be there.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday May 1st, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
May 4 - May 8, 2015

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the hospital's new physician-finder app. The service has been offered for years on the hospital's website, but with the advance of smart phones and other mobile devices, they decided to offer the service on a free app.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday May 4th, 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Velo worker and Palisade Gran Fondo coordinator Jennifer Sniley on the first ever Palisade Gran Fondo. a 100k/69 mi timed bicycle ride. The group is putting on the ride to bring attention to riding opportunities in the east side of the valley. The ride is May 16.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday May 5th 2015.

Issue: Hunger 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County United Way spokeswoman Honora Swanson-Bober on the annual Postal Service Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive. The drive is in its 23rd year. United way securing bags for postal customers to leave non-perishable food by their mailboxes Saturday for pick up by letter carriers. the food split among grand valley food pantries.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday May 6th 2015.

Issue: Hunger 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County United Way spokeswoman Honora

Swanson-Bober on the annual Postal Service Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive. The drive is in its 23rd year. United way securing bags for postal customers to leave non-perishable food by their mailboxes Saturday for pick up by letter carriers. the food split among grand valley food pantries.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday May 7th 2015.

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Psychiatrist Dr. Robert Sammons on a new treatment for depression called Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation or TMS. He's opened a clinic with the machine similar to an MRI to treat severe cases of depression in people who have tried medication with no results.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday May 8th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
May 11 - May 16, 2015

Issue: Healthcare 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsoff on the hospital's new physician-finder app. The service has been offered for years on the hospital's website, but with the advance of smart phones and other mobile devices, they decided to offer the service on a free app.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday May 11th, 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on National Police Week. Over 120 officers killed in the line of duty in 2014, ceremony to honor them this Friday at the Grand Junction Police Department.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday May 12th 2015.

Issue: Historic Preservation 2 min.: Interview with 7th Street Historic District homeowner Joe Hatfield helping organize the annual District Home and Church Tour. The tour this year includes six homes and two churches with proceeds going to the Western Slope Center for Children and the Dual Immersion Academy.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday May 13th 2015.

Issue: Community Events 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on National Police Week. Over 120 officers killed in the line of duty in 2014, ceremony to honor them this Friday at the Grand Junction Police Department.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday May 14th 2015.

Issue: Historic Preservation 2 min.: Interview with 7th Street Historic District homeowner Joe Hatfield helping organize the annual District Home and Church Tour. The tour this year includes six homes and two churches with proceeds going to the Western Slope Center for Children and the Dual Immersion Academy.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday May 15th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming

for the week of
May 18 - May 22, 2015

Issue: Economy/Jobs 2 min.: Interview with John Schlesinger with CU Boulder Career Services on the job outlook for new graduates. Job prospects are good. Over 900 jobs listed in the school's directory. Most jobs: business, engineering, computer science, and accounting. He suggests cleaning up social media sites and says engineering graduates will make the highest starting salaries.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday May 18th, 2015.

Issue: Youth Substance Abuse Prevention 2 min.: Interview with Neural Activity Program Director Leigh Fitch on Sober Hero Party. The group of kids put it together after the demise of the old Sober Grad Party. They're offering a $2,000 scholarship for one student who completes a series of videos and small quiz at soberheroparty.com.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday May 19th 2015.

Issue: Youth Substance Abuse Prevention 2 min.: Interview with Neural Activity Program Director Leigh Fitch on Sober Hero Party. The group of kids put it together after the demise of the old Sober Grad Party. They're offering a $2,000 scholarship for one student who completes a series of videos and small quiz at soberheroparty.com.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday May 20th 2015.

Issue: Outdoors 2 min.: Interview with GMUG Forest spokeswoman Brenda Winfrey on the Families in the Forest program. Through the Grand Mesa Visitor Center, the Forest Service teams up with Cabela's and the local interpreters group to offer prizes for kids who visit the forest this summer with the family and fill out questionnaires on line. A night in Moose Manor, the forest service guest cabin is the grand prize.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday May 21st 2015.

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Visitor and Convention Bureau spokeswoman Mistalyn Meyeran on impacts of JUCO. Also JUCO Chairman Jamie Hamilton on the tournament and the years it's been in the Grand Valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday May 22nd, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
May 25 - May 29, 2015

Issue: Economy 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Visitor and Convention Bureau spokeswoman Mistalyn Meyeran on impacts of JUCO. Also JUCO Chairman Jamie Hamilton on the tournament and the years it's been in the Grand Valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday May 25th, 2015.

Issue: Economy/Jobs 2 min.: Interview with John Schlesinger with CU Boulder Career Services on the job outlook for new graduates. Job prospects are good. Over 900 jobs listed in the school's directory. Most jobs: business, engineering, computer science, and accounting. He suggests cleaning up social media sites and says engineering graduates will make the highest starting salaries.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday May 26th 2015.

Issue: Youth 2 min.: Interview with Karis Inc Head John Mok-Lamme on the 3rd anniversary of The House a Safe Place for Teens. Mok-Lamme talks about the success of the homeless shelter and teen success stories. The House continues to look for donations to keep the program running.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday May 27th 2015.

Issue: Cancer 2 min.: Interview with St. Baldrick's Head Shaving Event Organizer Jim Hamlin on this year's event June 27th. Hamlin talks about Community Hospital's increased involvement this year and the new venue- A Taste of Heaven.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday May 28th 2015.

Issue: Youth 2 min.: Interview with Karis Inc Head John Mok-Lamme on the 3rd anniversary of The House a Safe Place for Teens. Mok-Lamme talks about the success of the homeless shelter and teen success stories. The House continues to look for donations to keep the program running.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday May 29th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
June 1 - June 5, 2015

Issue: Special Olympics 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on the Colorado Special Olympics State Games being held in Grand Junction for the third year this weekend. Law enforcement will be involved again with the lighting of the torch and caldron at Grand Junction's Stocker Stadium Friday June 5th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday June 1st, 2015.

Issue: Colorado Climate 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder atmospheric scientist Kelly Mahoney on the state's climate. She says a relatively dry winter followed by heavy snow in the month of May is not that unusual in Colorado. She says there is much evidence of extreme storm events can and do occur out of generally believed seasons.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday June 2nd 2015.

Issue: Special Olympics 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on the Colorado Special Olympics State Games being held in Grand Junction for the third year this weekend. Law enforcement will be involved again with the lighting of the torch and caldron at Grand Junction's Stocker Stadium Friday June 5th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday June 3rd 2015.

Issue: Veterans Issues 2 min.: Interview with Welcome Home Montrose No Barriers 5k and Golf Tournament Organizer Casey Corrigan on the fundraiser. Corrigan says the money raised at the June 13th events will go to the group's Dream Job program and Warrior Resource Center. Dream Job provides a home and jobs for four disabled veterans and a home for them and their families.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday June 4th 2015.

Issue: Cancer 2 min.: Interview with St. Baldrick's Head Shaving Event Organizer Jim Hamlin on this year's event June 27th. Hamlin talks about Community Hospital's increased involvement this year and the new venue- A Taste of Heaven.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday June 5th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
June 8 - June 12, 2015

Issue: Youth 2 min.: Interview with Karis Inc Head John Mok-Lamme on the 3rd anniversary of The House a Safe Place for Teens. Mok-Lamme talks about the success of the homeless shelter and teen success stories. The House continues to look for donations to keep the program running.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday June 8th, 2015.

Issue: Veterans Issues 2 min.: Interview with Welcome Home Montrose No Barriers 5k and Golf Tournament Organizer Casey Corrigan on the fundraiser. Corrigan says the money raised at the June 13th events will go to the group's Dream Job program and Warrior Resource Center. Dream Job provides a home and jobs for four disabled veterans and a home for them and their families.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday June 9th 2015.

Issue: Relay for Life 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Relay for Life Bring the People Lead Wendy Likes on this year's relay. Also in studio, Jay Ketchum this year's Honorary Survivor and Chair. He'll perform with his band at the relay at Canyon View Park Friday June 12th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday June 10th 2015.

Issue: History 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Historical Society Chairwoman Priscilla Walker on the 100th Anniversary of the Grand River Diversion Dam. The roller dam on the Colorado River was installed in 1915 and dedicated by federal representatives on June 29th 1915. Several celebrations are scheduled throughout the valley for the anniversary. The dam provides irrigation water for 50,000 acres in the Grand Valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday June 11th 2015.

Issue: Relay for Life 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Relay for Life Bring the People Lead Wendy Likes on this year's relay. Also in studio, Jay Ketchum this year's Honorary Survivor and Chair. He'll perform with his band at the relay at Canyon View Park Friday June 12th.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday June 12th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
June 15 - June 19, 2015

Issue: History 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Historical Society Chairwoman Priscilla Walker on the 100th Anniversary of the Grand River Diversion Dam. The roller dam on the Colorado River was installed in 1915 and dedicated by federal representatives on June 29th 1915. Several celebrations are scheduled throughout the valley for the anniversary. Including a Firkin Fundraiser at Palisade Brewing Company June 18th. The dam provides irrigation water for 50,000 acres in the Grand Valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday June 15th, 2015.

Issue: Cancer 2 min.: Interview with St. Baldrick's Head Shaving Event organizer Jim Hamlin on the event coming up at the end of the month. He talks about Community Hospital's expanded role in the event.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday June 16th 2015.

Issue: Colorado Climate 2 min.: Interview with CU Boulder atmospheric scientist Kelly Mahoney on the state's climate. She says a relatively dry winter followed by heavy snow in the month of May is not that unusual in Colorado. She says there is much evidence of extreme storm events can and do occur out of generally believed seasons.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday June 17th 2015.

Issue: Community Giving 2 min.: Interview with Antonelli's Advanced Automotive owner Daniel Antonelli on a car give away his business is doing. The KIA Rio will be given away July 15th through email entries. Antonelli says he's given away cars before, but this it the first time he'll meet the winner. In the past he's given them to groups and churches that then presented them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday June 18th 2015.

Issue: Grand Valley Irrigation 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Historical Society Chairwoman Priscilla Walker on the Grand River Irrigation Project or "Roller" Dam. The dam turns 100 June 29th, the Historical Society putting together a documentary, celebration and book on the dam's history and importance to the valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday June 19th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
June 22 - June 26, 2015

Issue: Community Giving 2 min.: Interview with Antonelli's Advanced Automotive

owner Daniel Antonelli on a car give away his business is doing. The KIA Rio will be given away July 15th through email entries. Antonelli says he's given away cars before, but this is the first time he'll meet the winner. In the past he's given them to groups and churches that then presented them.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday June 22nd, 2015.

Issue: Crime 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police spokesman Dave Stassen on National Night Out. The department is joining law enforcement across the country visiting neighborhood groups to encourage people to get to know their neighbors and fight crime in their neighborhoods.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday June 23rd 2015.

Issue: Childhood Cancer 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsof on the St. Baldrick's head shaving event. The hospital is the title sponsor this year and heavily involved in the event, its planning, and also taking part.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Wednesday June 24th 2015.

Issue: GV Irrigation History 2 min.: Interview with Palisade Historical Society Chairwoman Priscilla Walker on the 100th Anniversary of the Grand River Diversion Dam. The roller dam on the Colorado River was installed in 1915 and dedicated by federal representatives on June 29th 1915. Several celebrations are scheduled throughout the valley for the anniversary. The dam provides irrigation water for 50,000 acres in the Grand Valley.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Thursday June 25th 2015.

Issue: Childhood Cancer 2 min.: Interview with Community Hospital spokeswoman Karen Martsof on the St. Baldrick's head shaving event. The hospital is the title sponsor this year and heavily involved in the event, its planning, and also taking part.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Friday June 26th, 2015.

MBC Grand Public Affairs Programming
for the week of
June 29 - June 30, 2015

Issue: Law Enforcement/Special Olympics 2 min.: Interview with Mesa County Sheriff's spokeswoman Heather Benjamin on the Unified Torch Relay Across America. The Special Olympics International Summer Games are in Los Angeles this summer and the torch is making its way across the country headed by a team of law enforcement officers from Los Angeles.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired on Monday June 29th, 2015.

Issue: Crime 2 min.: Interview with Grand Junction Police spokesman Dave Stassen on National Night Out. The department is joining law enforcement across the country visiting neighborhood groups to encourage people to get to know their neighbors and fight crime in their neighborhoods.

This program, The Grand Valley Report, was aired Tuesday June 30th 2015.