Date	Description
4/4	Residents will get a chance this summer to speak out about plans for the courthouse parking lot.
5/7	The city council hesitates to rezone the county administrative building, which would allow it to be turned into a college dorm. That could mess up several other deals which would move the county admin center to Associated Bank building
5/8	The county would like to move the administrative center into the Associated Bank building on State Street.
5/9	At this point, it's a 3-way battle to see who will get to develop the county's admin center. Two local groups and a Twin Cities firm have applied to take possession for development.
5/16	The LaCrosse County Board walked through the Associated Bank for the 1 st time since the company offered the building for sale. They have to move away from their current building by 2016.
6/6	The County is one step closer to buying Associated Bank on State Street to add office space. The County has 2 years to relocate from the 1965 courthouse before the current building is converted to college housing.

3 - News Subject: FD Assumes Inspection Duties

Date	Description
5/8	Mayor Tim Kabat will introduce legislation to meld the fire department and inspection department in order to get better code enforcement. He hopes to reduce the backlog of work so the department can focus efforts on new construction, electrical and plumbing inspections.
6/6	So far, smooth sailing for a proposal to have the Fire Department perform building inspections. Thursday, the City Council Committee gives the plan a "thumbs up." The full council votes next week.
6/12	A change in duties for the fire department in LaCrosse is getting a pretty good reception. The council is expected to easily agree to a plan that would put the FD in charge of building code enforcement for the city.

4 - News Subject: Proposed Parking Restrictions Shot Down

Date	Description
5/9	Neighborhood Revitalization Commission chair Sara Sullivan has ideas on how to improve livability in some neighborhoods, and increase access to streets for street sweeping and snow plowing. There'll be 3 public hears, beginning with one next week.
5/12	Sara Sullivan says she has proposals that would encourage alternative transport and reduce commuters using city streets as parking lots. Among other regulations, she wants year-round alternate side parking and no overnight parking without permits.
5/14	There's some dissatisfaction over proposals to add more restrictions to street parking in LaCrosse. Neighborhood Revitalization Commission chair Sara Sullivan says some of the proposals would need some reworking.
5/15	There are parts of the city that need solutions to parking shortages, according to council president Dick Swantz. He says the current proposals won't be put in place, but says they're just proposals.
5/24	With all the negative feedback, you'd wonder why they want any MORE feedback. Mayor Tim Kabat wonders why these proposals got even this far.
5/29	2 more sessions to hear what people of LaCrosse think of proposed parking changes. A session this afternoon at the Black River Beach Neighborhood center, an evening session at the Southside center.
5/30	Skeptics of proposed parking changes in the City of LaCrosse showed up at listening sessions Thursday. Major complains are about city-wide 2-hour parking, year-round alternate side parking, no overnight parking without permits.
6/19	The next proposals for new parking regulations in LaCrosse will probably not be as controversial. Neighborhood Revitalization Commission chair Sara Sullivan says people shouldn't expect any new proposals for a while.
