

QUARTERLY ISSUE/PROGRAM TOPIC REPORT
OCTOBER TO DECEMBER 2022
FOR RADIO STATIONS LICENSED TO THE STATE OF WISCONSIN EDUCATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS BOARD

Attached Reports Represent Q4 of 2022

ECB Radio Stations WLBL (AM/FM), WHAA (FM), WHAD (FM), WHBM (FM), WHDI (FM), WHHI (FM), WHLA (FM), WHSF (FM) and WHWC (FM) are affiliates of the WPR Ideas Network

ECB Radio Stations WERN (FM), WHWA (FM), WHND (FM), WHRM (FM), WHSA (FM), WPNE (FM), WSSU (FM), and WSSW (FM) are affiliates of the WPR News and Classical Network

During the period, this station, as part of the network that makes up Wisconsin Public Radio, has served the public interest by producing and broadcasting diverse content which addresses national, statewide and regional issues. The following is a list of some of the produced or acquired programming or news stories aired in response to areas of concern to listeners served by Wisconsin Public Radio.

ISSUES OF COMMUNITY CONCERN:

- AGRICULTURE
- ECONOMY
- EDUCATION
- ENVIRONMENT
- HEALTH
- POLITICS
- SOCIAL ISSUES

The Ideas Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List October to December 2022
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
Anthony Gallarday is attracting attention for his indigenous yet modern take on Mexican food at Tavo’s Signature Cuisine, the Milwaukee restaurant he opened with his parents in 2018. He shares his efforts to honor the traditions of his ancestors through a farm-to-table approach. (Duration: 22 min, 24 sec)	The Morning Show	10/4/22 @ 7:30 am

Ever wonder the difference between “organic” and “cage-free” eggs? A Wisconsin farmer helps decipher egg carton labels. Then, a discussion of farm animal cruelty and how a local sanctuary is working to protect animals. (Duration: 43 min, 22 sec)	The Morning Show	10/17/22 @ 8 am
A Wisconsin non-profit works to build "food forests" of edible plants on public land. Hear from one of the project's organizers. (Duration: 11 min, 12 sec)	Central Time	10/19/22 @ 4 pm
A new report from the United Nations Environmental Program says plastics are contaminating soil at an alarming rate. A Wisconsin leader talks about agricultural plastics and why recycling is a challenge for farmers. (Duration: 20 min, 58 sec)	The Morning Show	10/20/22 @ 7 am
Daniel Smith’s poetry draws on golden memories, joy and loss found on the farm and in rural life. We talk with him about his collection called “Ancestral.” (Duration: 35 min, 4 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/24/22 @ 11:45 am
The biotech corporation Monsanto in 2003 accounted for 90 percent of all genetically engineered seeds in the world, according to MIT. Hear from the author of a new book about the company’s rise and its lasting effect on the global food economy. (Duration: 43 min, 21 sec)	The Morning Show	11/24/22 @ 8 am
According to the Environmental Protection Agency, a single cow can produce up to 264 pounds of methane each year. Learn how seaweed eating cattle could be the answer to climate change. (Duration: 12 min, 15 sec)	The Morning Show	11/30/22 @ 7:30 am
A farm organizer in Michigan shares how the Farm Workforce Modernization Act could help immigrant workers around the country. (Duration: 12 min, 12 sec)	The Morning Show	11/30/22 @ 8:30 am
Cannabis business owners within Indigenous communities have a Wisconsin hemp grower as an advocate. Hear about marijuana and hemp as traditional medicine and an economic opportunity for tribes. (Duration: 43 min, 20 sec)	The Morning Show	12/12/22 @ 8 am
A Wisconsin company raises crickets for human consumption, and they're FDA approved. Hear from the owner about the future of insects as food. (Duration: 7 min, 20 sec)	Central Time	12/12/22 @ 4 pm

ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin exported a record $3.9 billion worth of goods around the world in 2021 and the state is on track to top that amount this year. Learn which exports are doing well, where they're going and what obstacles exist. (Duration: 20 min, 56 sec)	The Morning Show	10/10/22 @ 7 am
After the pandemic shifted retail sales online, the e-commerce boom seems to be slowing down. Learn more about the recent trend and where it could go from here. (Duration: 21 min, 18 sec)	Central Time	10/24/22 @ 3 pm
More than 40 percent of Americans aren't using any cash at all in a typical week, according to a recent Pew Research study. That's a double-digit increase in less than a decade. An expert in consumer behavior shares why people are going cashless. (Duration: 22 min, 22 sec)	The Morning Show	10/25/22 @ 7:30 am
Certified "B Corp" businesses are legally obligated to shareholders, the environment and community. Around the nation, certifications are expanding, including in Wisconsin. Hear from a Temple University professor and three Wisconsin-based companies that strive for purpose and profit. (Duration: 43 min, 20 sec)	The Morning Show	10/31/22 @ 8 am
Government data shows economic growth, despite some people calling the current economy a recession. An economist discusses the report and whether we're in a recession. (Duration: 18 min, 2 sec)	Central Time	11/1/22 @ 3:30 pm
The resources for startup businesses in Wisconsin spread a lot farther than the state's two largest cities. Learn more about the business infrastructure in Wisconsin and what kind of success the state has seen. (Duration: 21 min, 24 sec)	Central Time	11/8/22 @ 4 pm
Florence County in northern Wisconsin is home to more than 200 businesses. The county's new director of economic development offers a local perspective on living in rural Wisconsin. A discussion about grocery stores, housing, downtown revitalization and more. (Duration: 22 min, 25 sec)	The Morning Show	11/15/22 @ 7:30 am
Learn about the state of the economy and the possible impacts if the Federal Reserve were to slow the rise of the interest rate. (Duration: 13 min, 21 sec)	Central Time	12/2/22 @ 4 pm

Jobs in manufacturing are growing in the U.S., leading to comparisons of the 1970s manufacturing heyday. A reporter from The New York Times discusses why companies are adding manufacturing jobs, where the growth is occurring and what it means for the Rust Belt and our economy. (Duration: 20 min, 56 sec)	The Morning Show	12/6/22 @ 7 am
Loan payments on federal pandemic disaster loans are coming due, but a recent report found some small businesses are struggling to make their payments. Hear from the Wall Street Journal reporter behind the story and the head of UW-Eau Claire's Small Business Development Center on how small businesses are recovering from the pandemic. (Duration: 16 min, 48 sec)	Central Time	12/15/22 @ 3:30 pm
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
Legislators are exploring ways to make it easier for school districts to share services and save money. A school district administrator who is a member of the legislative study committee discusses how districts could work together and what barriers they face. (Duration: 22 min, 27 sec)	The Morning Show	10/3/22 @ 7:30 am
Former Gov. Walker signed into law creation of standards for the teaching of financial literacy. But a bill to require high school students to study it failed to pass this year. Now Gov. Evers wants to fund the curriculum. Hear from a national advocate of financial literacy. (Duration: 43 min, 23 sec)	The Morning Show	10/11/22 @ 8 am
A non-profit research group released a report illustrating the funding challenges Wisconsin schools face for special education. One of the lead authors discusses their findings. (Duration: 21 min, 54 sec)	Central Time	10/17/22 @ 3:30 pm
A coalition of private universities in Wisconsin is canceling classes for students on election day as part of an effort to boost voter turnout. Learn about the "Why Bother, Wisconsin?" campaign and hear why they want other universities to join them. (Duration: 7 min, 20 sec)	Central Time	10/24/22 @ 4 pm

Over 1 million Wisconsinites need help building literacy skills, according to Wisconsin Literacy, Inc. Advocacy organization ProLit says less than 10 percent of adults in need of literacy assistance are receiving services. A group of Wisconsin literacy leaders discuss the future of adult literacy skills. (Duration: 43 min, 17 sec)	The Morning Show	11/2/22 @ 8 am
In the midterm elections, voters weighed in on 81 school district referendums. Learn which referenda passed, which didn't and what the election results mean for public schools in Wisconsin. (Duration: 22 min, 40 sec)	The Morning Show	11/14/22 @ 7:30 am
A new class at Lawrence has gotten a lot of buzz, because it encourages students to disconnect, to be more mindful -- to do nothing. The professor shares how it's been going. (Duration: 8 min, 59 sec)	Central Time	11/14/22 @ 4 pm
The Clearing School was founded in 1935 at the tip of the Door County peninsula with a mission to emphasize discussion, nature and hands-on work. Find out what people are learning at the school today. (Duration: 35 min, 33 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	11/15/22 @ 11:45 am
In mid-November, a controversial survey of UW System students started circulating, asking for their perspectives on free speech, diversity and self-censorship on campus. The president of the UW System discusses the efforts to improve civil discourse and other issues. (Duration: 45 min, 25 sec)	The Morning Show	12/1/22 @ 8 am
Art education is seen as an important element of schooling, but how can art transform the way we learn? An educator and artist shares her research on how art impacts education. (Duration: 21 min, 55 sec)	Central Time	12/9/22 @ 4 pm
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE
Learn how climate change could affect migration patterns to Wisconsin and affect mosquitoes and other pests in the state. (Duration: 42 min, 59 sec)	The Morning Show	10/7/22 @ 8 am
In one night of trick-or-treating, a kid can accumulate about a pound of trash, according to U.S. waste company Republic Services. We answer your questions about what it takes to have a spooky but more ecologically sustainable Halloween. (Duration: 22 min, 29 sec)	The Morning Show	10/11/22 @ 7:30 am

Wisconsin is joining three states to form a regional hydrogen hub. Hear about hydrogen's potential in the clean energy landscape and why researchers say some forms would make greenhouse gas emissions worse. (Duration: 21 min, 53 sec)	Central Time	10/12/22 @ 3:30 pm
A recent report by environmental groups found that wildlife populations are in significant decline. One of the biggest declines is freshwater fish, which have dropped 83 percent since 1970. One of the scientists discusses the trends and what can be done to reverse them. (Duration: 33 min, 37 sec)	The Morning Show	10/18/22 @ 8 am
Awaiting final approval by the state legislature is a deal to protect 70,000 acres of forestland east of Rhinelander, the largest such project in state history. A representative from the national Conservation Fund shares why it purchased the land and what it means for Wisconsin. (Duration: 20 min, 56 sec)	The Morning Show	11/2/22 @ 7 am
If you haven't heard about the hole in the ozone layer for a while, that's because it stopped growing years ago -- and it's now shrinking and on the path to be eliminated by 2065. A climate scientist explains how this rare climate success story happened and lessons we can take from it as climate change continues to threaten the planet. (Duration: 10 min, 6 sec)	Central Time	11/2/22 @ 4:15 pm
The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel tested drinking water around the state and found that 30 percent of the samples had at least one PFAS chemical above federal safety recommendations. Learn what the paper found and what options people have. (Duration: 20 min, 34 sec)	The Morning Show	11/8/22 @ 7 am
As leaders from around the world negotiate climate change policies in Egypt this week, a Wisconsin expert on international law discusses what climate change reparations could look like. (Duration: 22 min, 28 sec)	The Morning Show	11/10/22 @ 8:35 am
In the year since the Environmental Protection Agency published a plan to address PFAS, the agency has taken several steps that seem primed to further regulate these forever chemicals. Learn what you can do to filter PFAS at home. (Duration: 17 min, 20 sec)	The Morning Show	12/2/22 @ 7 am

Low water levels in the Mississippi River have backed up nearly 3,000 barges in recent months. The director of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture's Midwest Climate Hub shares why river levels are so low and how it's impacting agriculture and water systems. (Duration: 20 min, 56 sec)	The Morning Show	12/7/22 @ 7 am
HEALTH	PROGRAM	DATE
New data from the Centers for Disease Control shows a record 2.5 million cases of chlamydia, gonorrhea and syphilis were reported in 2021. A look at what's driving the rise as well as prevention efforts among adults and youth. (Duration: 43 min, 37 sec)	The Morning Show	10/5/22 @ 8 am
The U.S. provides around 70 percent of the world's plasma. But as a multibillion dollar global industry grows, research shows it relies on a small subset of low-income donors to meet global demand. Learn more about the plasma donation industry. (Duration: 43 min, 28 sec)	The Morning Show	10/10/22 @ 8 am
Urology is the branch of medicine that focuses on the male and female urinary tract system and male reproductive organs. Two urologists discuss the most common issues they treat. (Duration: 39 min, 51 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/11/22 @ 11 am
October is National Physical Therapy Month. Our PT experts are back to talk about the latest effort to move some parts of physical therapy online. (Duration: 1 hr, 13 min, 20 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	10/17/22 @ 11 am
A recall of millions of sleep apnea machines from manufacturer Philips is set to continue into next year, leaving some patients to choose between using a potentially harmful device or forgoing the treatment. Learn more about the recall and all things sleep apnea. (Duration: 43 min, 22 sec)	The Morning Show	11/1/22 @ 8 am
Pancreatic cancer is the third leading cause of all cancer-related deaths in Wisconsin. There's a group of doctors and researchers in the state working to better understand the disease. Hear from one of them. (Duration: 36 min, 10 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	11/8/22 @ 11:45 am
The annual open enrollment period for insurance under the Affordable Care Act began this month. Get tips on enrolling in health insurance and coverage options to explore before choosing. (Duration: 20 min, 55 sec)	The Morning Show	11/16/22 @ 7 am

A discussion of the major differences in spending on public health versus health care in America, how the two are linked and how we can improve the public health component. (Duration: 21 min, 30 sec)	Central Time	11/17/22 @ 4 pm
The Centers for Disease Control estimate more than about one in eight American deaths for people between 20 and 64 years of age involved excessive alcohol use. A doctor in preventative medicine discusses the new study. (Duration: 20 min, 51 sec)	Central Time	12/8/22 @ 4 pm
When a family decides it's time to move a person with dementia into community care, it can be a dramatic life change. We explore dementia care communities with a gerontology expert who's also the author of the book "The Caregiver's Guide to Memory Care and Dementia Communities." (Duration: 1 hr, 13 min, 19 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	12/13/22 @ 11 am
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE
Many elected positions in local government are supposed to be non-partisan, but political parties are starting to have more influence on these races. A look at the importance of these non-partisan roles and how to keep them separate from partisan politics. (Duration: 21 min, 55 sec)	Central Time	10/6/22 @ 3 pm
Pollsters were infamously wrong about the 2016 presidential election. The polls in 2020 made the same mistake of overstating Democrats' lead. A look at why this has happened and whether polls are on track to be wrong (again) about the upcoming midterms. (Duration: 21 min, 26 sec)	Central Time	10/7/22 @ 3 pm
Former Democratic U.S. Senator Gary Hart discusses the threats he sees to American democracy and why he thinks civic virtues can help. (Duration: 20 min, 45 sec)	Central Time	10/18/22 @ 4 pm
Recent polling from Marquette University suggests the possibility of split-ticket voters leading to a Republican win in the U.S. Senate race and a Democratic win in the race for governor. A political scientist talks about what we know about split-ticket voters and why we've seen less split tickets in recent decades. (Duration: 21 min, 45 sec)	Central Time	10/20/22 @ 3:30 pm

Over half of voters in the 2020 presidential election chose not to cast their ballots in-person on election day. A researcher shares why that trend is continuing in the 2022 midterms and why people chose to vote the way they do. (Duration: 16 min, 52 sec)	Central Time	11/4/22 @ 4:30 pm
U.S. security agencies are issuing a heightened threat advisory and warning of possible attacks against political candidates and election officials, this midterm. A UW-Green Bay anger researcher discusses why elections spark so much rage. (Duration: 22 min, 22 sec)	The Morning Show	11/7/22 @ 7:30 am
Proposed legislation that would provide federal protections for same-sex marriages took a crucial step towards passing earlier this week, as 12 Republicans joined Democrats to advance the bill. (Duration: 13 min, 26 sec)	The Morning Show	11/18/22 @ 7:15 am
Nancy Pelosi is stepping down from her role as Democratic House Speaker, and a few Republican challenges have emerged for leadership roles within their party in Congress. A look at how the results of the midterm elections and these leadership changes could change how Congress acts moving forward. (Duration: 16 min, 56 sec)	Central Time	11/21/22 @ 3:30 pm
The Wis. Green Party is eligible for recognized status in the 2024 presidential election after receiving a qualifying number of votes in this year's midterms. Hear about the party's priorities and future strategies. (Duration: 22 min, 25 sec)	The Morning Show	12/5/22 @ 7:30 am
The U.S. Supreme Court heard oral arguments in a case about how states conduct elections. Central to the case is a controversial theory arguing that state legislatures have unilateral power to decide how federal elections will be conducted. A look at why the Court chose to take the case and what it could mean for the future of elections. (Duration: 22 min, 23 sec)	Central Time	12/8/22 @ 3:30 pm
SOCIAL ISSUES	PROGRAM	DATE
Learn about the state of education, economy, housing and more for veterans across Wisconsin and the challenges facing veterans. (Duration: 42 min, 40 sec)	The Morning Show	10/3/22 @ 8 am

People experiencing homelessness in rural parts of Wisconsin are subject to similar -- and different -- challenges than those in larger urban areas. Hear about those challenges and the help that's available. (Duration: 21 min, 54 sec)	Central Time	10/3/22 @ 3 pm
The Madison-based advocacy group Kids Forward has said pandemic aid policies like food assistance expansion and refundable tax credits can address poverty for millions of Wisconsinites. Two members of the group discuss which measures should be made permanent. (Duration: 20 min, 29 sec)	The Morning Show	10/24/22 @ 7 am
According to the Milw. Police Dept., domestic violence deaths have increased almost 91 percent from 2021 to 2022. The head of the Sojourner Family Peace Center in Milwaukee discusses new research and approaches to address a worsening trend. (Duration: 20 min, 29 sec)	The Morning Show	10/25/22 @ 7 am
The rapper Ye, formerly known as Kanye West, started a recent trend of high-profile examples of antisemitism. The leader of a Jewish advocacy group shares the dangers of these incidents and how to push back against them. (Duration: 21 min, 41 sec)	Central Time	11/1/22 @ 4:30 pm
Misinformation spread quickly after Nancy Pelosi's husband was attacked in their home. A look at the information ecosystem that allows the false ideas to spread. (Duration: 17 min, 4 sec)	Central Time	11/2/22 @ 3:30 pm
The senior quarterback for Pewaukee High School's homecoming game was, to some people's surprise, a woman. She's breaking barriers about who can play in sports and advocating for other women to join in the game. (Duration: 6 min, 28 sec)	Central Time	11/14/22 @ 4:15 pm
As a religious liberty case looms before the U.S. Supreme Court, some businesses and religious institutions are seeking exemptions to state and federal anti-discrimination laws. Two law professors talk about the implications of these cases. (Duration: 43 min, 22 sec)	The Morning Show	11/15/22 @ 8 am
A lot of big cities have established LGBTQ communities, but what does that community look like outside the Midwest's largest urban centers? The author of the new book "Queering the Midwest" discusses her time trying to answer that	Central Time	12/1/22 @ 3:30 pm

question in a small Midwestern city. (Duration: 11 min, 36 sec)
The FBI recently released its annual hate crime data, showing hate crimes are declining. Advocacy groups and criminologists, however, say the numbers are inaccurate and hate crime reports are higher than ever. A criminal justice professor shares what the numbers mean. (Duration: 22 min, 26 sec)	The Morning Show	12/16/22 @ 7:30 am

NPR/Classical Music Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List October to December 2022 Segment Duration: About 1 minute
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin and national dairy leaders are urging the U.S. Senate to pass a bill that would allow dairy farmers to hire immigrants on H-2A work visas.	Morning Edition	10/7/22 @ 5 am
A partnership between UW-Oshkosh and the California-based Agra Energy will create the first facility in Wisconsin to convert dairy farm waste into renewable bio fuel for vehicles.	All Things Considered	10/31/22 @ 5 pm
Grain shipments on the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway are tracking ahead of last year. That's due in part to drought conditions in the Mississippi River and Russia's war in Ukraine.	BBC Newshour	11/21/22 @ 3 pm
Both of Wisconsin's U.S. Senators joined a group of lawmakers expressing concern about a new federal definition for what is a "healthy" food. They worry the definition leaves out cranberries and tart cherries.	Morning Edition	12/19/22 @ 5 am
The Wis. Dept. of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection is launching the latest review of standards used to regulate siting and expansion of large livestock farms.	Morning Edition	12/23/22 @ 5 am
ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE

Wisconsin's tax burden hit its lowest level in decades. That's according to a new report this week by the Wisconsin Policy Forum.	Morning Edition	10/19/22 @ 5 am
Without more people moving to Wisconsin, the state's working age population is expected to shrink by about 130,000 people within eight years.	Morning Edition	10/24/22 @ 5 am
Each home game the Green Bay Packers play at Lambeau Field injects $15 million dollars into the local economy. But what happens when the team struggles on the field?	Morning Edition	11/25/22 @ 5 am
Low interest rates and aging infrastructure have led local governments in Wisconsin to take on more debt.	Morning Edition	11/30/22 @ 5 am
With inflation pushing up the price of groceries, more people in Wisconsin are turning to food pantries for help.	All Things Considered	12/28/22 @ 5 pm
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
A conservative Wisconsin group is the latest organization to sue the Biden administration over its federal student loan forgiveness plan.	BBC Newshour	10/4/22 @ 3 pm
Public school enrollment numbers continue to drop in Wisconsin, according to data released by the state department of public instruction.	BBC Newshour	10/14/22 @ 3 pm
Public school libraries in Wisconsin will get a record $52 million next year from a fund created in 1848.	All Things Considered	11/18/22 @ 5 pm
Top GOP lawmakers are pushing again to eliminate the income limits for Wisconsin's school choice program.	Morning Edition	11/28/22 @ 5 am
In hopes of reversing declining enrollment from neighboring states, the University of Wisconsin System has created a new discount for midwestern recruits.	All Things Considered	12/9/22 @ 5 pm
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE
Federal regulators and Wisconsin environmental groups are celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Clean Water Act today.	BBC Newshour	10/18/22 @ 3 pm
As the election draws near, Republican gubernatorial candidate Tim Michels says he may consider breaking up the Wis. Dept. of Natural Resources if elected.	Morning Edition	10/31/22 @ 5 am

Wisconsin could save lives and realize billions of dollars in economic growth by shifting to a clean energy economy over the next three decades.	BBC Newshour	11/2/22 @ 3 pm
The Wis. Dept. of Justice has filed a lawsuit against a Wisconsin milling company for more than two dozen air pollution-related violations at its plant where a fatal explosion occurred five years ago.	BBC Newshour	11/22/22 @ 3 pm
A $451 million solar project is moving forward in southern Wisconsin.	All Things Considered	12/14/22 @ 5 pm
HEALTH	PROGRAM	DATE
As the shortage of nurses grows, nursing schools in Wisconsin are struggling to churn out enough graduates. That's despite a high volume of applications.	Morning Edition	10/17/22 @ 5 am
A potential merger of two health systems could affect about two million people in Wisconsin and three other Midwestern states.	All Things Considered	10/25/22 @ 5 pm
The Wis. Dept. of Health Services is boosting its Medicaid cost coverage next year.	BBC Newshour	11/18/22 @ 3 pm
Wisconsin is seeing the effects of the rise in respiratory illnesses, including a shortage of the antibiotic amoxicillin.	BBC Newshour	11/21/22 @ 3 pm
Health officials are pushing Wisconsinites to get vaccinated as COVID-19 bivalent booster rates fall short of their goals.	All Things Considered	12/26/22 @ 5 pm
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE
Civic engagement groups in Wisconsin are working to promote turnout this November among some of the state's most infrequent voters.	Morning Edition	10/27/22 @ 6 am
Local election clerks will not be allowed to void absentee ballots at the request of people seeking to change their votes. The Wisconsin Elections Commission rescinded that guidance based on a legal challenge.	BBC Newshour	10/28/22 @ 3 pm
Wisconsin's Green Party has cleared a hurdle in its quest for official recognition on statewide ballots.	Morning Edition	11/29/22 @ 5 am
Same-sex couples in Wisconsin are expressing relief with the U.S. Senate's passage of the bipartisan marriage bill sponsored by Democratic Senator Tammy Baldwin.	Morning Edition	12/1/22 @ 5 am

Gov. Evers says he'll once again introduce a plan to legalize recreational marijuana as part of his next state budget. Evers says he'd be open to other options if that's what lawmakers send him.	Morning Edition	12/21/22 @ 6 am
SOCIAL ISSUES	PROGRAM	DATE
A Madison program designed to test the effects of a guaranteed minimum income is now up and running.	Morning Edition	10/12/22 @ 6 am
Wisconsin saw the widest disparity in math and reading scores among Black and white students of any state in the nation. That's according to the first national assessment since the COVID-19 pandemic.	All Things Considered	10/24/22 @ 5 pm
Somali residents of the rural Northwestern Wisconsin City of Barron are withdrawing a request to publicly broadcast the Muslim call to prayer after strong opposition from other residents.	Morning Edition	11/22/22 @ 5 am
Wisconsin is getting nearly $6 million to figure out which locations would most benefit from broadband Internet expansion.	BBC Newshour	12/12/22 @ 5 pm
A 10 year-old-Milwaukee boy was in adult court this week, charged with killing his mother. But some legal experts and activists say the boy should be in the juvenile system instead.	BBC Newshour	12/15/22 @ 3 pm