10. Parenting	Weekly Public Affairs Program	4/30/17	6am	9:53	Richard Watts, personal advisor and legal counsel to the super wealthy, author of "Entitlement: How Not to Spoil Your Kids, and What to Do if You Have" - Mr. Watts said well-intentioned parents are creating a "me" generation of children who lack the wisdom and satisfaction of accomplishment that can only be learned through struggle and adversity. He offered examples of parental decisions that create a sense of entitlement in children in families of all income levels. He also outlined simple ways for parents to be a good example for children.
	Weekly Public Affairs Program	5/7/17	6am	10:03	Robert T. Kiyosaki, investor, entrepreneur, author of "Rich Dad Poor Dad: What The Rich Teach Their Kids About Money That the Poor and Middle Class Do Not" Mr. Kiyosaki discussed the difference in how wealthy people view and use money, compared to middle and lower income Americans. He said it is not necessary to earn a high income to become rich. He explained why he thinks it is such a problem that few students receive any financial education in school. He also discussed the best job categories for young people who are ready to choose a career.
	Weekly Public Affairs Program	5/14/17	6:10am	7:58	Pamela Wisniewski, PhD, Assistant Professor of Computer Science at the University of Central Florida - Dr. Wisniewski led a study at Penn State that found that teens rarely talk to their parents about potentially risky online experiences. She said that parents and children often have much different perceptions of and reactions to the same online events, such as cyberbullying, sexual exchanges and viewing inappropriate content online.
	Weekly Public Affairs Program	6/4/17	6am	7:46	Gregory Plemmons, PhD, Associate Professor of Pediatrics at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt University - Dr. Plemmons led a study that found the percentage of younger children and teens hospitalized for suicidal thoughts or actions in the United States has doubled over the past decade. He talked about the possible reasons for such a steep increase, what ages are at the greatest risk, and how parents can recognize signs of suicidal thoughts in their children.
