| GOVERNMENT / COUNTY                       | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | The renovation plan for the Astrodome is once again put on hold. The Harris County Engineer informed the Texas Historical Commission that plans for the future of the dome are not finalized, so the entire effort has been shelved. The renovation was strongly endorsed by former Harris County Judge Ed Emmett, but current Judge Lina Hidalgo has not discussed the project. | 04-015:30AM6:30AM7:30AM8:00AM                               | 1:00     |
| ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT / CULTURAL DIVERSITY | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | The Border Patrol continues to remind job seekers they're hiring. CBP officials say they are hard-pressed to keep President Trump's promise to add 5,000 agents. There is a need for specialized skills - like helicopter pilots - but others will likely find themselves patrolling a section of the southern border.   | 04-025:00AM6:00AM7:00AM   | 1:00     |
| ENVIRONMENT                               | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | Cleanup continues today at a Crosby chemical plant, which was the site of a deadly explosion and fire that killed one and injured two others. The victim was identified as 27-year old James Earl 'Bubba' Mangum. No word yet on a cause.  | 04-035:00AM5:30AM6:00AM6:30AM7:00AM7:30AM8:00AM | 1:00     |

| ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT     | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | More people are staging 'buycotts' to combat the recent trend of boycotts on everything from Chick-fil-A to Hobby Lobby. Chick-fil-A was recently denied access to the new concession contract at San Antonio's airport. A 2012 effort to boycott the quick-service restaurant prompted a 'buycott' that set new revenue records. | 04-115:30AM6:30AM7:30AM | 1:00     |
| GOVERNMENT / LEGISLATURE | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | A bill before the Texas Legislature aims to protect historical monuments across the state. HB-583 preserves all monuments over 40-years old (including Confederate markers). Those under 40 could only be removed after a vote by either the legislature or a public referendum.  | 4-125:30AM6:30AM7:30AM  | 1:00     |
| HEALTHCARE / GOVERNMENT  | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | The Texas Legislature considers a measure that would raise the legal age to buy tobacco products to 21. The Senate version includes an exemption for active duty military. The bill includes e-cigarettes, which have a growing appeal among young people.  | 04-155:30AM6:30AM7:30AM | 1:00     |
| GOVERNMENT / LEGISLATURE | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | The Texas Senate passes a property tax reform bill onto the House. The measure caps tax increases at 3.5-percent. Lt. Governor Dan Patrick had threatened to change Senate rules and employ a 'nuclear option' to advance the legislation.  | 04-165:00AM6:00AM7:00AM | 1:00     |

| GOVERNMENT / LEGISLATURE | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | Texas Republicans are considering a plan to raise state sales taxes, without suffering the political ramifications. One idea involves making the sales tax hike a Constitutional Amendment, putting the issue before voters rather than risking their political livelihoods by passing an unpopular bill.  | 04-195:30AM6:30AM7:30AM                               | 1:00     |
| CRIME                    | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | A proposal is under review to settle a lawsuit against Harris County, which claims the bail system discriminates against poor people. Under the plan, taxpayers could pick up the costs for child care, cell phones, and Uber drivers to make sure the poor are able to meet their court dates. They could also miss up to three court dates before bond would be revoked. | 04-225:00AM6:00AM7:00AM                               | 1:00     |
| GOVERNMENT / ENVIRONMENT | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | The Texas Senate overwhelmingly passes a bill to provide disaster relief to property owners who were displaced by Hurricane Harvey. The measure still has to get through the state House, and would be put before the voters in November.  | 04-235:00AM6:00AM7:00AM                               | 1:00     |

| ENVIRONMENT          | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | Up to ten inches of rain fell in isolated areas around the Houston area. The County Judge in Ft. Bend County issued a disaster declaration, as the Brazos River rises. 60 students in a Cleveland ISD elementary school were forced to spend the night in the gym, because high water kept school officials from safely getting them home. More severe weather is expected this week. | 05-085:00AM5:30AM6:00AM6:30AM7:00AM7:30AM8:00AM | 2:00     |
| ENVIRONMENT          | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | Preparations are underway for more possible flooding. Parts of the Houston area saw rapid accumulation over a short period of time Tuesday night, and an additional 6-10 inches of rain is in the forecast. Some schools in the hardest-hit areas (Cleveland, Sugar Land, and Kingwood) have already canceled classes for the rest of the week.                                       | 05-095:00AM5:30AM6:00AM6:30AM7:00AM7:30AM8:00AM | 2:00     |
| ENVIRONMENT          | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | Heavy rain swept through the area overnight, dumping an additional 6-10 inches of rain on ground that was already saturated from storms earlier in the week. Most schools closed for the day, as high water prevented buses from running. There were also dozens of delays/cancellations at the airport and tens of thousands without power.  | 05-105:00AM5:30AM6:00AM6:30AM7:00AM7:30AM8:00AM | 6:00     |
| ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT | HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS | As we head toward the summer season, ERCOT warns we could see record demand for electricity, due to continued growth throughout the state. Officials are not expecting rolling brownouts/blackouts, and they encourage customers to use power (i.e. dishwashers, laundry) during non-peak demand hours.   | 05-135:00AM6:00AM7:00AM   | 1:00     |
