ADDITIONAL LOCAL PROGRAMMING

Section III lists regularly-scheduled programs that occasionally include guests and/or topics that address community issues during the preceding quarter.

ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	NTSB investigators are on the site of a deadly plane crash in Addison, Texas. Ten people were killed when their twin-engine craft crashed into a hangar Sunday. All the fatalities were on the plane; no one was in the hangar. Search crews are also looking for a man who went missing after a boat crashed on the San Jacinto River. Two others were hospitalized after the vessel hit a bulkhead.	07-01 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Two Texas doctors are suing the state over their inability to sell prescription medications to their patients. A family physician in Austin and an ophthalmologist in San Antonio call the state's ban "irrational" and "unconstitutional." State law bans doctors from dispensing prescription medications directly to patients unless they're more than 15-miles from a pharmacy.	07-02 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Despite the strong economy, a growing number of people will skip their summer vacations. Financial experts say 78% of Americans still live paycheck-to-paycheck, and their lifestyles are expanding right alongside the economic expansion.	07-03 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	It's a good problem to have. Texas' historically-low jobless rate means employers are having trouble finding qualified applicants. Migrants entering the country don't have the proper training, and the national	07-08 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM unemployment rate is so low that Texas can't recruit from other states.

ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Eyes on the Gulf. A weather system - Invest 92-L - is working its way south from Georgia into the Gulf of Mexico, where it is forecast to proceed west. The National Hurricane Center says there is an 80-percent chance the system develops into a tropical depression. Coastal residents from Florida to Texas are on alert.	07-09 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM
ETHNIC DIVERSITY / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The head of USCIS says agents are standing by to enforce deportation orders against as many as one-million illegal immigrants whose asylum cases have already been adjudicated. Houston officials stress the targeted individuals have not been denied due process. Meanwhile, a Harvard/Harris poll shows 51% of Americans support mass deportations.	07-10 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Forecasters at the National Hurricane Center place Texas outside its 'cone of uncertainty' as they track a tropical system slowly moving its way through the Gulf of Mexico. The storm, which expected to gain strength and become Barry, has drifted to the east. It is predicted to make landfall over the weekend in Louisiana. Houston officials say we'll get rain, but nothing we haven't seen from a typical afternoon thunderstorm.	07-11 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas avoids most of the effects of Hurricane Barry, which made landfall in Louisiana over the weekend. Galveston County's judge says while the impact could have been much worse, the storm is a reminder to never become complacent during hurricane season.	07-12 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM

CULTURAL DIVERSITY / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	ICE raids took place in ten US cities - including Houston - over the weekend without much fanfare. Thousands of people who already received deportation orders were targeted. Local law enforcement expects more arrests as the week progresses.	07-15 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston finds itself in a 'balanced' real estate market, even though inventory is still above the national average. The median price for a home is up 2.9-percent to an all-time high of $252,000.	07-16 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / POLITICS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Senator Ted Cruz chimes in on the latest Twitter controversy surrounding President Trump. The House voted to condemn the president's tweets against four freshman congresswomen. Cruz says the Democrat-led chamber should pass his bipartisan resolution (which unanimously passed the Senate), condemning anti-Semitism and the anti-Israel comments made by at least two member of the freshman faction calling itself 'The Squad.'	07-17 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas House Speaker Dennis Bonnen announces a $3-million contribution to a PAC focused on retaining the Republican majority in the state house. Texas Democrats are trying to flip nine seats in the chamber, which would give them a majority.	07-18 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The head of the Border Patrol in the Del Rio Sector blames drug cartels for the crisis at the border. He says last year, CBP spent $18-million on detention and care. This year they're slated to spend $188-million. The Del Rio Sector has processed immigrants from 51 different countries this year.	07-19 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM

CULTURAL DIVERSITY / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Legal challenges are filed against the new US policy restricting asylum claims, as immigrants continue to flood the border and overwhelm CBP services. Border security advocates blame democrats for turning the crisis into a political issue.	07-22 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Small business applications are at record level in Texas. The Census Bureau says applications increased 15% over the past year. More than 621,000 jobs have been created in Texas during the 'Trump Economy.' 12 states - including some expected battlegrounds in 2020 - set records for small business applications	07-23 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
CRIME / CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A Dallas-area Congressman introduced a bill to require DNA testing of illegal immigrant children coming across the border. Terrell Republican Lance Gooden says ICE officials have already found evidence that dozens of children passed into the US with adults to whom they are not related. The children are then 'recycled' south to bring other adults into the US.	07-24 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Boys are reaching puberty earlier than ever according to a study published in JAMA Pediatrics. Between 1947 and 1996, boys are getting taller about a month-and-a-half earlier. Doctors say increasing weight and BMI contribute to early-onset puberty.	07-25 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Be like Beto. That's the message Texas Democrats are sending to their candidates, encouraging them to generate the grassroots enthusiasm that nearly lifted the former congressman into the US Senate. But GOP analysts say the current crop of candidates spends too much time trying to appeal to the far left, which is not a recipe for electoral success.	07-26 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM

JOBS / ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	An employment survey shows most people find Monday and Tuesday to be their most productive workdays of the week. In Houston, more respondents are productive on Tuesdays. Researchers say many people play 'catch up' from the weekend, while others like to hit the ground running. Fridays are unsurprisingly the least productive days.	07-29 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Gen-X and Millennials who make more than $100,000/year are gravitating to the South, particularly Florida and Texas. Economists say they're drawn by the opportunities, combined with low property values and tax benefits.	07-30 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A group of Rice University researchers propose a hurricane protection plan that is much cheaper than the long-touted 'Ike Dike'. Their plan calls for a 25-foot tall levee along the Ship Channel - using material from the dredging/widening of the channel. Additional material would be used to create park land. The project could be completed by 2027, while the Ike Dike would take at least 15 years.	07-31 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / PUBLIC SAFETY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The City of Houston and the Firefighters Union are once again scheduled to meet in mediation, looking for a solution to the voter-approved Proposition-B pay raises. A judge blocked the measure from taking effect. Union officials say Mayor Turner is blocking the will of 300,000 voters.	08-01 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM
GOVERNMENT / POLITICS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	After the US Senate passed a bipartisan budget bill that pushes debt ceiling talks off for at least two years, at least one lawmaker says the 'Tea Party is Dead.' But local organizers say they are alive and well; they've just broadened their interests	08-02 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM

CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	State and federal prosecutors continue to investigate Saturday's mass shooting at an El Paso Wal Mart, which left 20 people dead and dozens of others wounded. Authorities say the 21-year old suspect admitted to posting an anti-Hispanic manifesto on social media before the massacre. Prosecutors plan to seek the death penalty. Federal authorities are considering domestic terrorism charges.	08-05 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Police say they are responding to an increased number of false alarms, prompted by people who own video doorbell systems like Ring or NEST. In one case, a woman called 911 on a suspicious person that turned out to be herself.	08-06 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / POLITICS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The chairman of Julian Castro's presidential campaign - San Antonio Congressman Joaquin Castro - is criticized for 'outing' prominent members of the community who contributed maximum donations to the Trump Campaign. A Trump spokesperson criticized Joaquin, suggesting he's targeting opponents who are exercising their First Amendment rights.	08-07 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	President Trump visits with shooting victims, their families, and first responders during a stop in El Paso, site of Saturday's mass shooting at a Wal Mart. There were widespread protests of the president and his "divisive language" in both El Paso and Dayton, Ohio. Trump blamed the "Fake News" media for negative coverage of his visits.	08-08 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	This weekend marks the 20 th anniversary of the state's back-to-school sales tax holiday. Shoppers are expected to save more than 102-million dollars on a wide	08-09 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM scale of items. Texas shoppers have saved more than a billion dollars since 1999, when the 'holiday' was first implemented.

CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Police in Houston are looking for a 'person of interest', described only as a white male in his late teens or early 20's, who caused a panic at the Memorial City Mall Food Court. The masked man threatened to kill himself and dropped an unspecified object on the floor. No explosives were found, but two people were hurt in the ensuing evacuation.	08-12 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Democrats are feeling confident they can turn the state "blue" in 2020. Analysts say a combination of changing population demographics and the retirements of several key Republicans in congress signal a change in the political winds.	08-13 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
EDUCATION / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	It's back to school at least five of the major school districts in the Houston area (Ft. Bend, Katy, Conroe, Magnolia, and Alief). Steps are being to monitor against social media threats and other potential dangers to campus safety in the wake of recent mass shootings. The state made safety funding available, enabling districts to add security locks and more police presence.	08-14 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM
GOVERNMENT / POLITICS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	San Antonio Congressman Joaquin Castro's effort to 'dox' donors to the Trump campaign appears to have backfired. State Republican officials say donors are galvanized by the controversial practice, rushing to support the businesses Castro sought to embarrass by making their political leanings public.	08-15 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	It's a good time to buy or sell a house. Houston realtors say the	08-16 5:00AM

EDUCATION / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	More school districts have their first day of classes today, including the Santa Fe ISD, where the May, 2018 mass shooting took place. Administrators in Santa Fe say a new GPS app will allow parents to track their children's bus routes. They've also added dual-authentication codes for campus access, and beefed up the police department.	08-19 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Trump campaign is spending more social media money in Texas than any other state. Democrats suggest Texas is 'in play' for them in 2020, but Republican strategists say Trump is tying up the Dems in a state where he already has strong support, preventing them from moving those resources to battleground states.	08-20 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM
CRIME / ETHNIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The interim head of USCIS visits McAllen to review progress on the Trump administration's 'remain in Mexico' policy. Tents are being set up to serve as virtual immigration courts to handle the overflow of asylum-seekers.	08-21 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT / PUBLIC SAFETY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Gun rights advocates criticize Governor Greg Abbott's new public safety panel, formed in the aftermath of the El Paso Wal Mart shootings, saying the committee has no representative for gun owners. Advocates say those who legally own guns prevent far more crimes than they cause, and should not be demonized by politicians. The committee meets for the first time today.	08-22 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM

EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Houston ISD and other districts are back in class, raising consciousness about bullying once again. Psychologists say unlike previous generations - where school bullying ended on campus - cyberbullies can pick on their victims 24/7/365. As much as victims suffer, experts say those who are identified as bullies often have psychological or chemical-addiction problems.	08-26 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
POVERTY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	California Governor Gavin Newsom blames Texas for the homeless crisis in his state. According to PolitiFact, Newsom falsely claimed in an HBO interview that most of the homeless in his state were transplants from other places - notably Texas. Critics say California's crisis stems from high housing prices, heavy regulation, poor prison reform policies, and a failure to address mental health issues.	08-27 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	In the wake of public outrage over its sex-ed curriculum, the Austin ISD says it will no longer use materials provided by Planned Parenthood. Critics say the 'Get Real' program encouraged sexual role play of intimate scenarios, and promoted homosexuality and non-traditional definitions of gender identity. Officials in Austin say they're complying with a new state law that bans local government entities from contracting with abortion providers or their affiliates.	08-28 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM

JOBS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	It used to be a banned subject, but a new poll shows 2/3 of US workers discuss their salaries/compensation packages with their co-workers. According to Robert Half Staffing, 61% do nothing with the information, while 28% try to use it to get a raise.	08-29 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	More than 800 new laws will take effect in Texas starting Sunday, including ten new laws that expand gun rights. There is also a law that will allow expanded beer sales from small breweries, and a driving law that will permit more drivers to recover suspended licenses.	08-30 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Police still don't know the motive for the weekend shooting in Odessa, which left 7 dead and nearly two-dozen injured. The shooter lost his trucking job earlier in the day. There are also questions about how the gunman got his weapon, since he'd failed previous background checks.	09-03 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM
CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	San Antonio Congressman Joaquin Castro introduces a bill to remove the terms 'alien' and 'illegal alien' from federal law books - to be replaced by words like 'foreign national' and 'undocumented foreign national'. Critics say the terms date back to ancient Rome and their well-developed definitions of citizenship.	09-04 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Democrats call on Governor Greg Abbott to call a special legislative session to address gun violence, following mass shootings in Odessa and El Paso. Lawmakers held five press conferences statewide. Abbott responded by saying "need to stop talking to cameras and start talking to colleagues."	09-05 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM

GOVERNMENT / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Governor Abbott finds himself in a political no-man's land as he is being lobbied by members of both parties to take action after multiple mass shootings in Texas. He issued eight executive orders, which enhance reporting requirements and ensure law enforcement can properly respond to suspicious activities.	09-06 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Lt. Governor Dan Patrick says he's "willing to take an arrow", parting ways with the NRA over background checks in 'stranger-to-stranger' gun sales. Patrick still wants to protect sales among family members. The NRA calls the move a "political gambit."	09-09 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM
GOVERNMENT / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Senator Ted Cruz is scheduled to engage in a gun control debate tonight with Hollywood actress Allysa Milano. Cruz surprised the actress/activist when he agreed to discuss the topic. Critics say Milano may find herself out of her depth, because her opinions are often based 'feelings rather than facts' - while Cruz is a well-known former member of the Harvard debate team.	09-10 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston remembers the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the 18 th anniversary of the tragedy. Republican Congressional challenger Wesley Hunt was a sophomore at West Point, and still wears a bracelet to honor those he knew who lost their lives. Larry Catuzzi is heartened by the fact that people have not forgotten his daughter who was killed on United Flight 93 in Shanksville, Pa.	09-11 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM

GOVERNMENT / POLITICS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Locals react to last night's Democratic presidential debate at TSU. A wide variety of topics were discussed, and the candidates also took time to criticize the current administration. Analysts say frontrunner Joe Biden did nothing to impact his double-digit lead over his closest competitors.	09-13 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM
GOVERNMENT / TAXES	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Democrats on Harris County Commissioners Court outvote the Republican minority, voting to effectively increase property tax rates by up to 12% (which includes new assessments). The vote comes a year before a new law is set to take effect that would require a tax increase of that size to go before the voters.	09-16 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A Flash Flood Watch goes into effect this afternoon, as forecasters say there is a 30% chance a tropical system in the Gulf of Mexico develops into something stronger in the next 48 hours. Up to ten inches of rain could fall in some isolated areas before the system moves out - perhaps by Thursday. Local and state officials are already mobilizing in advance of the weather.	09-17 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Tropical Depression formerly known as Imelda continues its northward track, but the danger is not over for the Houston area. The system came ashore Tuesday afternoon near Freeport, but is expected to continue dumping rain on the area through Thursday.
