ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The concept of 'early retirement' may be coming a thing of the past. Financial analysts say the mythical 'million dollars' people need to retire may not be enough, and retirement is getting even harder with the gradual disappearance of the defined benefit pension plan.	07-30 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Some of Texas leading incumbents are bucking longstanding tradition, and agreeing to debates with their challengers. Frontrunners generally try to avoid debates, which tend to favor challengers. Governor Greg Abbott will debate Democrat Lupe Valdez, and Senator Ted Cruz has agreed to five forums with challenger Beto O'Rourke.	07-31 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
EDUCATION / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Today marks the second anniversary of Texas' campus carry law. Advocates say there has not been a single fatality, injury, assault, threat, or suicide attempt during that time... despite claims from critics that armed students would inhibit free speech. A lawsuit filed by several UT professors is pending before a federal appeals court.	08-01 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00 spring's mass shooting at the high school. Changes include additional security and metal detectors at campus entrances.

GOVERNMENT / HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	State lawmakers are fighting back against ordinances in Austin and San Antonio that require employers to offer paid sick leave to their workers. They say the ordinances go beyond municipal power, trying to establish laws that should be implemented at the state level.	08-21 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Fort Worth ISD plans to set out a policy for National Anthem protests during high school football games. Local officials have no similar policies, but coaches believe the standards should be set by individual schools, not the district.	08-22 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Vice President Mike Pence is in the Houston area for a second day, where he is surveying recovery efforts from Hurricane Harvey nearly one year after its landfall. He will also attend several fundraisers for local congressional candidates.	08-23 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Saturday marks the one year anniversary of Hurricane Harvey's landfall. It caused an estimated 125-billion dollars in damage, mostly from historic rainfall and flooding. Some areas received as much as 60-inches of rain from the event, the most ever recorded in North American history.	08-24 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM	1:00

ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Hospitals are closing at a rate of about 30 per year, which is limiting access to healthcare especially in rural areas and small towns. A spokesman from the Texas Medical Associations says the gutting of Obamacare, combined with cuts to Medicaid and Medicare, make operating hospitals cost prohibitive.	08-27 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	For the first time in history, Texas is exporting more oil than it is importing. A majority of the two-billion barrels per day exported from the US is coming from Texas. If the trend continues, Texas would become the world's second-leading oil exporter, behind Saudi Arabia.	08-28 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston ranks number-one among 12 major cities in job growth, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Former Enron CEO Jeffrey Skilling is released from an Alabama prison, and quietly transferred to a halfway house in an undisclosed location. He was convicted in 2006 of fraud and insider trading in the energy giant's collapse.	08-31 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Galveston and parts of Chambers County suffer a Labor Day washout. Up to ten inches of rain fell over the weekend, forcing portions of The Strand to close, and driving holiday visitors off the island.	09-04 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Republican frontrunners in the November election are not debating their Democratic opponents in Texas. Only Governor Abbott is granting a forum to challenger Lupe Valdez. Analysts say frontrunners can only foul up their chances for re-election by agreeing to debates. Senator Ted Cruz and Beto O'Rourke are also supposed to debate, but can't agree on details	09-05 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston Mayor Sylvester Turner holds the first in a series of nearly a dozen public meetings on two referenda before Harris County voters in November. One is for flood mitigation projects. The other would create pay parity between Houston firefighters and police officers of similar rank.	09-06 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00

ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The economic rebound has been good for Houston craft brewers. The number of local breweries has quadrupled in the past five years. The expansion has also been prompted by a 2013 change in the law that allowed craft brewers to sell directly to consumers.	09-07 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
CRIME / ETHNIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	An investigation by the Immigration Law Reform Institute suggests 39-million Americans had their identities stolen by illegal immigrants between 2012 and 2016. The cases were uncovered where W-2 information did not match Social Security numbers. The group says the e-Verify system is insufficient, adding that many ID theft victims are children, who don't discover their ID's were stolen until years later.	09-10 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Heavy rain is falling throughout the Houston area and a Flood Advisory is in effect until Friday morning. Up to six inches of rain fell on Galveston County. Forecasters are watching Invest 95-L, which has a 60% chance of becoming a tropical system before it reaches Texas this weekend. There is also an eye on Hurricane Isaac, and Cat-1 storm that's more than 800-miles east of the Lesser Antilles, but could reach the Caribbean by Thursday.	09-11 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	2:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Half of all American workers are not taking a lunch break. Many employers discourage the practice of missing lunch,	09-12 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00 saying workers need the mental break. Employees are often worried about a loss of productivity.

GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Senate Judiciary Committee is scheduled to vote today on whether to advance the Supreme Court nomination of Brett Kavanaugh to the full Senate. Texas Senator John Cornyn - who sits on the committee - does not expect any problems. He calls critics' allegations of a reversal of Roe v. Wade a "fantasy."	09-13 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ENVIRONMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Forecasters say Invest 95-L only has a 30 (later 20) percent chance of developing into a tropical system. The track is expected to take it into south Texas or northern Mexico, which means Houston will likely see some rain but little else. Forecasters are also watching Tropical Depression Isaac, which could regain strength if it enters the Gulf of Mexico.	09-14 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houstonians may be missing representation in the Texas Senate in January. Governor Abbott and Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart say Democratic Senator Sylvia Garcia has not filed a proper notice of resignation, as she runs for the Congressional seat vacated by the retiring Gene Green. Voters will have to foot the bill for a special election, because there is not enough time to get the senate election onto the November ballot.	09-17 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00

EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Angry parents call for resignations on the Santa Fe ISD Board over what critics see as a lack of action on campus safety in the wake of last May's massacre. Many parents also wore shirts with the letter F, the grade they give the board for their security efforts.	09-18 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Republicans are in danger of losing their super-majority in the state senate, as a number of races are growing tighter before the November Midterms. The GOP was bolstered by a surprise win in the special election to complete the term of former Democratic State Senator Carlos Uresti, who was convicted of fraud. Voters chose Pete Flores to fulfill the final two years of the term.	09-19 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Those who question the economic recovery need look no further than rural Texas to see that growth is extending well beyond urban areas. The oil patch is booming and is expected to continue.	09-20 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas US Senator Ted Cruz squares off against Democrat challenger Beto O'Rourke tonight in Dallas in the first of three scheduled debates. Analysts say Cruz is a veteran debater who is looking to land a knockout punch in one of the nation's most closely-watched races, while O'Rourke is seeking to introduce himself to voters	09-21 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00

CULTURAL/ECONOMIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston's population boom is expected to reach 10-million by the year 2040. Sociologists and politicians already admit traffic is a problem, and the future will create even greater issues. Providing municipal services to that many people will also create its own challenges.	09-24 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas elections may prove to provide a blueprint for a "Red Wave" of Republican victories in the November midterms. While the party in power generally loses seats in off-year elections, Texas may buck the trend with candidates like Pete Flores, who won a south Texas Congressional seat that was in Democrat hands for 139 years.	09-25 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The average national credit score hits an all-time high of 704, suggesting Americans are getting a better handle on their debt as the economy improves. A 'good' credit score is about 700, while a score over 760 is excellent.	09-26 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Senator John Cornyn, who sits on the Senate Judiciary Committee criticizes those who brought 11 th -hour accusations against Supreme Court Nominee Brett Kavanaugh, saying the primary accuser has credibility issues. He also blasted democrats for waiting until the last minute to make their accusations, suggesting	09-27 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
