ADDITIONAL LOCAL PROGRAMMING

Section II lists regularly-scheduled programs that occasionally include guests and/or topics that address community issues during the preceding quarter.

ISSUE	PROGRAM / TITLE	DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
CRIME / YOUTH & PARENTING	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Charges are pending against a 12-year old Montgomery County girl who allegedly stole her grandmother's car and took her seven -year old sister on a joy ride. She led police on a chase that sometimes reached speeds of 100-MPH, and the child was driving on the wrong side of the road. No one was hurt.	7-1 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
HEALTHCARE / PUBLIC SAFETY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A Matagorda County teenager has lost a leg, several fingers, and may yet lose his eyesight after a weekend fireworks accident. The 15-year old detonated a so-called 'sparkler bomb' but could not get away before the fuse set the device off. In an unrelated incident, a one-year old girl in Katy was also burned over nearly 20-percent of her body in a fireworks accident.	7-5 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:15
CRIME / GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston-area lawmakers react to the FBI's decision not to recommend criminal charges against Hillary Clinton in her email scandal. Woodlands Republican Kevin Brady called it a "predetermined outcome". Fellow Republican John Culberson says government officials are not immune to the law, and Alvin Congressman Randy Weber hopes Congress will hold hearings on the findings.	7-6 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A former employees of Buc-ee's is being sued by the Texas chain for $67,000 worth of	7-7 5:00AM 6:00AM	1:00

		retention bonuses she collected. She failed to complete her 60-month contract and the popular travel stop wants a refund. The company says they are able to retain quality workers through the program.	7:00AM
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Tragedy in Dallas, where a man holed up in a parking garage and shot at police who were guarding a Black Lives Matter protest march against violence committed against minorities by law enforcement. Five officers were killed and seven others were injured before police used a robot to detonate an explosive device that killed 25-year old Micah Johnson.	7-8 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	4:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The shooter who killed five Dallas police officers and wounded at least seven others has tied to the Houston chapter of the New Black Panther Party. In an exclusive interview, NBPP leader Quannel-X said he advised Micah Johnson to seek counseling. The community activist went on to say Johnson was kicked out within six months for failing to respect the chain of command.	7-11 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Governor Greg Abbott's office announced he would miss Tuesday's memorial for five fallen Dallas police officers, killed during a protest last Thursday. Abbott suffered second-and-third degree burns on his legs and feet in a scalding incident. He reportedly developed an infection and was being treated at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio.	7-12 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	President Obama and former President George W. Bush were among the dignitaries who	7-13 5:00AM 5:30AM	1:30

		gathered in Dallas to mourn the loss of five officers who were gunned down during last week's protests. Closer to home, a Bellaire Police officer was killed during a chase, when his motorcycle hit the rear of a landscaping trailer.	6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM
CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A vice president of student government at the University of Houston has received death threats, and there is a movement to remove her from office, after she tweeted "Forget Black Lives Matter; more like All Lives Matter." Social media experts say blacks find "All Lives Matter" offensive, because it waters down their intended message.	7-14 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The two Americans who died in the terrorist attack in Nice, France were from Texas. 51-year old Sean Copeland and his 11-year old son Brodie were celebrating a birthday with family during a vacation to the French Riviera. Family members confirmed the identities of the duo from Lakeway, Texas west of Austin. A total of 84 people were killed when a 31-year old Tunisian man drove a truck into a crowd celebrating Bastille Day. He was gunned down by police.	7-15 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:30
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Houston police react to the recent ambush-style shootings in Dallas and Baton Rouge (which have killed 8 police officers). There are more requests from officers to ride in pairs for safety. Several precincts already require officers to work in pairs.	7-18 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	High profile Texas Republicans have decided to bypass the GOP convention in Cleveland, suggesting some lingering	7-19 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00 resentment from a bruising primary campaign. Among the absentees; both Presidents Bush, Land Commissioner George P. Bush, and Houston Congressmen Pete Olson and John Culberson.

CRIME / GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Governor Greg Abbott proposes a measure that would make assaults on law enforcement a hate crime. Critics say it may have a tough time getting through the state legislature, which convenes in January. They also call it election-year posturing.	7-20 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Senator Ted Cruz gets the spotlight at the RNC, and is roundly booed by some members of the delegation after he fails to endorse Donald Trump during his 25-minute speech. Cruz told the crowd to head to the polls in November, but instead of telling the crowd to vote for the GOP nominee, he suggested they "vote their conscience."	7-21 5:00AM 5:30AM 6:00AM 6:30AM 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	2:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Federal authorities issued a bulletin to law enforcement, suggesting that anger toward police could be morphing into an organized effort to target cops for violence. The Houston Police Officers Union says they are taking extra precautions, including allowing officers to partner up on request.	7-22 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas still has an important role to play at this week's Democratic National Convention, even though the state hasn't gone to a Democratic presidential candidate in 40-years. The state is still a major hub for fundraising, regardless of party affiliation. Local officials believe Texas would	7-25 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00 be more in play if candidates moved closer to the political center.

GOVERNMENT / ETHNIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Illegal immigrants are getting creative/desperate in their efforts to get into the US. People have been found hiding in car dashboards, under the hood... even sewn into the vehicle's upholstery! Border security advocates say a wall - similar to one proposed by Donald Trump - is only part of the solution, along with human monitoring. Meanwhile a Mexican newspaper editorial advocates for a border wall, along that nation's southern border with Guatemala and Belize.	7-26 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:30
CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The numbers don't appear to add up; more than 6,700 Syrian refugees have been resettled in the US (including more than 500 in Texas), but only 23 are Christians. Terrorism experts continue to warn against allowing refugees into the country, because we lack an effective vetting process.	7-27 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
CRIME / CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	An off-duty Brenham police officer is denied service at an area McDonalds. Investigators say the female employee, whose son is currently in jail facing a serious charge, had a general dislike for law enforcement. She has been fired. The company issued a statement, calling it an 'isolated incident.'	7-28 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	One of the speakers at the final night of the Democratic National Convention has his eye on a Texas senate seat. San Antonio Congressman Joaquin Castro says he will target Ted Cruz' seat in 2018, adding Cruz is focused on himself rather than the people	7-29 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00

PUBLIC SAFETY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The deadliest hot air balloon crash in US history occurred Saturday outside Lockhart, Texas. A total of 16 people were killed, but only the pilot has been identified so far. NTSB investigators say the gondola hit some power lines, but it is not yet clear whether a fire in the passenger area started before or after the collision.	8-1 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Record production by OPEC this year has created an oil glut on the world markets, driving gas prices down. Analysts are expecting a turnaround in 2017 with prices remaining 'reasonably affordable.' Crude dropped below $40 a barrel briefly Monday, but rebounded to close above that threshold.	8-2 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
CULTURAL DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A member of the University of Houston student government is suspended without pay for 50 days after posting a Twitter message that was considered critical of the Black Lives Matter movement. Legal analysts say school policies do not trump Rohini Sethi's right to free speech. In north Texas a cable company investigates how a profane white supremacist, anti-Black Lives Matter message was sent to cable subscribers. Also a group of Black Lives Matter activists release a political platform, which calls for reparations, an end to the death penalty, and investments in the black community.	8-3 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	2:30
EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A former Aldine ISD middle school teacher is back in court, accused of violating the terms of her release. 24-year old Alexandria Vela is accused of continuous sexual	8-4 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:30

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Today starts the annual Sales Tax Holiday on back-to-school items in Texas. Officials expect the public to save 92-million dollars. Certain items priced under 100-dollars are exempt from sales tax, but there is no limit on what people can spend.	8-5 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT - NATIONAL SECURITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Two managers at the Texas Department of State Health Services lost their jobs - others are being retrained after the state failed to keep a bogus operation for acquiring materials to make a dirty bomb. The 'company' was actually government officials performing an undercover operation. Terrorism experts say its proof that it can be done in our country.	8-8 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ETHNIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The parents of the so-called "Texas Clock Boy" are suing school and law enforcement officials in Irving for civil rights violations. Their 14-year old son Ahmed Mohamed faced charges after bringing what he called a 'homemade clock' to school. A teacher reported him to authorities; say the device looked like a fake bomb. Criminal charges were dropped, but he was still suspended from school.	8-9 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00

GOVERNMENT / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Business owners could be held responsible for their decision to ban people from conceal carry/open carry in their establishments. State Senator Bob Hall (R-Edgewood) plans to introduce a bill that would protect customers and employees who can't protect themselves. Hall says there are too many examples of 'gun free zones' that were the targets of tragedy.	8-11 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Gun rights advocates are rallying at the courthouse in Waller County after the DA charged the head of Texas Carry. Terry Holcomb sent letters to 76 government entities, claiming they're violating the law by excluding licensed gun owners under the 30.06 ordinance. Waller County argues courthouses are exempt, even if other offices are housed inside the same building.	8-12 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00
CLIMATE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The number of named storms could double over the next 30-days as we enter the most active portion of the Atlantic hurricane season. County judges warn residents to be prepared - keeping prescriptions filled and gas tanks full. The warning is especially in coastal regions where as much as 20-percent of the population was not around for Hurricane Ike.	8-15 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The nation is experiencing a "restaurant recession" as fewer people are going out to eat. The Houston Restaurant Association says despite the downturn in the energy sector,	8-16 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00

CRIME / CLIMATE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The hot August weather is causing the controversy over prison air conditioning to resurface. Reform advocates say the lives of elderly prisoners - and those who suffer from a variety of ailments - are put in jeopardy by the conditions. But State Senator John Whitmire does not foresee a time when prisons will be retrofitted... saying the duct work could provide a means of escape.	8-17 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A new poll from a Democrat-leaning organization shows Donald Trump's lead in Texas has been whittled down to six-points. Supporters say it's a sign that the Lone Star State is "in play" in November. The Public Policy Polling survey also suggested that three-in-five Trump supporters would back secession if Hillary Clinton is elected.	8-18 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:30
EDUCATION / HEALTHCARE	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Since 2003, there has been a 19-fold increase in the number of parents who refuse to have their children vaccinated before they enter the public school system in Texas. Vaccine backers say 100,000 children still die every year from measles... but critics claim the combination of shots is leading to an increase in autism.	8-19 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00

ETHNIC DIVERSITY / GOVERNMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas is appealing the dismissal of a lawsuit against a federal resettlement agency over the placement of Syrian refugees in the state. The state attorney general's office maintains the immigrants - who in some cases are coming from terrorist-friendly nations - are not being properly vetted before they enter the country. The federal government is supposed to consult with states on refugee resettlement	9-6 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT / ETHNIC DIVERSITY	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Nearly 25-billion dollars flowed into Mexico last year from expatriates living mostly in the US and sending money back to their families. That is a greater contribution to the Mexican economy than its oil production, and they are among the top producers in the world. Experts claim the practice is not a drain on the US economy, because Mexican investment and tourism cycles those funds to the north.	9-7 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Purple Texas. A new Washington Post poll shows Donald Trump's lead in Texas has dwindled to low-single digits, which means Hillary Clinton could be within the margin of error to score a major electoral upset. Even the Dallas Morning News has endorsed Hillary Clinton, a first for Democrats in 75 years.	9-8 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM	1:00
GOVERNMENT / ELECTIONS	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Texas Senator John Cornyn is not endorsing Ted Cruz in his bid to retain his seat in 2018. CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Authorities in New York and New Jersey pieced together surveillance tape in order to catch bombing suspect Ahmad Rahami. There are more than 350 surveillance cameras in Houston and more if you count those at private businesses. They can be a useful crime fighting tool, but civil libertarians are worried about privacy violations	9-20 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
EDUCATION / CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A Texas Tech alumnus expresses his displeasure with the university president using the "Guns Up" slogan in a fundraising effort. Dr. Michael Grant says he objects to the "romantic Wild West context of violence". Those who disagree with Dr. Grant's position say society has become overly-sensitized to giving offense.	9-21 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Blue Bell Ice Cream is dealt another blow. They are informed by a third-party vendor that their products containing chocolate chip cookie dough might be tainted with listeria. The Brenham-based company issued a	9-22 5:30AM 6:30AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:00 voluntary recall in ten states served by their Alabama production facility. That does not include Texas.

EDUCATION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	A school district in the Texas hill country is allowing its teachers to be armed. The superintendent of the Medina ISD won't say which teachers will be carrying guns, since that would compromise the safety plan, but they have posted a sign warning potential intruders they are ready to defend themselves. Local reaction to the policy has been overwhelmingly positive.	9-23 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
CRIME	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	An active shooter situation breaks out in West University. Police say a gunman with a revolver opened fire on passing vehicles from a Randall's shopping center, injuring six. Police later said the gunman was shot and killed.	9-26 7:00AM 7:30AM 8:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	The Mexican Peso is reaching historic lows, now trading at a 20:1 ratio with the US Dollar. Economists say rhetoric from Donald Trump is raising concerns about the future of bilateral trade. But the number of illegal immigrants crossing into Texas and the US is not expected to be affected by the currency's devaluation.	9-27 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Harris County Commissioners approve a $105-million dollar plan to re-purpose the Astrodome. The first	9-28 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM 8:00AM	1:00

10.5-million will be used to add up to 1,400 parking spaces to the lower levels. The rest of the facility will be converted into a multi-use center for conventions and other events. The plan still needs the approval of the Texas Historical Commission.

GOVERNMENT - ELECTION	HOUSTON'S MORNING NEWS	Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart announces the Super Bowl of Elections, saying the presidential race always brings more people to the polls. Officials expect 1.4-million people to cast ballots in the county. They're reminding people to bring ID. There will be 46 early voting locations open on October 24.	9-29 5:00AM 6:00AM 7:00AM	1:00
