

KVVN, Ely, Nevada
Issues/Programs List – First Quarter 2010

KVVN ascertained that following issues are important to the Ely, Nevada area:

- Environment
- Health
- Economic Issues
- Government and Politics
- Education

KVVN offered the following news and public affairs programming to address these and other issues:

INN News (Mondays - Fridays 5:30 – 6:00 PM)

This show provided live, local coverage of area news events, as well as locally-oriented discussions of and commentary on current community issues, including those set forth above.

KNOW THE CAUSE (Mondays – Fridays 4:00 – 5:00 a.m. and 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.)

Researcher, author and lecturer, Doug Kaufmann hosts a daily television show called Know the Cause. Upon arriving home from his tour of duty in Vietnam as a hospital corpsman, Doug found himself sick with multiple symptoms that were unable to be remedied by conventional therapies. Without the relief of modern medicine, Doug began educating himself on the importance of diet, exercise, supplementation and sensible living and, in time, was able to reverse all of his symptoms. His work, spanning almost 40 years in allergy, dermatology, and mycology, has led him to write a series of books and develop diet that could stop the progression of certain germs that cause much illness.

Issue: Health

The Right Side with Armstrong Williams (Sundays at 9:30 a.m., January and February)

This show featured discussions of the issues of the day from the unique perspective of a conservative, black journalist, and also featured discussions with prominent conservative guests.
