

National Children's Advocacy Center April 14, 2012

WRTT provided a public address system, background music and announcer responsibilities for the NCAC's annual Block Party. The NCAC provides goods and services for abused children in the North Alabama area.

May Flowers Tornado Relief April 27, 2012

Representatives of the May Flower Tornado Relief project were guests in the studio to promote their fund-raising event. The organization was created as a public service to help raise money and needed items after the April 2011 tornadoes left so many families uprooted.

Panoply Arts Festival April 28 – 29, 2012

WRTT maintained a weekend-long booth to support the Arts Council at their annual festival, Panoply. The event emphasizes the importance of art for North Alabama children and families.

Still Serving Veterans June 5th, 2012

WRTT hosted Fabiani Duarte, a representative of Still Serving Veterans as a guest on the morning show. He spoke of the purpose of the SSV Organization and the services it provides for veterans seeking jobs, counseling and benefits. SSV hosted a showing of the documentary "Hell and Back Again" to raise awareness of the needs of veterans.

Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association July 18, 2012

Representatives of the CVMA came to the studio to promote their Bike Night event with a band and refreshments, designed to raise funds for fellow veterans in need. They also promoted their website, www.nalcvma.com.