WMMT Issues/Programs lists (as required by 73.3526(e)(11)(i), 73.3527(e)(8)) (retain until final action taken on the station's next license renewal application). These are quarterly lists prepared by stations of programs they aired during the preceding quarter that provided the stations' most significant treatment of community issues.

Q1 2021

1. Appalachian Impact Fund & Local Downtown; January 14, 2021; 8 minutes; 6:21PM; Interview from WEKU-FM with Lora Smith of the Appalachian Impact Fund on a pandemic stimulus fund for downtown businesses in Eastern Kentucky communities. (Aired as part of the "Mountain Talk" program.)
2. Diabetes Alert; March 17, 2021; 57 minutes; 6:00PM; Kentucky has the 4th highest death rate from diabetes in the US, but diabetes can be prevented or delayed. In recognition of March 22nd's Diabetes Alert Day, eastern Kentuckians share stories of reducing their risk or controlling diabetes through participation in National Diabetes Prevention Programs or with lifestyle changes made on their own. One in 7 Kentuckians has diabetes, that's over 13% of adults, and 17% in Appalachian Kentucky. Another 11% of Kentuckians have prediabetes, a condition that is often unrecognized but which can be prevented or slowed with diet and exercise.
3. Making Connections News; February 18, 2021; 58 minutes; 6:00PM; State Representative Attica Scott on Breonna's Law, Affrilachian author Crystal Wilkinson on her novel "The Birds of Opulence," and Rev. Palmer on racist policy for the Kentucky Center for Economic Policy's conference.
4. "Prevent Diabetes EKY" Series - Interview with Tiffany Scott; January 14, 2021; 11 minutes; 6:00PM; Tiffany is a local health professional involved with diabetes prevention and management programs in Letcher County, Ky. Interview includes tips and thoughts around managing blood sugar, controlling type 2 diabetes & prediabetes, and preventing them both in the first place. (Aired as part of the "Mountain Talk" program.)
5. Banjo Master Lee Sexton; March 12, 2021; 18 minutes; 6:12PM; Airing of an archival WMMT documentary story on local traditional banjo master Lee Sexton, followed by audio of Lee's music from the Appalshop Archive. (Aired as part of the "Mountain Talk" program.)
