6:30am 7:00am

Now.Chicago is a weekly Public Affairs program hosted by Katie Kijowski. The show profiles inspirational, influential and compelling individuals who are uniquely Chicago as described below.

JUL 4 – 1516 – SAME SEX MARRIAGE

Katie speaks with Midwest Regional Director of Lambda Legal Jim Bennett on the same sex marriage ruling. They discuss how the local organization has been working for many years on the decision, and helpful information for Chicago residents surrounding the Supreme Court's ruling.

JUL 11 – 1506 – MEDICAL MALPRACTICE (REPEAT)

Host Katie Kijowski discusses medical malpractice. Medicine is meant to heal, but is an imperfect science. Doctors try their best to give patients the most effective treatment possible, but mistakes, and even worse, malpractice does happen. Joining Katie are Dr. William McDade from the Illinois State Medical Society, Malpractice Attorney Regina Etherton and Brenda Ott from The Chicago Bar Association.

JUL 18 – 1517 – MIND/BODY CONNECTION

Katie interviews 2 guests about this interesting health topic: Dr. Melinda Ring of the Osher Center for Integrative Medicine at Northwestern Medicine and Deborah Acker of Deborah Acker Transformational Coaching. They discuss how the mind and body are connected and how this affects health.

JUL 25 – 1518 – SPORTS GIVING BACK

Host Katie Kijowski speaks with Chicago Bulls Center Nazr Mohammed about his charitable efforts in the City of Chicago and how he's helping sports oriented youth learn valuable life skills. She also interviews Enoch Smith of the Beyond Sports Foundation and two participants in the program designed to help at risk youth achieve their dreams through sports.

AUG 1 – NOWC1515 BEST OF 2015 (REPEAT)

Host Katie Kijowski presents highlights of the year so far, including compelling interviews from "Autism Speaks," "Academic Enrichment," and "Distracted Driving."

AUG 8 – NOWC1518 - SPORTS GIVING BACK (REPEAT)
