

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

Page 1 of 10STATION: KOBF-TVREPORTING PERIOD: ¹ April 1, 2011 TO June 30, 2011Date Filed:² July 8, 2011

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 1, 2011	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Rio Rancho website	Rio Rancho has a new website called Rio Rancho 360. On the website you can look up city budgets, the salaries of all city positions, and all city contracts worth more than five thousand dollars.
April 1, 2011	5:00AM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Spaceport Educational launch	The New Mexico Space Grant Consortium says 115 students from Albuquerque and Northern New Mexico will watch the projects they designed be launched into space. The students' experiments cover topics including static electricity, radiation, and how a type of electricity generated during flight can roast New Mexico green chiles.
April 1, 2011	5:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Public Corruption Hotline in New Mexico	The FBI set up a new hotline and website to report suspected public corruption. Officials say public corruption isn't just public officials; it could also be things like economic stimulus fraud or abuse of government contracts.
April 2, 2011	7:00AM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Weekend Edition	NM Teacher evaluation	NM Governor Susana Martinez says she will sign an executive order to create a group to work on the state's teacher evaluation system. The group will develop a statewide framework for teacher evaluation, and make recommendations on a compensation system to reward successful teachers.
April 2, 2011	7:00AM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Weekend Edition	Medical Marijuana lawsuit	Some non-profit groups are suing the state because they want to produce medical marijuana and they claim they're being ignored. Health officials say they're working on new guidelines that will more clearly spell out what applicants need to do so more licenses can be granted.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 3, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	He won the White House as the Insurgent, so how will Barack Obama win again as the incumbent? Can Republicans run for President while running from interviews?
April 3, 2011	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM foreclosure legislation	Gary King, NM Attorney General and Karen Meyers, Director of AG's Consumer Protection Division joined us to discuss the foreclosure legislation that died in the state legislature. We also discussed ongoing ways the AG's office is working to crack down on predatory lenders while still maintaining some short term small loans for consumers.
April 3, 2011	10:00PM 1 Minute, 12 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Costly fire season in Albuquerque	Albuquerque's budget is in rough shape, and the state is the driest in decades. Combine those two and you've got the makings for a dangerous and costly fire season. Albuquerque Mayor Richard Berry is urging those who live near open space to remove fire burning brush and weeds and for parents to talk to their kids about the dangers of the dry conditions.
April 4, 2011	5:00AM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Underpaid jobs	New jobs are making it hard for some workers to pay the bills. Labor Department statistics show many of the new jobs are in retail, hospitality, and home health care. Many of those positions don't pay enough for workers to meet their basic needs.
April 4, 2011	5:00AM 18 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	NM governor's stand on children's safety	NM Governor Susana Martinez unveiled a free hotline number, so anyone can report child abuse and neglect. The phone number is pound SAFE, and is now available. April is National Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month.

April 4, 2011	12:00PM 45 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New drug for Lupus patients	Lupus is a serious and chronic auto-immune disease where the body attacks its own organs. Now a new drug called Benlysta has been approved by the FDA. It targets specific immune cells, unlike other therapies that suppress the entire immune system and have side effects.
April 4, 2011	6:00PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Preparations in event of fire evacuations	With a very active fire season predicted, the Red Cross wants to remind everyone to have some supplies ready to go, just in case a fire suddenly breaks out and you have to evacuate. Officials say you should have things like money, water, snacks, phones, flashlights and a list of contacts ready to grab.
April 4, 2011	10:00PM 12 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Burn Bans in Santa Fe and Sandoval counties	Santa Fe and Sandoval Counties have a new burn ban in place. The ban applies to all open fires in unincorporated areas of the counties. Violators face a fine and possible jail time.
April 4, 2011	10:00PM 36 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Fire forecast in NM	We've been telling you about predictions for a bad fire season in New Mexico and tonight experts confirm the fire danger is going to stay high for the fore-seeable future. The National Fire Weather map for April shows New Mexico among the states with above-normal fire danger. April may seem like an early start to the season but the National Weather Service isn't surprised.
April 5, 2011	5:00AM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Tax break for rail yard project	NM Governor Martinez is expected to sign a tax break for a rail yard project. Union Pacific plans to spend more than 400 million dollars on a refueling facility in Santa Teresa, NM bringing 600 permanent jobs. If Union Pacific builds the facility, the law would lift the state tax on Locomotive fuel starting in July 2013.

July 5, 2011	5:00PM 39 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Getting help with tax forms	All around New Mexico, tax experts are volunteering their time to make sure your taxes are done right. Those volunteers include the AARP, which offers a free "tax aide" program for low to moderate income people. CNM also has a "tax help New Mexico Program, which helps people over 65 and those making less than 50 thousand a year.
April 10, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Will Republicans deep cut proposals hurt their chances in 2012? Will his birther argument help or hurt Donald Trump in Republican primaries?
April 10, 2011	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Promoting renewable energy	Terry Brunner, USDA Rural Development New Mexico Director discussed how the agency is promoting renewable energy by giving loans to companies in rural communities to help them make energy friendly upgrades.
April 11, 2011	5:00AM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Controversial fire safety	Albuquerque City Finance Committee is meeting today on a controversial fire safety measure. It would eventually force Albuquerque businesses to make renovations that some owners say would be too costly. It would require all buildings, including restaurants and night clubs that are five thousand square feet and larger to install sprinklers.
April 11, 2011	5:00AM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Lea County construction	It's a sign of an improving economy in Southeastern New Mexico. New numbers show construction permits in Hobbs nearly doubled between February and March. 152 projects received permits last month.

April 11, 2011	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Digital data back up	With fire danger threatening homes and structures in New Mexico, consumer advocates are on a "Back Up Your Data" campaign. Natural disasters such as wildfires can put property and memories in jeopardy. Experts say keepsake photos and videos should be transferred to a CD, DVD or external hard drive and make sure that backup is somewhere other than your house.
April 11, 2011	5:00AM 35 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Bosque fire preparations	Albuquerque is looking at one of the worst fire seasons that we've seen going back ten years. That comment was made yesterday as several agencies came together to address the extreme fire risk in the Bosque, foothills and West Mesa. Fire authorities were going over plans for upcoming fire restrictions.
April 17, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	In dire times, why is it still so hard to raise taxes on the rich? What if there is no hell?
April 17, 2011	4:10PM 20 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM's legislative session	Representatives Al Park and Larry Larranaga discussed the most recent legislative session. We discussed the budget, the biggest issue state lawmakers had to deal with and the challenges of agreeing on where to cut. We talked about some of the most contentious issues of the session, including film incentives.
April 18, 2011	5:00AM 1 Minute, 1 second	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Tax help	CNM's tax preparers with "Tax Help New Mexico" will be on hand to help those who waited until today to file. All state and federal tax files will be done electronically so you don't have to wait at the post office. The service is free to anyone whose household income is less than fifty thousand dollars or for those 65 and older.

April 18, 2011	5:00AM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Air Traffic Control rules	The government is changing the rules for air traffic controllers in hopes of making the skies safer. The new rules include more rest time, an extra hour between shifts, more managers on the job and no more swapping schedules to create longer weekends.
April 18, 2011	12:00PM 10 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	BLM Open House	The U.S. Bureau of Land Management will hold an open house tomorrow. It's for the public to learn about upcoming deals and business.
April 22, 2011	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Nuclear Energy Conference	Experts in Nuclear Energy will be in New Mexico today discussing what went wrong at Japan's damaged nuclear facility and what impact it will have here. Speakers will also present projections on the future of nuclear energy in the Southwestern part of the country.
April 24, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	The special relationship between the U.S. and Britain. How Brits see the monarchy of the future.
April 27, 2011	12:00PM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New Santa Rosa Hospital	NM Senator Jeff Bingaman and other officials will dedicate the Guadalupe County Hospital in Santa Rosa. It will provide health care to five thousand people living in Guadalupe County and the surrounding areas as well as travelers along I-40. Nine point four million in stimulus funding helped pay for the hospital.

April 28, 2011	5:00PM 1 Minute	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	NM extreme drought	The commissioner for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation is in New Mexico, talking with water users. He says the biggest issue for New Mexico is the long term drought. The commissioner says if we don't get some moisture to replenish the river basins, we're likely to have major problems next year.
May 1, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Is racism fueling the attacks on President Obama's qualifications? How has President Obama changed his job description?
May 1, 2011	4:10PM 20 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Mortgage lending industry	Angela Muxworthy and Matt Teskey from NM Mortgage Lenders Association discussed some issues facing the mortgage lending industry, including talking in Washington of eliminating the mortgage interest deduction, and plans to faze the government out of lending by dismantling Fannie Mae and Freddie Mae.
May 8, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	After Bin Laden; what's our biggest threat now? How fast can we leave Afghanistan? How will it change President Obama?
May 8, 2011	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	A.L.S.	Kerrie Copelin, Executive Director A.L.S. Association NM Chapter talked about ALS and explained that it's a neurological condition that affects the signals sent to a person's muscles, and eventually leads to a person's death. The ALS Association NM Chapter is trying to raise awareness about ALS.

May 15, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Every leading GOP candidate has a major flaw, but which one has the political chops to conquer his flaw? The cost of college has gone up twice the rate of inflation. It now costs $50,000 a year to attend a private college. Is the cost out of control?
May 22, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Did Newt Gingrich's recent humiliation destroy hope for a compromise from Republican on a debt solution? Which Republican will win Donald Trump and Mike Huckabee supporters?
May 22, 2011	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Non-profit Community Faithlinks	We discussed the non-profit, Community Faithlinks, which provides tutoring in math and reading and after school programs; including social/emotional education programs and anti-bullying programs. Community Faithlinks is currently working with kids in nine New Mexico school districts.
May 29, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	The three Republicans with a real shot to beat Obama. How close is President Obama to the troops?
May 29, 2011	4:07PM 23 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Book "When the Boomers Bail"	Mark Lautman, Author and Economic Development Expert discussed his book which details how changes in demographics will impact economic development in communities in New Mexico and across the country. Lautman says the baby boomer generation failed to have enough children to replace themselves in the workforce.

June 5, 2011	12:00PM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	He won the White House as the Insurgent, so how will Barack Obama win again as the incumbent? Can Republicans run for President while running from interviews?
June 5, 2011	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Community banks and credit unions	We discussed the state of community banks and credit unions in New Mexico and the importance of having these institutions, especially in small or rural communities. We also discussed a proposal in congress to cap debit card swipe fees, which the banks and credit unions feel will possibly put many of them out of business.
June 12, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Tough new signs America won't recover soon; can Obama still win? The Anthony Weiner story; Is talking to the Taliban the way out of Afghanistan?
June 19, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Could Mitt Romney and John Huntsman have to answer questions about what Mormons believe? Can Republicans run for President while running from interviews?
June 19, 2011	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Motorcycle safety	We discussed issues involving motorcycle safety after the recent death of a motorcyclist killed by a suspected drunk driver. They want to raise awareness about the dangers on the roads and they want state officials to pay more attention to safety issues and rights for motorcyclists.

June 26, 2011	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Is the President lagging the country on getting out of Afghanistan? What is Jon Stewart's political impact? Will the Tea Party get behind the winner if it is Mitt Romney or Jon Huntsman?
June 26, 2011	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Need for dual language programs in NM	We discussed the need for more dual language programs in New Mexico, and what kinds of language programs work best for bilingual students. The organization "Dual Language Education in New Mexico" is trying to promote more classes where students who speak another language learn material in their first language, as well as English.
June 26, 2011	8:30PM 1 Minute	Eyewitness News 4 Special Report	Las Conchas Fire	Los Alamos police confirm that all of Los Alamos County is now under a voluntary evacuation order because of the Las Conchas Fire. This includes cities of Los Alamos and White Rock. At last check the fire has burned more than 1000 acres and forced the evacuation of Las Conchas, Cochiti Mesa and the Bandelier and Valles Caldera Forest areas.
June 27, 2011	5:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Food donations for evacuees of Las Conchas Fire	The Santa Fe based food bank "The Food Depot" is taking donations to help feed evacuees and fire crews. It's asking for dried beans, rice and pasta, snacks like granola bars, trail mix, beef jerky and bottles waters.