

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF-TV

REPORTING PERIOD: April 1, 2009 TO June 30, 2009

Date Filed:² July 10, 2009

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 1, 2009	5:00AM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Tobacco tax	The biggest tobacco tax hike takes affect today. All the extra tax money is expected to raise 33 billion dollars for children's health insurance over the next four and a half years.
April 1, 2009	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Stimulus education money distributed	This week schools will start to get the first round of funding from the economic stimulus package. Half of that money will go toward federal programs that fund kindergarten through 12 th grade and special education.
April 1, 2009	5:00AM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Albuquerque water restrictions	Today, the Albuquerque Water Authority starts enforcing "time of day" water restrictions. People are not allowed to water outside between eleven a.m. and seven p.m.
April 1, 2009	5:00PM 54 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Future of Albuquerque mall	NM Governor Bill Richardson signs off on a plan top bring new life to a struggling Albuquerque mall. The new mall will be called Winrock Town Center...and will feature condos, offices, a hotel and even an IMAX theatre.
April 1, 2009	5:00PM 34 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Roswell job fair	With resumes in hand, more than 600 job seekers showed up at today's job fair at Eastern New Mexico University's Roswell Campus. More than 50 employers were there - in fields ranging from food service to government.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 1, 2009	5:00PM 1 Minute, 24 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Farmington Public transportation	For people who don't drive in Farmington, getting to Albuquerque or Durango is nearly impossible. In the last six months, Farmington's airport has cut back on flights, even canceling service to and from Albuquerque. City Councilor Mary Fischer introduced idea of a shuttle bus.
April 1, 2009	6:00PM 1 Minute, 55 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Albuquerque City Budget	It's hard to carve 65 million dollars out of a 475 million dollar budget, but the Albuquerque Mayor and city Council plan to do it with no layoffs and no cutbacks.
April 1, 2009	6:00PM 1 Minute, 51 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Donation from actor to Roswell's Boys and Girls Club	The Boys and Girls Club of Roswell's plea for help is answered by actor Denzel Washington. Mr. Washington saw the story about the struggling charity and wrote a $50 thousand dollar check, the exact amount needed to keep the club running.
April 1, 2009	6:30PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	"Making Work Pay" tax cut	The "Making Work Pay" tax cut is now in effect from the Stimulus Act. How much extra cash you see will depend on your salary, marital status and how many exemptions you take.
April 2, 2009	5:00AM 54 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Education Stimulus money guidelines	The Obama Administration wants to consider evaluations for principals and teachers when releasing the money. Under the proposed requirements, states would have to report details of teacher quality and evaluation systems to see if state standards are rigorous enough.

April 2, 2009	12:00PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Unemployment card fees	Starting today, unemployed people in New Mexico will be able to get their benefits directly deposited into their bank accounts. This will avoid fees some banks charge for using the Workforce Solutions Bank of America debit card.
April 2, 2009	10:00PM 37 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Fixing up foreclosures in Albuquerque	The federal government is sending the city seven-million dollars to help developers take over foreclosed homes, fix them and sell them to low-income buyers. Albuquerque has between 200 and 300 foreclosed homes. Another 12-million dollars is on its way to help fix up foreclosed homes in smaller New Mexico cities.
April 2, 2009	12:00PM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	High Chair recall -- Evenflo	Evenflo and the consumer product safety commission are recalling around 90-thousand Evenflo majestic high chairs. The chair has plastic caps and metal screws that can loosen and fall out, posing a choking hazard.
April 3, 2009	5:00AM 1 Minute, 51 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Title I Homeless Project in Albuquerque	The Albuquerque School District needs your help today. The number of homeless students in the district has doubled since last year. Title I Homeless Project helps the homeless students... along with the PTA; they're holding a drive for school supplies, clothes and non-perishable foods.
April 3, 2009	6:00PM 42 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Free shoes for Vets in Albuquerque	Albuquerque --based Z-Coil donated about 800 pairs of shoes to veterans. The company chose to give them away to veterans because many of them suffer from back and leg pain.

April 5, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Did President Obama pass his first test on the world stage? Is Obama's taking charge of General Motors a smart move?
April 5, 2009	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque Mayoral candidate	Richard Berry qualified for public funding. He is one of only three candidates for mayor to qualify for public financing. He is also the only Republican running, although mayoral races are non-partisan. He spoke to us about what he would like to accomplish if elected Mayor.
April 5, 2009	10:00PM 2 Minutes, 5 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Future of Tingley Beach in Albuquerque	The debate is heating up over the future of Tingley Beach. Albuquerque Mayor wants to spend millions on a renovation project that would turn the place into a big swimming pond, like back in the 1930's.
April 6, 2009	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Money for good grades	The Farmington Daily Times reports that in the past, administrators at Kirtland High School have offered students incentives that score well on the state's standardized test. But this year they're offering gift certificates worth as much as 150 dollars for students who do well.
April 6, 2009	5:00AM 36 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New Mexico State University possible tuition hike	The Las Cruces Sun News reports that New Mexico State University Regents will meet this morning to talk about possible tuition and fee hikes. School officials are not commenting on what the hike might be, but they do say they want to keep it as low as possible.

April 6, 2009	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	University of Colorado recruiting freshman	Your college bound child may be lured away to the University of Colorado. The university says out-of-state applications were down about 20 percent this winter. University officials are now traveling the country visiting students who were accepted . . . in an effort to get them to attend.
April 6, 2009	12:00PM 1 Minute, 44 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Sinus relief	37 million Americans suffer from sinus problems. The pain, congestion, and fatigue can be caused by everything from colds and allergies to air pollution. There's a new procedure that's giving patients permanent relief. Balloon sinuplasty is quickly becoming widely available and insurance usually covers the cost.
April 6, 2009	12:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Broccoli sprouts may help fight stomach cancer	Researchers say broccoli sprouts may be helpful in fighting stomach cancer. Johns Hopkins researchers studies 48 people who were infected with a bacteria known to cause stomach cancer. Half were assigned to eat about two and a half ounces of broccoli sprouts a day; the rest ate alfalfa sprouts as a placebo.
April 6, 2009	12:00PM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Homeless numbers up	Cities across the country are seeing a sharp rise in the number of homeless people. The economic crisis is forcing more Americans out of their homes on to the streets. Out of the 56 cities where the Department of Housing and Urban Development monitors the number of homeless people, 35 have reported an increase.
April 6, 2009	5:00AM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Red Light Camera fines	Under a new state law, 100 dollars is the most you can pay for a red light camera ticket in New Mexico. The fines in Albuquerque right now are 75 dollars. Under the new law, cities keep half of the money they make from citations.

April 7, 2009	5:00AM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Unemployment Website launch	In just a few hours one of this country's largest unions will launch a new website to help the unemployed. It's called "Unemployment Life Line dot com". You can enter your zip code to see a listing of resources available in your area. It also tells you where you can go file for things like unemployment, food stamps, and job training.
April 7, 2009	5:00AM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Free health care at Walgreen's	If you've lost your job and your health insurance, Walgreen's unveiled its "Take Care Recovery Plan". The plan provides free health care for a number of basic services at Walgreen's "Take Care" clinics.
April 7, 2009	5:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Identity Theft Passport legislation	New Mexico lawmakers passed legislation for victims of identity theft. The "Identity Theft Passport" contains a code and when put into a computer, brings up information clearing the victim's name. The passports have a password only the victims know, just in case it's lost or stolen.
April 12, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Is President Obama building a lasting Democratic majority? Can Republicans get their house in order again?
April 12, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM legislation to regulate mortgage lending	John Snyder and Angela Muxworth, NM Mortgage Lender Association, discussed a new law that puts more regulations in place for the mortgage lending industry in order to protect consumers.

April 19, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Economic crisis	Has Obama taken ownership of the economic crisis? Is Obama right to not pursue officials for torture?
April 19, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	National Volunteer Week	Albuquerque Mayor Martin Chavez and Kristin Sabolcik, MOVE (Mayor's Office of Volunteerism and Engagement) Board Director joined us to discuss what the office is about. The MOVE office is basically a clearinghouse for volunteers, through whom agencies can advertise the need for volunteers and citizens can find opportunities to volunteer.
April 26, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	President Obama's first 100 days	Can President Obama continue the whirl of his first 100 days? What bold moves and big stumbles has the President made in his first 100 days?
April 26, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Digital TV Transition	FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein came to Albuquerque, because the New Mexico market was ranked the least prepared in the country to handle the DTV transition. Part of the problem is that New Mexico has the most translators of any market in the country, and there is no deadline for translator operators to convert to digital signals.
May 3, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Will Arlen Specter provide President Obama with a reliable sixtieth vote in the senate? How will the Republican party adjust to regain national prominence?

May 10, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Is President Obama getting the United States into a death trap in Afghanistan and Pakistan? How important should gender, ethnicity and sexual orientation be as factors in the selection of a supreme court nominee?
May 10, 2009	5:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	H1N1 Virus	Dr. Mack Sewell, State Epidemiologist, discussed how the state is responding to the H1N1 flu virus outbreak. We talked about the response from the World Health Organization and CDC and whether anything was blown out of proportion.
May 17, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Why is former Vice President Cheney speaking out now against the Obama Administration, and are his criticisms affecting President Obama's National Security policy decisions? In his Supreme Court Justice selection, is President Obama more concerned with making history or avoiding a fight with the right?
May 17, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Federal Stimulus Money	Former Governor Toney Anaya is now heading up the brand new "Office of Recovery and Reinvestment" which handles New Mexico's portion of the federal stimulus money. We discussed some of the major projects the money will be used for, including transportation and road improvements.
May 24, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	In the debate over National Security policy, will President Obama face greater opposition from Dick Cheney and Republicans or Liberal members of his own party? Has President Obama already launched his 2012 reelection campaign with strategic travel to battleground states?

May 24, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Auto dealerships closing in New Mexico	Quality Jeep Chrysler is one of the 1100 Chrysler dealerships nationwide that was told last week it would be effectively dropped from the Chrysler brand. We discussed options dealerships have to fight back.
May 31, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	How will senate Republicans approach the confirmation process for Supreme Court nominee Sonia Sotomayor? Will they attack her as a liberal activist judge or show deference to her to avoid alienating Hispanic voters? How will President Obama approach his foreign trip next week to Egypt, Germany and France? Will he be able to make any progress in the Arab-Israeli conflict?
May 31, 2009	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque Mayoral candidate	Mayoral Candidate Richard Romero talked about his run for mayor of Albuquerque. He thinks Albuquerque needs a change in leadership. He says the city's budget is his biggest concern, and believes part of the problem is too many mayor appointed positions.
June 14, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Why has President Obama proved to be a more elusive target for Republican critics than President Clinton was? What explains the "gender paradox" than women workers make less money on average, that their male counterparts but are more productive employees and feel higher job satisfaction?
June 14, 2009	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Faces of New Mexico project	Laura Kratochvil is working on a project for Albuquerque Public Schools that connects present day people with New Mexico history. The website "facesofnewmexico.com" features many stories about historical locations and interviews with people who have connections to New Mexico history.

June 21, 2009	6:30AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	APS construction and 2010 Bond Election	Brad Winter, APS Chief Operations Officer and Kizito Wijenje, APS Capital Master Plan Directors discussed the various summer projects going on in APS. Eight new schools are under construction and set to open in the fall. Also discussed 2010 Bon Election, which will provide funding for improvements to many existing schools and "green" upgrades.
June 21, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	What will be the lasting impact of this past week's protests in Iran? How will this year's health care reform debate be different from 1993?
June 28, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	How exactly does President Obama plan to pay for his health care plan, and will the addition of any new taxes in the eventual bill eliminate the possibility of Republican support? Have the street protests in Iran begun a democratic reform movement that will continue for years? Could there be a ripple effect in other Middle East countries?
June 28, 2009	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Gangs in Albuquerque	APD Chief Ray Schultz and APD Gang Unit Lt. Rob Smith joined us to talk about the prevalence of gangs in Albuquerque. APD chief talked about why New Mexico needs better gang laws, so that police have the resources to convict gang members and investigate gang related crimes.