

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
January 1, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Media and Donald Trump	Contentious relationship between Donald Trump and the media; along with promising to build a wall along the U.S./Mexican border, press bashing was the surest route on the Trump Campaign trail. Joe Lockhart, who was President Bill Clinton's press secretary in the second term. Nicolle Wallace, the communications chief for President George W. Bush in his second term. And Ari Fleischer, President George W. Bush's very first press secretary. I sat down with the three of them and asked them about the art of working with a president and what they think we can expect from a President Trump.
January 1, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Dakota Access Pipeline, water crisis in communities across New Mexico	KOB's Colton Shone was joined by Lorelei Chavez, Gina Christy and Kordell Yazza from Hayn Youth Council at Bernalillo High School to discuss what's happening on the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation. Protestors got a huge win earlier in December when the Army Corps of Engineers denied a permit to construct an easement of the Dakota Access Pipeline near the Reservation. A major story here in New Mexico and nationally has been about water. There are some communities across New Mexico that have had a tough time trying to deal; boiling water before using, digging a new well because of water issues.
January 3, 2017	5:00AM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Baby car seat sensor	19-year-old Alissa Chavez, an Albuquerque native is the inventor behind the "Baby Hot Seat". It's a two component system that alerts parents and caregivers if they leave their child in the car. The teen designed the system made of a sensor you place on a car set and an app that alerts you if you walk away while your baby is still in that car seat.
January 4, 2017	6:30PM 53 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	STEM careers	The New Mexico Network for Women in Science and Engineering will be hosting an interactive conference "Expanding Your Horizons. It's meant to help girls learn about possible jobs and connect them with professionals already in the field. The conference is aimed at girls between 5 th and 9 th grade.
January 8, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Russia's election interference; repeal of Obamacare	The battle over Russia's election interference; intel community says the Russians are guilty case closed. President-elect Trump got an intel briefing but says he's still not sure. Rep Senator Lindsey Graham of SC says that if after the briefing, he is still unsure that will shake me to my core about his judgement. Rep Senator John McCain of AZ says if Russia was able to succeed doing that, then you destroy democracies. The Republican party is increasingly divided over how fast to repeal Obamacare. Healthcare will be better and less expensive when Obamacare is completely repealed.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

January 11, 2017	12:00PM 53 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Pilot program "Handle with Care" in Albuquerque	Albuquerque Public Schools want kids to feel safer. That's why its starting a pilot program called "Handle with Care". The program would work with first responders, notifying the school if a child witnesses something or was involved in a traumatic event before heading to school. APS hopes to roll out the program in the Spring.
January 11, 2017	10:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	NM' state legislature's plan to avoid a budget shortfall	New Mexico's state legislature's financial experts have put out a plan to avoid a budget shortfall. The finance committee's six billion dollar budget proposes news cuts to agency spending; lowering public school funding by 22 and a half million dollars and slightly lowering p0ublic safety spending. But they want to increase spending for CYFD home visits and Pre-K programs along with a small increase for the corrections department.
January 13, 2017	5:00AM 37 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Roswell program "Why I Wear the Badge"	Officers in Roswell are trying to connect with the community using videos to tell the stories of why they serve and protect. In partnership with the city's public affairs department, the Roswell officers will share their motivation for choosing a career in law enforcement.
January 13, 2017	5:00AM 35 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Project "Save a Mouth" in Albuquerque	Local dentist Gregory McGee is starting a chapter of the project Save a Mouth nonprofit in Albuquerque. The group will work with local schools and dental programs to educate kids on oral health, get free toothbrushes, toothpaste and floss to kids in need and spread the word about the dangers of sugar and other oral health dangers.
January 15, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press		Rep. John Lewis (D-GA) on Trump: "I don't see the President-Elect as a legitimate President." Trump Chief of Staff Reince Priebus on new reporting of possible Press Corps eviction from White House. Sen. Dianne Feinstein (D-CA) says she's not yet ready to call for FBI Director Comey to be fired. Joining Meet the Press for insight and analysis were The New York Times' Helene Cooper, The Atlantic's Jeffrey Goldberg, National Review's Rich Lowry and AEI's Danielle Pletka.
January 16, 2017	6:30PM 21 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	New Mexico True gear at Sunport	Travelers can now get their "New Mexico True" gear at Albuquerque's Sunport. The state tourism department is partnering with Avila Retail to offer authentic "New Mexico made" products. This includes everything from local coffee to chocolate. The campaign will run from now through mid-March.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

January 17, 2017	5:00AM 49 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	DWI forced breathalyzer tests	A new U.S. Supreme Court ruling has some New Mexico officers feeling handcuffed...Officers in New Mexico can no longer force people into giving blood by upping a driver's DWI charge to aggravated DWI for refusing to submit to a breathalyzer test.
January 17, 2017	5:00AM 42 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Shigella outbreak in New Mexico	An extremely contagious bacterial disease is spreading through southeast New Mexico. Health officials say there's been an increase in the number of individuals diagnosed with Shigella. The disease spreads rapidly, so doctors encourage you to frequently wash your hands and not send sick children to school.
January 17, 2017	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New Mexico State University (NSMU) job cuts	NMSU has cut more than 700 faculty and staff positions in Las Cruces. A steady decline in enrollment and state funding led to the layoffs. The university eliminated 727 positions at its Las Cruces campus...a payroll education of more than 17 million dollars per year, but the school's chancellor says it's using some of the money saved by cutting jobs to pay remaining employees more.
January 22, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Inaugural crowd facts; delay of nomination for C.I.A. director	Press Secretary Sean Spicer gave alternative facts on inaugural crowd size stating "largest audience to ever witness an inauguration. Period". "Alternative facts are not facts," moderator Chuck Todd replied; they're falsehoods". Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (NY) addressed the delay in the nomination of Rep. Mike Pompeo (R-Kansas) for C.I.A. Director. Radio Talk show host Hugh Hewitt, POLITICO's Eliana Johnson, MSNBC's Chris Matthews and NBC News' Kristen Welker joined the show for additional insights and analysis.
January 22, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Combatting opioid addiction/abuse	Our state is facing a major crisis. According to the New Mexico Department of Health –there were 493 drug overdose deaths in our state. That's more than one a day. For example, the overdose drug, Naloxone, which counteracts the effects of opioids, is being made available to first responders and in public places. This past Wednesday, Attorney General Hector Balderas announced he's forming a steering committee made up of district attorneys and law enforcement to take on New Mexico's high rate of opioid related drug deaths and addiction.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

January 23, 2017	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Acoma Pueblo Greenhouse to research medicinal plants	Acoma Pueblo will be home to a state of the art greenhouse designed to research medicinal plants. The pueblo partnered with the Bright Green Group of companies for the development. They say construction on the 150 acre facility will take two years to build and employ 12-hundred people.
January 24, 2017	5:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Pull Together Health and Wellness Fair	Expo New Mexico is the place to be this weekend for all things related to your health and well-being. The KOB "Pull Together Health and Wellness Fair is this weekend where you'll be able to get all kinds of free and low-cost test and screenings.
January 29, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Trump's executive order doesn't affect green cardholders; Holocaust statement language; 70 th Anniversary of Meet the Press	Reince Priebus, chief of staff to President Trump said that the president's executive order temporarily restricting entry to the US from seven Muslim-majority counties does not affect green card holders moving forward. Sen. Tim Kaine (D-VA) counters saying it does affect green cardholders, and they're caught up in it. Priebus also addressed the White House's statement on International Holocaust Remembrance Day and criticism for its omission that the Holocaust is about eradicating the Jewish people. NBC News Special Correspondent Tom Brokaw joined Chuck Todd in celebration of the show's 70 th Anniversary kick off. Also joining the show were presidential historian Doris Kearns Goodwin, the New York Times' Tom Friedman, former RNC Chair Michael Steele and the Wall Street Journal's Kimberley Strassel.
January 29, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Recreational marijuana and hemp	KOB's Chris Ramirez was joined by State Representative Bill McCamley and State Senator Cisco McSorely discussing recreational marijuana and hemp. Hemp is a part of a specific form of cannabis plant with microscopic amounts of THC...that's what makes weed. Think of it like, non-alcoholic beer. It's a controversial crop because of its relation to marijuana, but New Mexico is considering allowing farmers to grow it. The move would benefit farmers with an off-season crop option and it could potentially benefit state budgets with a tax and annual fees.
February 1, 2017	5:00AM 1 Minute, 11 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Travel ban impact at New Mexico school	Here in New Mexico, the travel ban impacts one school that attracts international students. Students at the United World College in Montezuma are now worried they may not be able to travel home to see their families during breaks or worse they may have to leave their education in the U.S. behind. The campus was founded by Armand Hammer, whose mission is to bring together international students to become problem solvers despite religion and cultural differences.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF

REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017

TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

February 1, 2017	12:00PM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	The Empty Chair Documentary dealing with death	Death causes an unimaginable pain, that we will all have to go through at some point. But one group is using their experience to help others. The Empty Chair Documentary is launching its crowdfunding campaign. The documentary aims to get people talking about death, in hopes that people will grieve in a healthier, more positive way.
February 5, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press		Vice President Mike Pence supports President Trump's position towards Russian President Vladimir Putin, telling "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd this morning that "President Trump has been willing to be critical of our country's actions in the past" and that "we have a common interest with Russia" to destroy ISIS. House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-CA) responded to calls for new leadership in the party, telling Todd: "We have plenty of room for all kinds of leadership at every level. Right now we need experience as well as new leadership." Republican strategist Alex Castellanos, NBC News' Andrea Mitchell, AEI's Danielle Pletka and PBS' Tavis Smiley also joined the show for insight and analysis.
February 5, 2017	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Bernalillo County voter approved money	KOB's Erica Zucco discussed that two years after Bernalillo County voters approved a new tax with money going to behavioral health initiatives; she talked with policymakers about how the money is being spent, what programs are being developed and whether it's making New Mexico streets safer. Guests, Katrina Hortum, BernCo Behavioral Initiative; Kathy Finch, Community member; Maggie Hart Stebbins, Bernalillo County Commissioner.
February 5, 2017	10:00PM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Trinity Site on the White Sands Missile Range	It only happens twice a year, and this spring you have a chance to see and experience a remarkable piece of history. New Mexico's Trinity site on the White Sands Missile Range... will open April 1 st for its Annual Open House. The First nuclear bomb was detonated back in 1945. Visitors can see the exact spot where the bomb was detonated as well as the McDonald House where the plutonium core of the bomb was assembled.
February 7, 2017	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	E-cigarettes safer than regular cigarettes	New research suggests those e-cigarettes are actually safer than regular cigarettes. Smokers who made the switch for at least 6 months had much lower levels of toxins in their bodies than people who continued using regular ones. But there needs to be a complete switch. Those who used E-cigarettes while still smoking regular cigarettes did not reduce their exposure to cancer causing chemicals.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

February 9, 2017	12:00PM 21 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Public Service Company of New Mexico (PNM) Assistance Fair	PNM is offering help to financially struggling families in Bernalillo. It's holding the Good Neighbor Fund Assistance Event next week that will offer families and individuals help with their bills.
February 9, 2017	12:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Tax Scam	The IRS is warning people about tax return preparers who promise inflated refunds. IRS officials say if a preparer promises an extremely large refund based on credits or benefits you've never been able to claim in the past, this scam is just one of several on the annual list of tax scams released by the IRS.
February 12, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Vice president possibly misled by Flynn is sensitive matter; deportation if undocumented with anything from a misdemeanor to a felony	Stephen Miller, senior policy advisor to President Trump told Chuck Todd that National Security Advisor Gen. Mike Flynn possibly misleading the vice president on communication with Russia is a sensitive matter. Miller played a key role in the president's recent immigration order. The order describes a criminal offense which would typically mean anything from a misdemeanor to a felony. Sen. Bernie Sanders (L-VT) addressed the White House's order telling Todd that it is based on anti-Muslim ideology, which are doing us enormous harm all over the world. Former Sen. Jim Webb (D-VA) told Todd the Democratic Party over the past 5 to 6 years has moved very far to the left and it has to do some real hard looks at whether or not they are going to expand and get back working people who used to be the core of their party. BBC News' Katty Kay, former Gov. Pat McCrory (RNC), the Washington Post's Eugene Robinson and MSNBC's Greta Van Susteren joined the roundtable for insight and analysis.
February 12, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Child wellbeing in New Mexico	KOB's Colton Shone was joined by Dr. Andrew His, Pediatrician and Dr. Anilla del Fabbro, Child Psychiatrist. A new report found New Mexico is 49 th in the country for child wellbeing. We discussed what goes into that report, and what the state can do to improve its ranking.
February 13, 2017	5:00AM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New Mexico Special Olympics funding	Last year, the Special Olympics in New Mexico found out they would lose 50 percent of the funding they get from the state, because of the budget crunch. Look at this beautiful home in northeast Albuquerque. It was just put on the part and sold for a little more than 173-thousand dollars in just weeks with all proceeds going to the Special Olympics in our state.
February 15, 2017	12:00PM 53 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Autism employment	According to the Florida based Center for Autism and Related Disabilities, not even a third of adults on autism spectrum are employed. The needed support just isn't there, so they're asking business owners to step up. The Spectrum Careers dot com is a new jobs portal designed to promote inclusive employment of the autism community by matching job seekers with businesses.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF

REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017

TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

February 19, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Don't know of any contacts with Russian agents; ability Congress can investigate Trump if necessary; Trump calling the news media enemy of the American people	Reince Priebus, chief of staff to President Trump, responded to recent reports of Trump's campaign aides having repeated contact with Russian Intelligence agents. Sen. John McCain (R-AZ) told Chuck Todd that he has more hope than belief when it comes to the ability of Congress to investigate the president thoroughly if necessary. Sen. McCain also reacted to President Trump's tweet calling the news media, the enemy of the American people. Dictators get started by suppressing free press. Former Defense Secretary Leon Panetta, addressed the president's relationship with the intelligence community. The last thing they need is to have a president who questions their patriotism to this country and to him. The New York Times' David Brooks, former Rep. Donna Edwards (D-MD), radio talk show host Hugh Hewitt and the Cook Political Report's Amy Walter joined the Meet the Press roundtable for insight.
February 19, 2017	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Navajo Housing Authority money issues	KOB's Chris Ramirez discussed the best stories of February. 4 Investigates reports about Navajo Housing Authority money issues, APD and DUI arrests and auto insurance rates increasing.
February 26, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Russian Interference with presidential election; repeal Affordable Care Act; federal government shut down recreational marijuana businesses in Colorado	Sen. Tom Cotton (R-AR) discussed his disagreement with the call from Rep. Darrell Issa (R-CA) for a special prosecutor to investigate Russian interference in the election. The senator also reinforced the party's promise to repeal the Affordable Care Act, not repair it. Gov. John Hickenlooper (D-CO) said he doesn't think it's a clear cut case for the federal government to shut down recreational marijuana businesses. Democratic National Committee Chair Tom Perez, told Todd that voters heard the party's 2016 message as "vote for us because we're not him". There's an acute understanding that underscore that economic message. President Trump's job approval rating stands at just 44%, a record low for a newly inaugurated commander-in-chief.
February 26, 2017	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque's community policing councils	Community policing councils are an important part of the Albuquerque Police Department's settlement with the Department of Justice, but APD says that it needs help diversifying those councils and getting more young people and minorities involved. Erica Zucco speaks with organizers about how to participate, why the need these discussions to be wide-reaching and what impact it could have on the metro. Our guests, Eric Jackson, APD community policing council member, Nicole Chavez, community outreach for APD and Sgt. Simon Drobik, Albuquerque Police Department.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF

REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017

TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

February 27, 2017	12:00PM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	APS dual language	Albuquerque Public Schools will be expanding dual-language opportunities for students thanks to a new grant. APS is teaming with “Dual Language Education of New Mexico” to train teachers and principals at eight schools in the Rio Grande cluster. Spanish will be integrated into curriculum for kindergarten through 12 th grade students. The district was awarded a one-point four million dollar grant to make it happen.
February 27, 2017	10:00PM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Massive greenhouse could bring jobs to a portion of rural New Mexico	Delaware based Bright Green Group of Companies plans to start work on a six million square foot facility on Acoma Pueblo. That’s the size of about 100 football fields. The company says it will research and grow medicinal plants, and harvest them for their oil. Work on the 160 million dollar greenhouse is expected to take about two years.
February 27, 2017	10:00PM 2 Minutes, 25 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Uncollected taxes in New Mexico	The State of New Mexico is scraping for spare change. Now a legislative finance committee alleges the state failed to collect more than half a billion dollars in taxes last year. KOB’s Jen French asked the Department of Taxation and Revenue what’s being done about it. The department tells KOB they’ve invested in their call center and information technology to streamline tax collections. But a backlog in unpaid taxes means either taxpayers or agencies have to somehow bear the burden. The taxation and revenue department has yet to conduct its own tax gap analysis for last fiscal year. It’s not clear how much could be collected if more people were working for the agency.
March 5, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Tweets from President Trump alleging wiretapping by President Obama	Chuck Todd interviewed former Director of National Intelligence James Clapper addressed recent tweets from President Trump alleging wiretapping by President Obama during the 2016 campaign; for the part of the national security apparatus that I oversaw as DNI, there was no such wiretap activity mounted against the president-elect at the time, or as a candidate, or against his campaign. Sen. Marco Rubio (R-FL) reacted to the wiretapping claims as well, telling Todd “I’ve never heard that allegation made before by anybody.” This morning’s roundtable was comprise of Democratic pollster Cornell Belcher, the New York Times Tom Friedman, AEI’s Danielle Pletka and the Wall Street Journal’s Kimberley Strassel who discussed the allegation of collusion between the president’s campaign and Russia.
March 5, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Opioid addiction; New Mexico’s medical cannabis program	Guests Dr. Jacob Vigil, UNM Department of Psychology, Anthony Reeve and Sara See Stith, UNM Department of Economics joined KOB’s Colton Shone to discuss opioid addiction, which too many people are dying from. The Center for Disease and Control and Prevention reported New Mexico’s drug overdose death rate improved from 49 th worse in the nation to 43 rd . While the state is still making strides in preventing addiction, there is still a lot of work to be done. NM Governor Martinez announced a $200,000 grant from drug company Pfizer for the Naloxone Access Program; to increase public awareness of the risks of opioid addiction. It goes into the state’s medical cannabis program. It allows patients to self-manage their cannabis treatment through medical-advised authorization.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF

REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017

TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

March 12, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	New GOP's healthcare plan	Nobody will be worse off financially under the Republican Party's new healthcare bill once it's enacted said Health & Human Services Sec. Tom Price. We have a great opportunity to increase coverage over where we are right now. Former Health & Human Services Sec. Kathleen Sebelius tells Todd that she's not exactly sure what the goal is of the GOP's proposed plan, also known as the American Health Care Act. Companies will flee given the uncertainty and the likelihood this quickly becomes a high risk pool. Gov. John Kasich (R-OH) exclusively told Todd that President Trump is very open to compromise on the AHCA and has no doubt he'd be flexible. The New York Times' David Brooks and Helene Cooper, Democratic strategist Stephanie Cutter and CNBC's Rick Santelli joined the round table for additional insight and analysis, where they also discussed Trump's takes on job reports before and after winning office.
March 12, 2017	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	2017 NM Legislative session	KOB's Chris Ramirez was joined by Pat Davis, Executive Director of Progress Now New Mexico and Paul Gessing, President of Rio Grande Foundation discussed New Mexico's budget, industrial HEMP, cigarette tax proposal, recreational marijuana, education, minimum wage and conversion therapy.
March 19, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	President Trump's campaign and Russia; Trump's wiretapping; Budget	Ahead of tomorrow's House Intelligence Committee hearing on Russian interference in the 2016 election, Rep. Adam Schiff (D-CA) told Chuck Todd that at the outset of the investigation, there was circumstantial evidence of collusion between Trump's campaign and Russia. Rep. Schiff called Trump's wiretapping claims "patently false" and said he expects FBI Director Comey to say that definitely in tomorrow's hearing. Sen. Susan Collins (R-ME), a member of the Senate Intelligence Committee told Todd that she doesn't know the basis for President Trump's assertion about being wiretapped. Mick Mulvaney, Director of the Office of Management and Budget addressed the administration's proposed budget and said that "we won't be able to balance the budget this year. Yamiche Alcindor of the New York Times, Robert Costa of the Washington Post, Katty Kay of the BBC and syndicated columnist George F. Will join the roundtable for insight and analysis.
March 19, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Learning summit	Quality New Mexico holds its learning summit next month. It's a chance for you to learn how to take your work or personal life to the next level. Guests included Anne Klein, Quality NM Board Chair and Dr. Gary Sanchez, The WHY Institute.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
JANUARY - MARCH 31
APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
JANUARY 10
APRIL 10
JULY 10
OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ January 1, 2017 TO March 31, 2017

Date Filed:² April 10, 2017

March 26, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Failure to pass the new GOP's healthcare plan; proposed border wall; Supreme Court nominee	What happened is that Washington won, said Mick Mulvaney, Director of the Office of Management and Budget about the failure of the Republican-proposed healthcare bill. Is the Republican Party capable of governing? I know the man in White House is capable of governing. Sen. Mark Warner (D-CA) told Todd he was totally mystified by what Mr. Nunes has said about raw intelligence reports that may confirm that there was inadvertent surveillance of folks connected to Trump's campaign. On Supreme Court nominee Neil Gorsuch, Warner told Todd that he has "not made a decision yet" on whether to filibuster the vote, but he "was not pleased with his answers. Todd spoke Gov. Jerry Brown (D-CA) on the proposed border wall, Brown said, we're not going to bring stupid lawsuits or be running to the courthouse every day. You don't treat human beings like that. NBC News' Tom Brokaw, radio talk show host Hugh Hewitt, POLITICO's Eliana Johnson and MSNBC's Joy Ann Reid joined the roundtable for insight and analysis.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue