Date Filed:<sup>2</sup> January 10, 2018

December 3, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Russia investigation	Sen. Dianne Feinstein told Chuck Todd that what we're beginning to see is the putting together of a case of obstruction of justice. On the Trump White House, the concern rises with the day...there is a kind of instability, unpredictability. It's one issue after the other. Sen Susan Collins said Mueller is making progress. What we do know is there were conversations during the transition period. Corey Lewandowski, former Trump campaign manager and David Bossie, deputy campaign manager to Trump for the general election, joined Todd to discuss their new book, "Let Trump Be Trump". Eddie Glade, Jr. of Princeton University, historian Doris Kearns Goodwin, GOP strategist, Mike Murphy and Danielle Pletka of the American Enterprise Institute joined the roundtable to discuss the week in politics including the future of the Russia investigation.
December 3, 2017	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Priests who sexually abused children	Chris Ramirez, KOB's 4 Investigates took on a huge and controversial challenge. It bothered us that files containing the criminal details of priests who sexually abused children were in secret files. The men were part of a large institution, the vast majority weren't held to the same standards as other pedophiles. Most have never faced their crimes and that the hundreds and hundreds of children, who are now adults, have never received justice.
December 10, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Impeach president; Alabama Senate race; Mueller investigation	Sen Bernie Sanders addressed calls from Tom Steyer and House members to impeach President Trump, tell Chuck Todd, I don't think we're there right now. That's what the Mueller investigation is all about. Sen Tim Scott said that if Republican candidate Roy Moore wins the Alabama Senate race, there will immediately be an ethics investigation. Rep Jim Himes, a member of the House Intelligence Committee, discussed Donald Trump Jr.'s testimony. Democratic strategist Cornell Belcher, David Brooks, New York Times, NBC News' Hallie Jackson and Peggy Noonan, Wall Street Journal joined the roundtable for insight and analysis.
December 10, 2017	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye on New Mexico Public Affairs	Early childhood education and funding	KOB's Erica Zucco was joined by CYFD Secretary Monique Jacobson discussing access to early childhood education and high quality childcare has a big impact on how kids do later in life; even adulthood. That's why New Mexico's Children Youth and Families Department (CYFD) pushed for state funding to get it to families who can't afford it and why CYFD is again asking lawmakers to make it a priority. We talked about the progress made and work that still left to do.
December 17, 2017	9:00AM 60 Minutes	Meet the Press	Mueller investigation; Republican tax bill	White House legislative affairs Director Marc Short addressed speculation about President Trump firing Special Counsel Mueller, telling Chuck Todd there's no conversation about that whatsoever in the White House. When asked if the Mueller's investigation has been compromised Sen. Joe Manchin replied he does not believe that Mr. Mueller had been compromised. Gov. John Kasich told Todd that when it comes to the Republican tax bill, could they do better?
