

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

STATION: KOBF-TV

REPORTING PERIOD: ¹ October 1, 2009 TO December 31, 2009

Date Filed:² January 7, 2010

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
October 1, 2009	5:00AM 38 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Car code device	Car code is a device you plug into your car's computer and a code pops up. Once you have that code, you head to the internet to find out what's wrong with your car.
October 1, 2009	5:00AM 20 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	ATM fees survey	ATM fees for non-customers rose nearly 13 percent this year to two dollars and twenty-two cents. About 72 percent of banks now charge customers a fee for using an ATM from a different bank.
October 1, 2009	12:00PM 20 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Criminal ID program	An immigration and customs program targeting dangerous illegal immigrants will be used in Bernalillo County. The Secure Communities Program helps track arrested illegal immigrants better; in case they turn up on other criminal charges somewhere else.
October 1, 2009	12:00PM 43 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Organ donor software	New computer software is helping people in need of a kidney transplant make it happen sooner. It's called C-Plex and it uses math to help people on a transplant list find the best possible solution. Right now, about 85 thousand people are waiting for kidneys...find a donor used to take three weeks or more. The software can find a donor within seconds.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
October 1, 2009	12:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Grant County Drug Court	Grant County is trying to help drug offenders rehabilitate. The program uses intensive outpatient treatment; home visits and awards to get offenders off drugs. Jail time is only used as a last resort.
October 1, 2009	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New electricity substation in Shiprock	A new electric substation at Shiprock is providing a big jolt to the area; it more than doubles the Navajo Tribal Utility Authority's capacity. Officials say the substation was urgent because of the increased development in the area. The facility can supply power to up to eight-thousand new homes in the Shiprock district.
October 1, 2009	5:00PM 1 Minute, 13 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Albuquerque Public Schools (APS) H1N1 plan	APS says it's only seen mild cases of flu-like symptoms. The district says it has been teaching students how to wash their hands properly and is making sure all school bathrooms have enough soap and paper towels. The district is also sending parents a letter saying if your child does get sick, you don't need a doctor's note for an excused absence.
October 1, 2009	6:00PM 35 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	UFO Museum Plan in Roswell	New design plans show Roswell's UFO Museum could be getting a serious architectural upgrade. Architectural firm Ahearn-Schopfer is proposing building a new museum that would cost an estimated 25 million dollars. Museum directors expect to break ground on the new 30 thousand square foot facility in a year.
October 1, 2009	6:00PM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Angel Fire Night skiing	Angel Fire Resort will light up 50 acres of its mountain for night time skiing and snowboarding this winter. It's the first of its kind in New Mexico. The mountain plans to open December 12 th .

October 1, 2009	6:00PM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Harvesting rain	The City of Santa Fe is encouraging people to use rain to help meet their water needs. A pilot program will let residents develop rain collection systems on their property. Rain collection has been a contentious issue in the west, with opponents saying it infringes on water rights.
October 2, 2009	5:00AM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Drug trafficking training	New Mexico Tech will have a new program that will train officers to deal with Mexican drug cartels. New Mexico Tech is known for educating officers in responding to terrorist incidents ... won nearly one million dollar grant for the program. It will educate officers in New Mexico and Arizona.
October 2, 2009	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Season flu vaccine delay	Big seasonal flu vaccine manufacturers are delaying or reducing the number of doses shipped to the U.S. This partly because of the need to produce millions of doses of the H1N1 vaccine. Some delays have caused doctors to turn away patients or cancel vaccination clinics.
October 2, 2009	5:00AM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Disability Awareness Event at UNM	UNM students will celebrate Disability Awareness month. The events will give people a sense of what it's like to be physically challenged.
October 2, 2009	5:00AM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Grecian Festival in Albuquerque	The year the Annual Grecian Festival in Albuquerque will donate all its proceeds from beer and wine sales to the Nicholas C. Nellos Memorial Fund. The money will benefit at-risk children.

October 2, 2009	6:30PM 18 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	NM Health Insurance Program	Applicants trying to get on the state's health insurance program will soon be put on a waiting list. The state insurance program provides health coverage to 45 thousand New Mexicans. The state says people will be put on a waiting list in an effort to contain costs.
October 3, 2009	6:00PM 35 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Landfill closed in Vaughn	The state environment department is order the town of Vaughn to close its landfill. The department is shutting down Vaughn's landfill because of serious and repeated violations of the solid waste act. The department is also fining the town 214 thousand dollars.
October 4, 2009	10:00AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Will President Obama grant the request from his top commander in Afghanistan for an additional 40,000 troops? If Iran does not back off its nuclear ambitions, will Israel act even without U.S. consent to attack Iran?
October 4, 2009	10:30AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque Mayoral race	Joe Monahan and Jim Baca discussed the upcoming mayoral election in Albuquerque. Republican R.J. Berry was the winner of a recent poll by the Albuquerque Journal. Both discussed the city budget will be the major concern for any candidate who wins the office.
October 4, 2009	10:00PM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	High arsenic levels in Los Lunas	According to the letter from the Los Lunas Water System, recent tests found arsenic in three wells was slightly higher than federal standards allow. The city says it's installing arsenic removal systems in the wells to fix the problem.

October 5, 2009	10:00PM 1 Minute, 37 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Children Youth and Family Department community meeting in Valencia County	The Children Youth and Families Department (CYFD) wants to prevent more children from being hurt or killed, it's holding a big town hall meeting in Valencia County to specifically address the recent violence. CYFD wants the violence to stop and hopes a town hall meeting with school leaders, law enforcement and especially the community will help do that.
October 6, 2009	5:00AM 1 Minute, 49 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Credit card changes	More than half of all credit card holders have been hit recently with sharply higher interest rates, or other fees and penalties. Card companies are sneaking in all sorts of changes before a new federal law takes effect in February.
October 6, 2009	12:00PM 23 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Cocaine vaccine	Yale scientists are working on a vaccine-like treatment for people addicted to cocaine. Researchers say nearly 40% of cocaine abusers have developed cocaine-antibodies after getting the vaccine. However the effects only last about 2 months.
October 6, 2009	12:00PM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Prepaid debit cards	Pre-paid credit cards could be cost you money. Thos reloading debit cards thought to be so effective for keeping you in line with your budget may be costing you money in buried fees. Some prepaid debit card companies charge nearly $10 just to activate it.
October 6, 2009	5:00AM 23 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Health Care Protest	A group calling itself "Health Care For America Now" will gather in front of Blue Cross, Blue Shield New Mexico's headquarters in Albuquerque and the wrap the area in crime scene tape. The noon-time event is one of more than a hundred and fifty coordinated protests throughout the country.

October 6, 2009	5:00AM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Medicare cuts	Democrats in congress are considering cutting benefits or setting higher co-payments, as they try to finance an overhaul to the nation's health care system. The Albuquerque Journal reports all New Mexico Democrats are on board with the plan, arguing too much federal money is going to profit or administrative expenses at health insurance companies.
October 6, 2009	5:00PM 1 Minute, 54 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Albuquerque transit tax	Greg Payne, the city's transit director says if the tax extension does not pass tonight, not only will it force the city to scale back on road construction improvements, but the entire Rapid Ride system would likely be scrapped and that means a lot of city employees out of work.
October 11, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Has President Obama stalled in his ability to achieve any major legislative accomplishments this year? Will the Nobel Peace Prize prove to be a political win for him? What does David Letterman's case say about how Americans' reactions to sex scandals have evolved?
October 11, 2009	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	New Mexico Special Session	Representatives Al Park and Larry Larranaga joined the program to discuss the upcoming special session that will determine where to make cuts in the state budget. One concern is that education will face cuts. Lawmakers say it's unlikely they'll look at any kind of tax increases during this session, but say those could be possible next year.
October 12, 2009	5:00AM 23 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Water system update – Laguna Pueblo	Laguna Pueblo will receive more than three million dollars to upgrade its water system. NM Senator Tom Udall will sign paperwork at the Pueblo's Tribal Administration Building awarding the federal funds to fix the reservation's existing water system which is 40 years old. In August, an outage wiped out water and shut down schools for days.

October 12, 2009	5:00AM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	NM Scene Byways grant	New Mexico's Scenic Byways will get a facelift. The US Department of Transportation is awarding New Mexico 365-thousand dollars for new signs and roadside markers along the promotional tourism materials. There are more than two dozen scenic byways in New Mexico including Historic Route 66.
October 12, 2009	5:00AM 37 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Presbyterian Health Plan Protest in Albuquerque	Dozen of New Mexicans are expected to protest Presbyterian Health Care Services. They say Presbyterian is no longer covering certain treatments for more than one hundred and thirty patients with auto-immune diseases, deeming them experimental.
October 13, 2009	5:00AM 39 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Tres Amigas Project in Albuquerque	NM Governor Richardson is set to announce the Tres Amigas Project in Albuquerque...but it's Clovis that will take the spotlight in this renewable energy project. The superstation will connect all three of the nation's power grids, improving connectivity for wind, solar and geothermal energy and exporting power produced in New Mexico to other parts of the country.
October 13, 2009	10:00PM 44 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Portable swine flu test	A device initially invented to determine if white powder is anthrax may soon help in the fight against H1N1. Researchers at UNM Health Sciences Center along with UC Davis and Sandia National Labs are waiting for FDA approval of a portable device that can detect bacteria or viruses within seconds.
October 13, 2009	10:00PM 16 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	KOB flu hotline	KOB is sponsoring a flu hotline, where you can call in and talk to experts from the state health department on Thursday, 10/14/09. The flu hotline will run from 5 to 7 p.m.

October 14, 2009	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Emergency drill	Los Alamos National Lab is preparing for the worst today. It's joining several state agencies and tribes for a day long emergency preparedness drill at the Lab's technical area 69. The exercise will test notification plans and communication systems in emergency situations.
October 14, 2009	12:00PM 1 Minute, 27 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Student led conferences in Albuquerque	High school students in Albuquerque have two days off from a normal school day. However they do have one mission to accomplish. That's leading a conference with their parent or guardian and their teacher. Students are presenting their progress, showing what their grades are like at the moment and discussing their future interests and dreams.
October 14, 2009	10:00PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Social Security	The Social Security Administration is expected to announce that there will be no cost of living increase next year. President Obama wants to make that up by giving 250 dollars to the 50 million seniors collecting social security.
October 18, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Volunteerism and Community Involvement	As part of the week leading up to "Make A Difference Day", we invited young volunteers on the program to discuss how they've been involved in their communities. One talked about helping Native American population through AmeriCorp; another about work done through UNM and Greg Webb discussed other opportunities that people can learn about through the NM Commission on Volunteerism.
October 18, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews	Political issues	How will President Obama lead the Left to accept a health care bill with no public option? The War over Troops for Afghanistan.

October 25, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque mayor's transition in office	Albuquerque Mayor-Elect Berry discussed staffing issues, including his thoughts on at-will city employees who were recently given raises. We also discussed his thoughts on a number of projects that were planned under the Chavez administration, including the streetcar and downtown arena.
October 25, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews	Political issues	Who's the likely loser in the fiery war between the White House and the far right? Will Talk Radio run the GOP's Presidential Nominating Process for 2012?
November 1, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	H1N1 concerns	Dr. Mack Sewell, State Epidemiologist discussed the most recent developments regarding the H1N1 flu virus in New Mexico. The health department is still encouraging those in high risk groups to get the vaccine.
November 1, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews	Political issues	Obama's Autumn – the consequential choices on Afghanistan and health reform and how they will determine his legacy. One year since election; is Obama's White House as brilliant as his campaign?
November 8, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Veterans Issues	Sec. John Garcia, NM Department of Veterans Services discussed post traumatic stress disorder, and how it continues to affect a growing number of soldiers. Also discussed how veterans are affected by the current economic climate and opportunities for veterans to find jobs.

November 8, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Election fallout; how will Democrats both stick with President Obama and also move to the center? The GOP's strange bedfellow; do the wingnuts run the show?
November 15, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM State budget cuts	NM governor recently signed off on state budget cuts passed during the special legislative session. He also announced mandatory furloughs for 19,000 state employees.
November 15, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Will President Obama suffer long-term image damage from the Afghanistan and Health Care delays? Will Sarah Palin's book tour convert her from Republican Rogue to frontrunner?
November 22, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM Charter school funding	New Mexico's charter schools just celebrated their 10 year anniversary. There are now more than 80 charter schools in New Mexico. Charter Schools are public schools with different academic missions.
November 22, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Obama lost the Independents, what do they want him to do differently? Are there signs of Carteresque weakness in the Obama Presidency?

November 29, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Interview with outgoing Albuquerque Mayor Martin Chavez	KOB Anchor Tom Joles interviewed Albuquerque Mayor Martin Chavez who leaves office on November 30 th . What his achievements were during office and what he plans on doing.
November 29, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	What will President Obama's Afghanistan decision be? Would it be politically smart for President Obama to choose Hillary Clinton as his running mate in 2012?
December 6, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Sgt. Andrew Brandi's work with veterans	Sgt Brandi discussed the work he's been doing with soldiers and returning veterans from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. Sgt Brandi has been working to get more "decompression" programs for returning soldiers and programs that will help them reintegrate into normal life.
December 6, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Can Obama do anything big enough and fast enough to help unemployment? The fame game behind the grifters who crashed the White House State dinner.
December 13, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Albuquerque new city councilors	Albuquerque's new city councilors, Dan Lewis and Michael Cook discussed their impressions of working with the city council so far and their goals for their districts.

December 13, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Barack Obama's big contradictions – war and peace, Wall Street and Main Street and Health Care big and small. The cultural chasm on global warming.
December 20, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	APS school district split	Guests Dan and Klarissa represent opposing points of view in the ongoing debate over whether to split up the Albuquerque Public School District.
December 20, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Highlights of 2009 – Obama's greatest hits and worse moves. Who wins the Chutzpah prize and who's the cad of the year?
December 27, 2009	8:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Top 10 Stories of 2009	Jeff Maher, Stuart Dyson and Nicole Brady discuss the top 10 stories of 2009. The Brandon Craig trial and verdict; the Albuquerque Mayoral race, the Mike Locksley and Elizabeth Lambert UNM sports scandals; the cases of parents who killed their children; Governor Richardson's pay to play scandal; the case of New Mexico's youngest murder suspect accused of killing his father; the death penalty being overturned; the H1N1 virus; the West Mesa buried bodies mystery and the economy.
December 27, 2009	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	When did troubles begin the year of Obama? What will this decade be known as and known for?