

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

Page 1 of 12STATION: KOBF-TVREPORTING PERIOD: ¹ April 1, 2008 TO June 30, 2008Date Filed:² July 9 2008

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 1, 2008	12:00PM 35 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Global Warming Campaign	Former Vice President Al Gore is launching a multi-million dollar global warming campaign aimed at really ordinary Americans to support the cause. The three year project is aimed at educating the public on global warming and pressing for reductions in greenhouse gas emissions.
April 1, 2008	4:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Recycling program in Albuquerque	The recycling program is offering collection bins to residents on the Westside. More than a thousands homes say they're interested in taking part. In order for the program to grow, the city may consider increased garbage fees to build a new recycling center.
April 1, 2008	4:00PM 1 Minute, 57 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Beating eating disorders	A new study suggests the obsession to become thin could be forcing women into bingeing behaviors. Research published warns of a condition described as "binge priming", where people become addicted to fatty foods once they finish dieting.
April 2, 2008	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Mortgage crisis	Senators could be debating a "bi-partisan housing relief measure". It promises to bring help for homeowners at a critical time. The relief plan is expected to mean tax credits for buyers of foreclosed homes, debt counseling for homeowners in trouble, and billions in bonds to let states refinance sub prime loans.
April 2, 2008	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Auto loans	There's another sector of the loan industry that could be driving the economy. Auto lenders say car buyers are struggling to make payments. According to a credit rating agency, the number of Americans who are more than 60 days late on payments has hit a 10 year high. Economists say it's because of increased pressure on consumers in a slowing economy.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS
 FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 2, 2008	4:00PM 44 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Phone spoof scam	Law enforcement wants you to know about a new phone scam that may be impossible to stop. It's called phone spoofing. Using a caller ID system to mimic the information and phone number of someone else. Dozens of websites offer the technology, allowing you to impersonate anyone, which could have you giving out personal information to crooks.
April 2, 2008	5:00PM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Border security	Mexico's Ambassador to the U.S. assures NM Governor Bill Richardson his country will keep soldiers along the border as long as needed. Twenty-five soldiers and Federal police officers are deployed along the border with New Mexico and Texas to try to rein in all the drug violence.
April 2, 2008	5:00PM 44 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Border fence	Environmentalists are up in arms over the Bush Administration's plan to fast track construction on a fence along the Mexican border. Some of the fence will run through environmentally sensitive areas, like the Rio Grande. Environmentalists say it will do more harm than good.
April 3, 2008	6:30PM 55 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Neglected infants	Study released today finds about one out of every fifty infants in the U.S. is abused. The study focused on non-fatal abuse, and found that nearly 30 thousand infants in this country were abused or neglected in the first week of life. Experts say alcohol and drug abuse, poverty, and mental illness may contribute to child abuse.
April 4, 2008	12:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Keep kids active	Researchers at the University of North Carolina say keeping your child active can help protect them from developing early symptoms of heart disease as teenagers. Researchers discovered teens with weight problems, high cholesterol, hypertension and diabetes were six times more likely to have been inactive as children.

April 4, 2008	12:00PM 41 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Unemployment rate jumps	Numbers from the government show more employers are cutting jobs. 80 thousand payrolls were cut last month. In fact, unemployment numbers are at their highest levels in two and a half years. Many financial analysts say that equals a recession, and they say the government needs to call it what it is.
April 6, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	The Clintons' resilience is legendary, could they accept defeat if it comes to that? Could John McCain's age keep him from the White House in November?
April 6, 2008	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	The mortgage crisis	We invited two guests from the NM Mortgage lenders Association to discuss the state of home mortgages in New Mexico, and how the market here is impacted by what's happening around the country.
April 6, 2008	10:00PM 3 Minutes, 2 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Autism awareness	Some experts estimate as many as one in 166 children will be diagnosed with some form of autism. And it's a diagnosis that stays with them through life. People on the "autism spectrum" vary greatly in their abilities and limitations. Some are higher functioning and can live near-normal lives – others won't ever live along. Eastern New Mexico University in Roswell offers college program where students get a vocational evaluation, and learn a trade – like office work, animal care or auto mechanics.
April 7, 2008	12:00PM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New driver's licenses coming to NM	New Mexico's new drivers licenses will roll out later this month and they should make it harder for identity thieves to get a license in someone else's name. The licenses use bio-metric technology to compare your picture to five million other images. The new licenses will also have a bar code on the back ... allowing officers to electronically send citations to court or MVD.

April 7, 2008	12:00PM 42 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Casa Hermosa opening in Albuquerque	Foster Kids become adults now have a place to help them transition into the real world. Youth Development Incorporated officially opened "Casa Hermosa" this morning. The apartments offer kids who are turning 18 and moving out of foster care a place to adapt to life on their own.
April 7, 2008	12:00PM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Higher rent	As the housing market continues its slump, more Americans are choosing to rent, but that's driving up rates in many cities including Albuquerque. Within the past 3 months, landlords raised rents by an average of point-nine percent in the country's largest 79 cities. The latest numbers for Albuquerque show rent has increased about 4 point 4 percent since December 2007.
April 7, 2008	12:00PM 2 Minutes, 10 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Catalytic converter thefts	What's under your car is more valuable to thieves than the car itself. Criminals are targeting a vehicle's catalytic converter, the device used to reduce emissions. A converter contains various metals, which can be sold for hundreds of dollars.
April 7, 2008	12:00PM 17 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Recycling prescriptions	States across the nations are recycling prescription drugs to save money. The program has state governments collect unused pills from individuals, nursing homes and doctor's offices. Pharmacists go through them, check them out and then give them to the poor or uninsured.
April 9, 2008	4:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Land development ordinance in Farmington	A new Farmington city ordinance aims to help land developers build better sidewalks and sewers at new home sites. Under the new ordinance, developers can apply for a low-interest loan that home owners will repay through higher property taxes. Farmington's city attorney says that means a lower up-front price for new homes, and a better deal for land developers.

April 10, 2008	6:30AM 30 Minutes	Crystal Darkness	Meth Awareness	The communities of New Mexico will fight back against Meth. A 30 minute documentary titled Crystal Darkness will air in a roadblock, which means it will be broadcast simultaneously on all stations; KOB-TV, KRQE-TV, WB19, KASA FOX TV and Telemundo. A simultaneous training program will be introduced into all the schools in New Mexico to educate our children. Follow up recovery efforts, fundraising and raising awareness could make this the most important community campaign to hit NM in decades.
April 13, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Can John McCain sell himself as an agent of change this fall? If Obama wins the nomination, will Hillary's female supporters back Barack?
April 13, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Gambling problems in New Mexico	Mr. Blackwood runs a facility, The Evolution Group, designed to treat problem gamblers. They operate a men's and women's house for recovering gambling addicts. We discussed the problem and how people addicted to gambling can get help. We also discussed how casinos devote a small portion of their profits to gambling addiction treatment.
April 15, 2008	5:00AM 1 Minute, 10 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Tax help	Tax Help New Mexico volunteers will be here at Central New Mexico College's "Montoya" Campus from 8AM to Midnight today to help you with your taxes, and the help is free. As long as your income is 40 thousand or less, or you're disabled or a senior citizen.
April 15, 2008	5:00AM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Santa Fe Buses recalled	Santa Fe Public Schools are pulling some buses after they are involved in a nationwide recall. Last week, "Thomas Built Buses" announced a recall after a bus in Michigan was destroyed by a fire ignited by defective fuses. The company also has a recall in place to fix a problem with bus seats.

April 15, 2008	5:00AM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Controversial candy "anti-poleez"	A new candy claims to completely remove the smell of alcohol from your breath. The Swiss breath lozenge is called "anti-poleez". But some Albuquerque police say don't even waste your time buying it, because it would only mask the alcohol for a short time.
April 15, 2008	5:00AM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Single parenting costs	A new study concludes divorce and unwed parenting are costing taxpayers 112 billion dollars a year. The study's calculations are based on the assumption households headed by single females have relatively high poverty rates, leading to more government spending on welfare, health care, criminal justice and education.
April 16, 2008	5:00PM 1 Minute, 38 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Travelers beware	Northern Mexico is in crisis. A surge in killings across the border from New Mexico and Texas has the state department warning Americans to beware when crossing the border. Soldiers have also been deployed to Palomas which sits across the border from Columbus, New Mexico because of rising drug violence there.
April 20, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Will the Pennsylvania Primary end the Clinton-Obama battle, or extend it? Can John McCain win voters under 30?
April 20, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	The New Mexico Independent publication	The New Mexico Independent is a new online publication in New Mexico. We invited the news editor and managing editor on to discuss the format of the new publication, and why it's necessary to have another source of journalism for the state. We discussed how online journalism is replacing many papers, as publications like the Albuquerque Tribune continue to decline and fold around the country.

April 27, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	If Hillary loses the nomination, will her supporters back Barack? Does Obama have to go negative to win?
April 27, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Book "The Pueblo Revolt Massacre"	Mr. Salaz Marquez, author of "The Pueblo Revolt" discussed how history is often interpreted through the eye of the beholder, and how that affects the general public's perception of historical events, and why it's valuable to revisit and reexamine history.
May 1, 2008	12:00PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Presidential ads	The liberal group "Move on Dot org" will start airing an ad in New Mexico today that's critical of Republican John McCain's position on the Iraq war. GOP officials say the ad distorts McCain's comments and falsely suggest he supports a continued war in Iraq lasting 100 years or longer.
May 1, 2008	12:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Hispanic growth	As of last July, there were 45 and a half million Hispanics in the U.S. That's an increase of nearly one and a half million in just one year. With Hispanics now accounting for more than 15 percent of the U.S. population, candidates are paying closer attention to their turnout at the voting booth.
May 1, 2008	12:00PM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	NM Health insurance	The number of New Mexican enrolled in health insurance programs for low income families has skyrocketed. That word from the state humans services department. The department credits its aggressive outreach and enrollment campaign. But a spokeswoman for the agency also says 21 percent of New Mexico's residents remain without medical coverage. That's some 400-thousand people.

May 3, 2008	7:00AM 1 Minute, 52 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Weekend Edition	Gang registry in Albuquerque	It's been 3 months since the City of Albuquerque launched its online gag registry – and there isn't a single gangster on it. Obviously it's not because the gang problem has suddenly gone away. So how do you get on the registry? A judge needs to add the punishment onto the gang banger's sentence.
May 3, 2008	7:00AM 40 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Weekend Edition	Gas tax	Earlier this week NM Governor Richardson said on national TV he's against a 3 month suspension of the Federal gas tax that would give drivers a break at the pumps. Now he says there's no way he would do away with the state gas tax – which is also about 18 cents a gallon because the money is used for road projects.
May 3, 2008	7:00AM 52 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Weekend Edition	Keyboard bacteria	Your keyboard might contain more bacteria than your toilet seat. A British consumer group recently tested 33 keyboards in a London office. Four of them were regarded as a potential health hazard. One keyboard in the test was so filthy; it had five times the number of germs as one of the office's toilet seats. Preventing something like that is as easy as cleaning your keyboard with alcohol wipes.
May 4, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	If Hillary can't beat Obama in Indiana and North Carolina, is the Democratic race over? Will Republicans use Jeremiah Wright against Obama if he's the nominee?
May 4, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Foster care in NM	We talked about the need for foster parents in New Mexico. In Bernalillo County there are over 200 foster homes, but many more kids that need homes. We explained what goes into checking the homes, background check on foster parents and making sure the foster homes are safe.

May 6, 2008	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Chrysler gas	One of the big three automakers takes a big step to help battle rising gas prices. Chrysler is offering a 2.99 a gallon gas price guarantee program for folks who buy or lease new vehicles. Chrysler will do that by providing a special gas card tied to the customer's own charge account. You won't get the 2.99 gas forever; the program will run for three years.
May 6, 2008	4:00PM 29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Superbugs multiplying	Recent studies suggest dangerous bacteria are multiplying so fast, doctors are having trouble keeping up. Harvard University researchers exposed common antibiotics to bacteria similar to those that cause infections in people. Some of the so called "superbugs" could eat most of the drugs considered the best to treat the disease. Doctors say they constantly have to change medicines as bacteria become resistant to the current ones.
May 6, 2008	6:30PM 54 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Internet phone	911 dispatchers in New Mexico are sending out an urgent message to those who use the internet as their phone service provider. "Vonage" is the most popular of those services and when the instructions are followed they will connect you with the 911 center nearest your home without any problem. However some users are forgetting that when they move, they must change their address through their internet phone company.
May 6, 2008	6:30PM 55 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Women and smoking	A new study finds it's never too late for women to reverse some of smoking's deadliest consequences. Researchers at Harvard University found women who quit smoking significantly reduced their risk of death within just a few years of quitting. Researchers say the biggest and quickest decreases were for the risk of heart disease and stroke.
May 9, 2008	5:00PM 2 Minutes, 3 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Marijuana and depression	Some teenagers appear to be using marijuana to fight depression. But experts say they could be making it worse. A new study says kids who smoke pot are also more likely to develop mental illness. The marijuana policy project which advocates legalizing the drug, call the report dishonest. They argue that just because more marijuana users become mentally ill, doesn't prove that marijuana actually caused it.

May 11, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	How will Barack Obama win over Hillary Clinton's supporters? What will be Hillary's next move?
May 18, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential candidate Obama	Can Obama persuade blue-collar Democrats he's on their side? Will Obama choose Hillary as his running mate?
May 18, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	David Iglesias Book – "In Justice"	Former U.S. Attorney David Iglesias joined us to discuss his new book, which tells the story of how he and other U.S. attorneys were fired over what they claim were politically motivated reasons. The book also details the firings of the other U.S. attorneys and how the scandal impacted the U.S. Justice Department.
May 25, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Which candidates will win the race to negatively define the other – Obama or McCain? Will Hillary's charges of sexism deepen the Democratic divide?
May 25, 2008	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Issues for student veterans	We discussed how veterans of pursuing a degree have specific needs and challenges. The goal of the Student Veterans of UNM is to provide resources and support, and to recruit more veterans to take advantage of the education benefits afforded them under the GI Bill.

May 30, 2008	7:00PM 60 Minutes	Pearce/Wilson Debate	Republicans vying for NM Senator Pete Domenici's seat in the U.S. Senate	Republicans Heather Wilson and Steve Pearce are vying for the U.S. Senate seat of NM Senator Pete Domenici.
June 1, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Who will win the battle for independent voters – Obama or McCain? Will Scott McClellan's book hurt McCain this fall?
June 1, 2008	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Upcoming Primary election	Bernalillo County Clerk discussed what changes have been made to make elections run smoother in the county and throughout the state. One big change is that election workers can now start counting early and absentee ballots.
June 8, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Primary election results	Steve Pearce defeated Heather Wilson for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate. There were some upsets in state races – including the defeat of some longtime incumbents in New Mexico's house and senate. We discussed what the winners did right and what the candidates will have to do to win the general election.
June 15, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Can McCain escape the Bush economy by emphasizing tax cuts? Does the "tough guy" image of a President still sell with voters?

June 15, 2008	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Small publishing	We discussed changes in the publishing industry. Almost 75 percent of books each year are published by small companies. The New Mexico Coop is made up of a group of small publishers and authors, that work to help one another and share ideas on how to get their works published.
June 22, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Can McCain beat Obama by painting the Illinois Senator as a tax-raiser? Plus, Chris's thoughts on the political legacy of the late Tim Russert.
June 22, 2008	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Upsets in the NM Primary elections	Eleanor Chavez and Tim Keller, candidates for the state senate joined us to discuss how they both defeated two longtime democratic incumbents in the New Mexico legislature. We discussed what both of these newcomers to the political scene did to win their respective races. Both said they spent a lot of time knocking on doors and talking to voters in person.
June 29, 2008	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	How hard will Hillary Clinton work for Barack Obama's election? What's Obama looking for in a running mate?
June 29, 2008	4:00PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Youth Development Inc.	Mr. Baca is the president of a group that helps kids in New Mexico. YDI, as it's commonly known works with children from the pre-k age, all the way to high school on education and extra curricular activities. We discussed all programs YDI has, including a digital film program to get kids interested in working in New Mexico's film industry.