

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

Page 1 of 12STATION: KOBE-TVREPORTING PERIOD: <sup>1</sup> October 1, 2007 TO December 31, 2007Date Filed:<sup>2</sup> January 9, 2008

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM <sup>3</sup>	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM <sup>4</sup>	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
October 1, 2007	5:00AM 43 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New driver license changes	New requirements today to get a driver's license. You'll have to show two forms of identification instead of one and your old identification won't work. You must have a social security card; a birth or marriage certificate will also work. You'll also need to show two proofs of residence, like a utility bill.
October 1, 2007	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New passport rules	Starting today you must have a passport to fly between the U.S. and Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean or Bermuda. The government temporarily waived the requirement for the summer. Now that the summer crunch is over, and there's more staff to handle new passport requests, proof of an application is no longer enough to get back into the United States.
October 1, 2007	5:00AM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	GAP security breach	If you applied for a job at the GAP between July 2006 and June 2007, your personal information could be in the hands of thieves. The company says someone stole a laptop computer containing social security numbers and other information for about 800-thousand job applicants. The laptop also included information from people who applied for jobs at the company's Old Navy, Banana Republic and GAP Outlet stores.
October 1, 2007	12:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New area code in New Mexico	In a week, New Mexico will be divided, at least when it comes to phone service. Next Sunday, the 575 area code comes online for most of the state. The Albuquerque metro area, Santa Fe, the Four Corners and Las Vegas will all keep the 505 number. The state will give a yearlong grace period for those areas that are changing.
October 3, 2007	5:00AM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New Mexico school searches	A precedent setting ruling this week, allows schools to use evidence seized during illegal searches to punish students. The ruling from the state court of appeals could give school officials more latitude in disciplining students who violate school policies. Those include bans on weapons or drugs on school property.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
October 3, 2007	5:00AM 46 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Recycle your refrigerator	Public Service Company of NM (PNM) wants to pay you to get rid of your old refrigerator. The utility says that old iceboxes is costing you money on your utility bill and hogging way too much energy. PNM says older model made before 1990 can use two to three times as much electricity as models that you would purchase today. PNM will pay you 30 dollars to get rid of it and they'll even come and pick it up.
October 3, 2007	5:00AM 57 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Children's Health Care	A bill that would extend health insurance coverage to millions of children across the U.S. is on the President's desk. But the President has promised to veto it, saying it would extend coverage to children of families making as much as 80 thousand a year. Eight states announced they'll sue the Federal Government if the President vetoes the bill.
October 4, 2007	5:00AM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	NM transportation shortfall	A funding shortfall for road and construction projects is being blamed on the Rail Runner. The state is almost a half billion dollars short and lawmakers worry that a tax increase will be necessary to solve the funding mess. They're also unhappy that the funding shortfall threatens to delay road projects across the state while the 400 million dollar Rail Runner Commuter Service moves ahead without a slow down.
October 4, 2007	5:00AM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New signs on interstate	The state hopes new signs along Interstate 25 in Santa Fe County will stop wrong-way drivers. The "Do Not Enter" signs are now "angled" at the bottom of the I-25 off ramp onto Southbound Highway 285, so that drivers can see them sooner.
October 4, 2007	5:00AM 48 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Pregnancy and fish	The National Healthy Mothers, Healthy Babies Coalition says women should be eating at least two to three servings of fish a week and maybe even more. This group's review of the latest research finds eating too little fish robs women of critical Omega-3 fatty acids, which brain food for both mother and baby.

October 4, 2007	12:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Kraft recall	Kraft Foods say some Baker's Premium White Chocolate Baking Squares may contain salmonella, although the company has not received any reports of illnesses. Each box has six one-ounce squares, and has "best when used by" dates of March 31 and April 1, 2, and 3, 2008, followed by the letters X-C-Z.
October 4, 2007	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	E-Bay warning	E-Bay is sending sellers notices to make sure they don't offer recalled items. The warning comes after recent recalls covering more than 20 million toys, which were pulled from store shelves nationwide. E-Bay is providing links to recall information on product category pages. Sellers who don't comply "could" be kicked off the site and forced to forfeit their money.
October 6, 2007	6:00PM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	NM's new area code	New Mexico's new area code starts tomorrow. The Albuquerque metro area, Four Corners and Santa Fe North through Espanola and East into Las Vegas will all stay 505. The rest of the state will switch to 575. To help people get used to the change, dialing 505 or 575 will work for the next year.
October 7, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM Senator Pete Domenici's retirement	Senator Pete Domenici announced this week that he would not seek re-election to his senate seat in 2008 because he is suffering from a degenerative brain disease. He's held the seat from 35 years and is currently one of the longest serving members of the U.S. Senate. His retirement came as a shock to many political insider and left many wondering who will fill the position.
October 7, 2007	10:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential candidates	Life's a campaign! Which '08 candidates have what it takes to be successful leaders? Will nostalgia for Bill Clinton's Presidency help Hillary win?

October 7, 2007	10:00PM  2 Minutes, 8 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Pharmacy regulations	A new Federal regulation could force a lot of small pharmacies out of business and rural states like New Mexico will be hit the hardest. Medicaid is changing how much it pays pharmacies that fill prescriptions for its patients. For a lot of drugs, Medicaid will start paying pharmacies 30 percent less than they do now. The new pricing plan goes into effect in January. The government will monitor prices to adjust them in March. Many small pharmacies say that the three month period will be enough to do them in.
October 8, 2007	12:00PM  29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at MIDDAY	Albuquerque Police raises	The President of Albuquerque's Police Union tells the Albuquerque Journal the force has fallen behind in pay and benefits compared to other agencies. The union bought a full-page ad in yesterday's Journal that accused Mayor Martin Chavez of sitting on more than two million dollars meant for pay raises.
October 8, 2007	12:00PM  32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at MIDDAY	Meat recall	Sam's Club is yanking ground beef patties made by Cargill from its shelves after reports that four Minnesota children who ate them got sick from E Coli. The meat is sold under the name "American Chef's Selection Angus Beef Patties". It includes all patties sold since August 26 that has an expiration date of February 12, 2008.
October 8, 2007	6:30PM  29 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Preventing campus violence	San Juan College in Farmington, NM will offer free screenings fro stress disorders like depression and anxiety. The idea is to help keep students in school and ensure their safety, in light of campus shootings. College officials say emotional problems can arise from the pressures of school and unfamiliar social situations.
October 8, 2007	10:00PM  25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Hantavirus research	A treatment for Hantavirus may be on the way. Researchers have discovered a natural mechanism in deer mice that protects them from the deadly virus. Mice are the main carriers. Understanding how they defend themselves could lead to new therapies and treatments fro humans.

October 11, 2007	4:00PM 32 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Cold medicine recall	Some popular cough and cold medicines are being yanked from the shelves. The brands include big names like Dimetapp, Pediacare, Tylenol and Robitussin. All of the medicines are over the counter ones for kids two years or younger. The manufacturer is afraid of accidental overdoses.
October 11, 2007	4:00PM 39 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Sex offender proximity law at odds	The City of Farmington wants the state to rethink a sex offender law so they can change where sex offenders can live. Farmington has the highest number of registered sex offenders living near schools of any city in the state. But the city is worried it can't pass an ordinance to keep sex offenders from living a certain distance away from a school.
October 11, 2007	4:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Live at 4	Taos teacher pay raises	Taos teachers will see a little something extra tomorrow, a pay raise. This is the first time level three teachers are getting a pay raise, since the state mandated it. Recently the Taos School District was paying teachers under their old contract, which would have resulted in about a five thousand dollar loss from those particular teachers over the year.
October 13, 2007	10:00PM 44 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Roswell Jazz Fest	Roswell is being invaded this weekend by some real hipsters with an out of the world sound of their own. For the second year, the city is playing host to the Pecos Valley Jazz and Arts Festival.
October 13, 2007	10:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Phantom cell vibrations	Have you ever thought your cell phone was vibrating, but it wasn't? Turns out more and more cell phone users are reporting feeling vibrations even when their phones aren't ringing. Others say they feel as if they're wearing a cell phone when they're not. The new phenomenon is being called "ringxiety". A Stanford University researcher says evidence suggest people feel the phone is part of them and they're not whole without it.

October 14, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Iowa Caucuses	With the Iowa Caucuses approaching, will Iowans vote with their heads or hearts? How did law school shape Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama?
October 14, 2007	10:30AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Impact Fees	We discussed impact fees and how they affect homebuilders and homebuyers in the Albuquerque Metro area. Impact fees are fees a builder pays for infrastructure in a given development. Because Albuquerque has seen a development boom, these fees generate a lot of money for the City of Albuquerque, granted the money is spent on infrastructure including roads, water and sewer lines. We also discussed how impact fees are passed on to homebuyers.
October 21, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential Democratic candidates	Can Democrats win on the economy in '08? Can the '08 candidates escape their late-night comedic images?
October 21, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	"Make A Difference Day"	Make A Difference Day is a nationwide effort to rally volunteers and complete various service projects in hundreds of communities. We discussed the need for volunteers in the community and how their work translates to real capital. People interested in volunteering can contact the city at 311.
October 28, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	War with Iran/Hillary Clinton	Are we on the path to war with Iran? Plus, Hillary asks women to stand with her for sticking with Bill. Will that fly?

October 28, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Climate change impact on New Mexico	Professor Coonrod, University of NM Civil Engineering discussed a study she co-authored with NMSU Professor Brian Hurd. The study uses data from international research on climate change, and concludes that the Rio Grande and New Mexico's water supply will shrink in the coming years. The study examines the impact on agriculture and farmers who would be pressured to sell water rights to cities.
November 1, 2007	5:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	NM new payday loans	New Mexico's new Payday Loan law went into effect today. People who take out the short-term loans often get themselves into financial trouble because of the high interest rates. The law now limits what people can borrow and puts a cap on fees and interest rates. It also requires automatic 130-day payment plans for people who can't pay on time.
November 1, 2007	5:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Aerial water tracking	The Water Authority is getting creative to find homes that may be using too much water. Homeowners with high water use will get letters in the mail this spring showing them how to conserve water.
November 4, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Democrat/Republican presidential candidates	Can Hillary win the Democratic nomination by being vague on where she stands? Will Mitt Romney's Mormon religion prevent him from getting the GOP nomination?
November 4, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Transportation funding	We talked about concern that the Rail Runner is putting other state transportation projects in jeopardy. The state is a half billion dollars short and lawmakers worry a tax increase will be necessary to solve the funding problem. Meanwhile the 400 million dollar Rail Runner commuter train moves ahead without a slowdown.

November 6, 2007	12:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Immigrant health in NM	Illegal immigrants won't be covered by Governor Bill Richardson's universal health care proposal. The plans would be for low and middle-income households without medical insurance. As governor, Richardson has advocated immigrant friendly policies. But his universal health care proposal make no provision for using state money to offer publicly funded insurance coverage options to undocumented immigrants.
November 6, 2007	12:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Border security breaches	A new government report blames the border security breach on staffing shortages and poor management. The general accountability office took a look at procedures at official border crossing between October 2005 and September 2006. It found that while 200-thousand people attempted to get into the U.S. through legal crossing were stopped, 21-thosand still found a way in.
November 6, 2007	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Fasting for your heart	A new study from the University of Utah finds those who fast for one day a month, for at least two consecutive meals, were less likely to be diagnosed with coronary artery disease. Researchers think this gives the body a break from constant exposure to glucose and might allow the body's insulin-producing cells to work better.
November 11, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential concerns	Will likeability Trump effectiveness as we choose our next President? Will the Rudy Giuliani – Pat Robertson alliance last?
November 11, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Adoption and The Heart Gallery	We discussed an upcoming art exhibit featuring photos of adoptable children in New Mexico. The "Heart Gallery" was started as a way to provide professional photographs of children, instead of "mug shot" style that had been used by agencies in the past. We mentioned requirements for becoming an adoptive or foster parent and that there are currently some 200-300 children in New Mexico currently available for adoption.

November 12, 2007	6:30PM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Adoptee records	A report is urging states to allow kids to find out who gave them up for adoption when they've grown up. A leading adoption institute says denying people the right to find out who their birth parents are can lead to severe mental and physical stress. So far, 8 states have some kind of access for adults to look at their own adoption records. New Mexico is not one of them.
November 12, 2007	6:30PM 40 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6:30	Music education	Musical instruments could play a big role in a child's future success. This news comes at a time when budget cuts are forcing schools to scale back on the arts.
November 12, 2007	10:00PM 23 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Cruise charges	Going on a cruise is going to cost you more and you can blame it on rising fuel prices. The world's largest cruise ship operator, Carnival announced it's going to start a five-dollar fuel surcharge per person per day. It will go into effect for cruises departing on and after February 1 st . Most of the other cruise lines have already announced fuel surcharges.
November 14, 2007	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New strain of Gonorrhea	A new strain of the STD gonorrhea has emerged that's resistant to treatment. Now the Centers for Disease Control say it's arrived in New Mexico. Doctors have used a drug called Cipro for years to treat gonorrhea. But now they're reporting more and more cases that don't respond to it.
November 14, 2007	5:00AM 33 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	PNM disconnect moratorium	Starting tomorrow through March 15 th , Utility companies cannot disconnect low-income households. The law is designed to keep the heat on during the coldest months of the year. A new rule this year however exempts anyone not caught up with their bills by tomorrow from taking advantage of the moratorium. PNM says if you're having trouble paying your bills, call them to set up a payment plan or contact the Salvation Army to apply for help.

November 18, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Republican presidential candidates	Is it smart for Republicans to demonize Hillary Clinton? Will Rudy's pro-cop, Law and Order image help or hurt him?
November 18, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Red Light Cameras in Albuquerque	Albuquerque Mayor Chavez announced the formation of a task force to study whether the red light and speed cameras around the city are helping to reduce crashes. Chavez said if the task force finds the cameras aren't helping, he may consider getting rid of them.
November 25, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Iowa/New Hampshire caucuses	Obama is on the rise in Iowa – does he have the drive to go all the way? Can John McCain win New Hampshire?
November 25, 2007	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Book "America's Conscience"	New book "America's Conscience" examines why Americans are out of touch with global affairs, and what people need to do to get involved again. She believes the media covers the wrong stories, choosing stories about celebrities over stories about world affairs that actually have an impact on us.
November 28, 2007	6:00PM 37 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Cyberspace command	New Mexico wants to be home of the agency that will protect the U.S. Government in Cyberspace. The Department of Defense is looking for a location for the new "Air Force Cyberspace Command". The Air Force run center will be in charge of defending all of the government's computer networks. The command center will also monitor Federal money transactions done over the internet.

November 28, 2007	10:00PM 44 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Tougher emission standards	The state will put together emissions standards into place to cut down on air pollution and that means you'll pay more for a new car down the road. The "Clean Cars Program" will go into effect in 2011. Anyone buying a new car then, can expect an average price increase of 300 dollars.
November 29, 2007	12:00PM 48 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Dangerous scans	The very machine that is used to diagnose medical problems could raise your risk of cancer. A report says millions of Americans, especially children, are needlessly getting dangerous radiation from "Super X-rays". Authors of the report say in a few decades, as many as two percent of all cancers in the U.S. might be due to radiation from C-T scans given now.
December 2, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential candidate issues	As the GOP race heats up, can Rudy Giuliani keep his cool? Has Condi Rice served President Bush well as Secretary of State?
December 9, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential candidates and Iran	Does Obama have the "Big Mo" over Hillary? Did Bush ask enough questions about new intelligence on Iran?
December 16, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	With Christmas around the corner, which Democrat has the momentum in Iowa? Would the GOP really nominate Mike Huckabee?

December 23, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Who had the best and worst moves on the campaign trail this year? Plus, what will be the defining event of 2007?
December 30, 2007	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews	Political issues	Which Democrat will seal the deal with Iowa voters this week? What's behind McCain's big comeback? Can he win the GOP nomination?