

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM ³	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM ⁴	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 1, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Healthcare/Trayvon Martin	The political fallout if the court strikes the healthcare law. Trayvon Martin and the age of Obama.
April 1, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Rape Crisis Center of Central NM	We discussed the effort of New Mexico's Rape Crisis Center to help rape victims and educate people about how to prevent this crime. We talked about the hotline people can call any hour of the day, 7 days a week. We also discussed how people can become volunteers and get involved with helping the center. Carol McFall, Director Rape Crisis Center of Central NM, Miquela Garcia, Volunteer Coordinator and Blanca Villani, Prevention Education Coordinator were guests.
April 1, 2012	5:00PM 48 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Divorce Expo	We've all heard of expos for jobs and hobbies, but how about for divorce? The first expo dealing with those issues took place in New York City this weekend. Information and resources were available for men and women who are separated or facing divorce. There were experts on hand in the fields of law, finance, psychology and health to give tips and advice.
April 2, 2012	4:30AM 49 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Driving standards	We've all been taught in driver's ed to hold the steering wheel with both hands at the 10 and 2 positions. But now experts say that's wrong. The one way we were taught is now being called "old school". The Traffic Safety Administration says it's all because of the airbag. They say when it deploys it flings your arms toward your face and that can cause serious injury. So now it's recommended to have your hands at the 9 and 3 positions.
April 2, 2012	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Child Abuse Prevention Month	NM Governor Susana Martinez and the Children Youth and Family Secretary will be in Las Cruces, NM to kick off Child Abuse Prevention Month. Governor Martinez will be reading to children at the Children's Garden Child Development Center. She will also be giving them workbooks about child safety.

1. REPORTING PERIOD:
 JANUARY - MARCH 31
 APRIL 1 - JUNE 30
 JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30
 OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

2. List must be placed in Public File on:
 JANUARY 10
 APRIL 10
 JULY 10
 OCTOBER 10

3. State whether program was PSA, PUBLIC AFFAIRS, NEWS FEATURE, etc.

4. Report ACTUAL ISSUE TREATED, NOT Category of Issue

DATE OF PROGRAM	TIME AND DURATION	TYPE OF PROGRAM	ISSUE ADDRESSED BY PROGRAM	NARRATIVE DESCRIBING HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED
April 2, 2012	12:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New operating hours for the Department of Workforce Solutions	The Department of Workforce Solutions has new operating hours; the call center is now open 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (originally opened 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.). Despite shorter hours, department officials say this change will allow more operators to answer incoming calls during a single shift.
April 2, 2012	12:00PM 34 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Farmington special pre- schools	Farmington Special Pre-school provides children with certain cognitive learning delays a change to be educated with non-disabled children. The school says it's important not to separate special needs children from other children because they see them as role models. Non-disabled children also benefit; they work with students while getting a jump-start on learning in a classroom setting.
April 2, 2012	12:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	American Indians and energy	A new level of power and political influence could emerge from American Indians. The Durango Herald reports tribes around the nation are moving from passive providers of land to developing energy resources. Some are working to develop conventional energy resources, while others are focused on renewable-energy sources to preserve the environment.
April 2, 2012	10:00PM 2 Minutes, 4 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	Neighborhood watch and being armed	Here in New Mexico, anyone can be armed as long as they have a concealed carry permit. But volunteers who patrol local neighborhoods are told to leave the guns at home. A volunteer training is a mandatory 4-hour – spent with the Albuquerque Police Department. Under no circumstances should a neighborhood watch volunteer have a weapon while patrolling; that includes tasers, knives and of course guns.
April 3, 2012	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Clovis jail bond election	The fate of Curry County's troubled jail is now in the hands of voters. Today, voters will decide whether to approve a 9.3 million dollar bond to pay for expansion of the jail. Commissioners say that the expansion will help eliminate past problems including overcrowding and escapes.

April 3, 2012	5:00AM 19 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New college prep program in Albuquerque	The City of Albuquerque and Albuquerque Public Schools (APS) are teaming up to start a whole new college prep program called IB Diploma. It's a world-recognized rigorous academic program for Juniors and seniors in high school. Sandia High will be hosting the program that will begin in 2013.
April 3, 2012	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Taos get grant for its Youth Mentorship Program	A non-profit group in Taos has received a 20-thousand dollar grant to support its youth mentorship program. The program consists of a variety of classes and support groups that mentor and educate the community throughout Taos County.
April 3, 2012	5:00PM 1 Minute, 4 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Bernalillo County offering small business loans	Bernalillo County is offering thousands of dollars in micro-loans for entrepreneurs. More than 655-thousand dollars are up for grabs to help jump-start small businesses in the county. The fund has helped 15 businesses get off the ground since 2010.
April 4, 2012	5:00AM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	The Hungry Project	Members of the Air Force and National Guard in Albuquerque are teaming up with students to help feed the hungry. It's all part of the St. Pius "Food for Kidz" Project. More than 15-hundred people will pack around 200-thousand meals. The will then be distributed to different centers for the homeless. St. Pius students raised more than 23-thousand dollars to buy ingredients for the meals.
April 4, 2012	12:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Cold stress	A new study finds stress leads to the overproduction of the hormone cortisol, which increases the inflammatory response in the body. When a person is exposed to a cold virus, and is also feeling stressed, the increased inflammatory response causes persistent cold symptoms.

April 5, 2012	5:00AM 24 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Water rate hike	The Water Authority already raised the average customer's bill by three to five dollars last year and a similar hike is coming next year. Standard and Pours recently downgraded the Water Authority's bond rating, out of concern over its revenue. Officials say new rate increases are one possible solution to get the bond rating up.
April 5, 2012	10:00PM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 10	New Mexico State University tuition	Students at New Mexico State University will have to pay more for tuition and fees next year. Today, Regents approved an increase of about 107 dollars per semester for in-state undergrads and 400 dollars for out-of-state students. NMSU says the increase is partially due to state funding cuts.
April 7, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Mathews Show	Presidential issues	Obama's re-election odds – what history predicts. Hillary Clinton and 2016.
April 7, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Issues with solitary confinement in jails and prisons in New Mexico	We discussed issues with solitary confinement in jails and prisons in New Mexico. Matthew Coye represents several clients who have been held in solitary confinement and have sued for the mistreatment they endured. Tom Swisstack, manages the Bernalillo County Jail, and says overcrowding is the key problem that leads to inmates being placed in solitary confinement. We discussed how more mental and drug treatment is needed to shrink the prison population and make it a safer healthier environment for inmates.
April 9, 2012	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Great Bus Race in Albuquerque	You can sign up for a unique adventure sponsored by the City of Albuquerque. The Great Bus Race is a scavenger hunt type race . . . where 40 teams will go around the city checking out clues to get to their final destination. The catch, they can only use Albuquerque Ride Buses or they have to walk. The race is set for May 12 th .

April 10, 2012	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Teen violence	New Mexico's Attorney General is working to fight against teen dating violence. The attorney general's office is holding several presentations over the next few weeks dealing with dating violence in Native American communities and sex trafficking and its relationship with teen violence.
April 10, 2012	12:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Albuquerque Public Schools drop outs	There's concern over a federal mandate officials say could lower New Mexico's graduation rate. The graduation rate was 67-percent for the entire state last year. This included students who were pregnant, incarcerated or had special needs and needed more time to finish school. Now, under the mandate those students will be counted as those who have failed to graduate. Superintendent Winston Brooks says that could lower APS's graduation rate by up to 20 percent.
April 10, 2012	12:00PM 47 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Dental x-rays and brain cancer	Getting dental x-rays every year may increase the risk for a common type of brain cancer. Researchers found those who had a bitewing dental exam on a yearly or more frequent basis were two times more likely to have meningioma, the most frequent diagnosed type of brain tumor. Outside experts say these studies remind dentists to take precautions when it comes to radiation exposure and x-rays.
April 12, 2012	4:30AM 21 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Ride along with Bernalillo County Deputies	Bernalillo County Deputies were out trying to convince at-risk kids to stay out of gangs. It's part of a program called "Opt Out". People from other agencies who want to keep teens on the right track joined deputies.
April 12, 2012	4:30AM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Cell phone ban	Drivers in Bernalillo County better get use to not using cell phones in their cars. The county commission just approved a ban on talking and texting while driving. Anyone caught disobeying will get a 100 dollar fine for a first offense.

April 15, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	The secret Presidents' Club: how the formers unite to help the current President across party lines. Will Hillary Clinton run in 2016 and what will she base her decision on?
April 15, 2012	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Book: "A Woman in Both Houses"	Pauline Eisenstadt joined the program to discuss her book "A Woman in Both Houses" about serving time in both the New Mexico House of Representatives and the New Mexico Senate. She was the first woman to serve in both branches of the state legislature. Ms. Eisenstadt's book talks about her entry into politics and the challenges she faced as a woman. She says it's important for women to continue pushing for equality, even in a post-feminist movement world.
April 22, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential candidates	Barak Obama's challenge: six months to make up lost ground with White voters he got last time? It's a celebrity culture, but will Mitt Romney cultivate boring to his advantage?
April 22, 2012	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	NM Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	We discussed an upcoming conference for the deaf and hard of hearing in New Mexico. Corina Gutierrez is deaf and communicated with us using sign language and an interpreter. She talked about the challenges of being a deaf person, and why deaf people need to advocate for themselves and seek resources. Tom Sena who represents a company called Relay New Mexico that helps businesses in New Mexico get the technology they need to help the deaf and hard of hearing community, including special phones and other communication devices.
April 29, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Secrets behind the decision to kill Bin Laden. How much safer are we now? What is the evidence pointing to how Mitt Romney would become a moderate President?

April 29, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Democrat running for U.S. House of Representatives	Eric Griego, Democrat running for U.S. House of Representatives discussed his platform and issues including health care, education, the environment and New Mexico's Labs.
May 1, 2012	5:00PM 31 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Bernalillo County foreclosure help	More than 90% of foreclosures end in default because homeowners don't do anything about it. Bernalillo County is offering free help to keep that from happening. The clinic will be held on the third floor conference room of the Bernalillo County District Courthouse. People should bring all of their foreclosure paperwork.
May 1, 2012	6:00PM 30 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Child abuse agreement in New Mexico	NM Governor, state and city leaders signed an agreement to change the way child abuse cases are investigated in Bernalillo County called the Interagency Agreement. The goal is for local agencies to be able to better work together to provide better communication and support for victims during the investigation process.
May 3, 2012	5:00AM 42 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Pedestrian safety in Farmington	Police in the Four Corners are cracking down on jaywalkers. Farmington Police will be keeping an eye out for pedestrians and drivers who break the law in high traffic areas as part of Pedestrian Safety Month. The Department of Transportation says more than 20 pedestrians have been killed in New Mexico so far this year.
May 6, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political Issues	The week that set the table for the next six months: the disappointing job numbers versus a standout week in foreign policy. Dan Rather and ten presidents; will Joe Biden run for President?

May 6, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Democrat for US House of Representatives	Michelle Lujan Grisham, Democrat for U.S. House of Representatives discussed her work as a county commissioner, and how she hopes to improve education, health care and the economy by working in Congress.
May 7, 2012	12:00PM 21 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Eye pill	There's some good news on the horizon for older people who are losing their sight. A small study shows a vitamin-based pill brought results to patients with macular degeneration. That's when people typically older than 50 start to lose their sight. It's unknown whether the pill would work for those with the dry form of macular degeneration.
May 7, 2012	12:00PM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	School vaccines	Many states have started requiring students going into middle school to get vaccines. A new study from the Centers for Disease Control finds those rules have led to significantly higher vaccination rates of tetanus, meningitis and HPV shots.
May 7, 2012	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	New Wildfire system	We're looking at a new system that will tell people about wildfire activity in their area. We're told people will be able to sign up for the state email notification system, once it's launched. NM Governor Martinez will talk about the work done by HEED (also known as Housing for Emergency Evacuated and Displaced).
May 9, 2012	5:00PM 45 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	U.S. Postal hours	The U.S. Postal Service says it will not close thousands of post offices. Instead it wants to reduce hours at about 13-thousand rural post offices. Under the plan announced today, some rural post offices will only have two to six hours of window service each day.

May 13, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Making history on Gay Marriage and gaining an edge? That Romney bullying story? Why the Obama camp studies the Bush '04 playbook.
May 13, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Democrat running for U.S. House of Representatives	Former Albuquerque Mayor Martin Chavez running for U.S. House of Representatives discussed his efforts to focus on climate change and environmental projects that could help New Mexico's economy. Also discussed his plans for congress, issues including the environment, education, health care and the economy.
May 14, 2012	5:00AM 22 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Deming budget	Jobs are being cut in the Deming Public School District because of budget cuts. Three administrators including two at the District wide level will lose their jobs. Temporary teaching staff, support staff and filling positions are also getting cut. District officials say classroom sizes will increase.
May 15, 2012	5:00PM 27 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Green waste	The City of Albuquerque says its making good use of your green waste. Residents were asked to leave yard waste at the curb for the past two weeks where they collected 142 tons of green waste. Now the Solid Waste Department will turn that waste into compost that will be used in city parks.
May 20, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Which side goes farthest to win? Would Jeremiah Wright Ad hurt Mitt Romney? The majority of American babies are non-white. how will fear of this rapid change affect voting?

May 20, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Democrat for U.S. Senate	Hector Balderas, Democrat for U.S. Senate discussed his work as State Auditor, including the recent scandal in Sunland Park/ We talked about his efforts to fight corruption in New Mexico, and how he would carry that effort to Washington. We also discussed his views on improving the economy and specifically creating jobs in New Mexico.
May 23, 2012	5:00AM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	New jobs in New Mexico	Three companies in New Mexico will soon have the funds to hire more new workers. It's part of the job training incentive program. The program board approved over four hundred thousand dollars in funds to create new jobs at an average wage of 15 dollars an hour. The companies receiving the funds are Lowe's Customer Support Center in Albuquerque, Jack Rabbit Systems in Santa Fe and Plenish, Inc. in Taos.
May 27, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Framing the November choice: will Mitt Romney succeed in diminishing President Obama? Will Obama succeed in disqualifying Romney? Memorial Day: the first since World War II of which neither Presidential candidate ever served in uniform.
May 27, 2012	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Democrat for U.S. Senate	Martin Heinrich, Democrat for U.S. Senate discussed what he's done in his two terms as a U.S. Representative and why he wants to move to the Senate. We talked about protecting crucial jobs related to New Mexico's labs and air force bases. Also discussed environmental issues, the economy and other key issues that congress has been dealing with.
June 1, 2012	12:00PM 26 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Fire restrictions	Today, you'll find different fire restrictions in place all over the state. The areas include Mount Taylor, Magdalena, Mountainair and the Sandia Ranger Districts. Campfires and stoves can only be used in designated campsites, and in picnic areas where grills are provided and smoking will only be allowed in enclosed areas or at developed recreation sites.

June 1, 2012	5:00PM 25 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 5	Air quality	The smoke from the Whitewater-Baldy fire continues to impact communities in New Mexico. Officials say there will be periods of intense smoke around the state and it will continue to impact air quality. People with respiratory problems, children, older adults and pregnant women should stay inside.
June 3, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Political issues	Will Barack Obama risk his biggest asset to take the bark off of Mitt Romney? The Queen's sixty years.
June 3, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Republican running for U.S. Senate	Republicans Heather Wilson and Greg Sowards are running against each other in the Republican Primary. Wilson is a former U.S. Representative and talked about environmental policy and the need to drill for more oil and natural gas. She also discussed protecting jobs at New Mexico's labs and military bases. Greg Sowards discussed his platform. As a Tea Party member, much of his focus is on getting federal spending under control.
June 4, 2012	5:00AM 43 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 Today	Prescription prices	If you don't have a good prescription plan, you may have noticed the price of medicine is going up. Some insurance are now charging people a percentage of the actual cost of the drug. Some of these drugs are often used for chronic conditions like cancer, HIV, MS and kidney disease.
June 4, 2012	6:00PM 1 Minute, 24 seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at 6	Adventure challenge in Farmington	A summer program in the Four Corners area kicked off today. It uses action and adventure to help troubled teens get back on track. The two week adventure camp is put on by the School Resource Officers from the Farmington Police.

June 6, 2012	12:00PM 28 Seconds	Eyewitness News 4 at Midday	Aircare chopper in Farmington	Kids and teens in Farmington are learning all about nursing. They get to wear real scrubs and pretend to be doctors; it's called Kamp Scrubs. Students visited the Aircare Center at the San Juan Regional Medical Center. It's part of San Juan College's six-week series of classes. The college is offering 190 classes in science, music, art, math and even food.
June 10, 2012	4:30PM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Outcome of Primary election in New Mexico	KOB reporters, Stuart Dyson, Gadi Schwartz and Political blogger Joe Monahan discussed the outcome of the recent primary election. They also discussed an investigative report by Gadi Schwartz that exposed allegations of voter fraud in Rio Arriba County.
June 17, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	Watergate legacy playing out in the Obama-Romney campaign. Why the conventional wisdom on Romney's chances has improved.
June 17, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Project Peace Pal and Playworks	Blake Batten and Dr. Robert Fueselier discussed a project they have been working on with a school in Afghanistan. The program teaches students of ages in Afghanistan computer and other skills and connecting kids in Los Alamos with kids there as pen pals. Playworks is a new way of looking at recess. It involves planned activities that are organized and overseen by the older children on the playground. The program gives older kids a chance to practice leadership skills and helps make sure certain kids aren't left out of activities.
June 24, 2012	8:30AM 30 Minutes	The Chris Matthews Show	Presidential issues	New details on Barack Obama's ambition to become President. Why Obama expects unity in Washington. How Obama went from mostly identifying with Whites to finding comfort with his African-American identity.

June 24, 2012	10:00AM 30 Minutes	Eye On New Mexico Public Affairs	Republican running for U.S. House of Representatives	Republican Janice Arnold-Jones talked about what her goals would be in Washington. She talked about keeping energy affordable by drilling for oil and natural gas. She also talked about getting the federal government out of education and allowing states to have more control.