MAIN ISSUE #1: PROGRAM SUMMARY

The Hilton Head Island community is gearing up for a celebration called “350/30” which is the 350th anniversary of the sighting of the Island by Captain William Hilton and the 30th anniversary of the incorporation of the Island as a town. The celebration is sponsored by the Heritage Library, the Town, and several groups. The main event will run from September 30th to 5th and include a 60-mile bike ride, a Town Hall Open House and giant beach celebration. The organizers are encouraging all citizens and interest groups to find a way to participate.
