UNFRIENDING

Social media is supposed to connect people. When an online feud erupted between Jenelle Potter and a newly engaged couple, Billie Payne and Billie Jean Hayworth, the young couple ended up dead. Potter, a 30-year-old inhabited a twisted, social media-riddled world of her own creation. There she created a different persona for herself, befriending complete strangers, engaging in many online relationships. She also fueled hate, feuding with many online, the most bitter of these feuds with Billie Payne and Billie Jean Hayworth. Prosecutors say Potter had a crush on Billy Payne and openly agitated against Billy Jean. The couple was found dead; it is a twisted murder plot which lands not only Janelle, but both her parents, behind bars.

AFFLUENZA

It was a story that made national headlines - Ethan Couch, a privileged 16 year old with a troubled past, killed four innocent people while driving drunk. It was not the accident itself that catapulted the case into the national media; rather it was the teen's defense team's argument that Couch suffered from "affluenza". At the sentencing, a prominent psychologist testified that Couch was a product of profoundly dysfunctional parents, who gave their son too much and never taught him the consequences of his actions. The strategy worked, and Couch did not go to jail - sparking a national outrage over privilege and accountability. Matt Gutman reports.

MYSTERY IN THE MATERNITY ROOM

Zella Jackson Price, 77, was completely shocked to discover the baby she thought died in 1965 at Homer G. Phillips Hospital in St. Louis was very much alive. After the reunion between Zella and her daughter Diane, almost 50 years after, triggered an avalanche of publicity, scores of other mothers who gave birth around the same time in that hospital in the 1960s came forward, wondering if the infants they too say they were told had died, are also alive. FAMILY SECRETS

Three people looking for lost loved ones – Louise, who was left in a New York City phone booth two days after she was born; John, abandoned with a brother in a Bronx apartment when they were babies; and Candy, a teenage mother who promised the baby she was forced to give up that she would someday find her again. Three people haunted by the mystery of their past, on a quest for the loved ones they yearn to know. "20/20" joins them as they turn to Pam Slaton for answers. Slaton, who was also adopted and tracked down her own birth mother, uses investigative genealogy to unlock family mysteries. Elizabeth Vargas reports. Also, a young American hiker named Chris McCandless, the accomplished son of successful middle-class parents, was found dead in an abandoned bus in the Alaskan wilderness 23 years ago and became the subject of the best-selling book and movie "Into the Wild." The question remains: why did he sever all ties with his past, burn or give away all his money, and head into the Denali Wilderness? McCandless' own letters, released for the first time, as well as new and surprising interviews, probe the mystery that still lies at the heart of a story that so many find compelling to this day.
