Program description: This week, On The Record takes a look at the incredible economic impact made by the Final Four Games in San Antonio. Whether it was hotels, restaurants, taxis or t-shirts, the event poured money into the Alamo City. But will the impact continue into the future? We'll discuss how and why that's possible. Also, 2018 marks the 50th anniversary of San Antonio's 1968 World Fair "Hemisfair". That event was a major economic and tourism stimulator as well for the city. We'll talk about how Hemisfair impacted and changed SA. And the Hays Street Bridge controversy could change the way San Antonio "looks" at our iconic structures. Join us this Thursday at 8pm for On The Record with Jim Forsyth.
