She told us about their mentorship program and transition support. Liz also told us about meetings that happen on a regular basis to provide accountability for those with addictions. She told us about their locations where they meet including, Phoenix and Gilbert. For more information on their programs or locations, please visit their website.
February 1, 8, 15, 22 & 29 2020	Meeting Real ID-Act Requirements in Phoenix	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Lisa Farbstein, Transportation Security Administration Spokesperson, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, serving Phoenix, AZ. www.dhs.gov/real-id Description: The REAL ID Act establishes minimum security standards in the United States for license issuance/production and prohibits Federal agencies from accepting for certain purposes driver’s licenses and identification (ID) cards from states not meeting the Act’s minimum standards. Specifically, October 1, 2020 is the deadline for those boarding federally regulated commercial aircraft to have Real ID Act compliant driver’s licenses or other forms of acceptable ID. While a U.S. passport is an acceptable alternative, a Real ID - often distinguished by a star on the card’s face - may be obtained at your local Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) location by providing proof of identity (social security card, birth certificate) and proof of residence documents. To avoid the cost/inconvenience of inability to board a domestic flight 1st, obtain a Real ID at your local DMV office.
March 7, 14, 21 & 28, 2020	Providing Food and Services to Needy in Venezuela	Host: Charrie Slater Guest: Pablo Pirela, President and Founder, Hearts of Hope, Mesa, AZ. www.heartofhopeministries.org Description: Pablo first shared a little about his organization and why he created it. He shared some statistics about hunger in Venezuela and how most children only get one meal per day. He went on to tell us the programs they have specifically for children and how we can support the organization, to fulfill Christ’s commands. To learn more or to donate, please visit the website.

February 29, 2020	Biblical secrets to life, love and contentment are important to marriage relationships. (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Shaunti Feldhahn, Social Researcher, Author, and Speaker (Norcross, GA). www.shaunti.com Description: Shaunti Feldhahn shared surprising results from years of research on marriage relationships. Her research found the divorce rate is not even close to 50% of couples – it was much less--and 71% of couples are still married to their first spouse. She explained most marriage problems are not related to the “big ticket” or more severe issues, but occur because the husband and wife are trying hard in the wrong area – from not understanding what is most important to the other – and that they really do care about each other.
March 7, 2020	How to successfully navigate through the 2020 Tax Season. (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Patricia Wagner, CPA, Founder, Owner and General Partner, Wagner & Associates (Rising Sun, MD). www.wagner-spa.com Description: Patricia Wagner explained terminology typically used when completing tax returns, what the purpose is for filing taxes, who is required to file a tax return, and when the deadline is this year to have them completed and submitted/mailed. Patricia shared how filing taxes has changed since the current administration’s Tax Reform, what happens when a person receives social security, and how giving to a charitable Christian organization can impact your taxes.
