

WKNZ, WNKZ, WNJH, WNJB Programs & Issues 1st Quarter
January, February, March 2024

Issue: Children in need of food and education in the Dominican Republic

February 6 @10:00 - 11:00 am

Program: "The Midday Show"

The Bridge Partnered with Crossover CUPS Mission. We made listeners aware of the work that CUPS is doing in the Dominican Republic, and we helped them become aware of the lack of education and what they could do to help.

Co-host Chris Scotland and other at The Bridge spoke with Jack Eason, of Crossover CUPS Mission, to spark interest in our listeners to get involved in and help out those in the DR.

Issue: Education options for students in Southern Delaware

February 8 @ 7:00a - 8:00 a

Program: "The Morning Show with Denise and Chris"

Morning Hosts, Denise Harper and Chris Scotland, spoke with faculty of Delmarva Christian Schools to discuss quality education options for parents and students in Southern Delaware.

Spotlighting the arts, sports, and academic education. With DCS these students will not only be a part of a quality education to enrich themselves, but will learn to also be productive members of society as they are encouraged to work in the community, both locally and abroad.

Issue: Public awareness of the work at Dover Air Force Base Mortuary Division

March 20 @ 5:35pm 3:50 runtime & March 21 @ 7:15am 3:50 runtime

Program: "The Afternoon Show With Mark Dickey" & "The Morning Show with Denise and Chris"

Host Mark Dickey spoke to Chaplain Kilgore about the work at the DAFB as they work with the families of dignified transfers. Mark also was able to meet Blaze, the emotional support dog that Chaplain Kilgore has to help families, and also airmen. For a lot of the airmen this is their first time to deal with death. Blaize has the ability to sense who is in need of comfort and is trained to sit with that person to help them through their time.

Co-Host of the morning show, Chris Scotland, was also able to talk about what he learned, and played a portion of the interview on the Morning show as well.