

QUARTERLY ISSUE/PROGRAM TOPIC REPORT
 APRIL TO JUNE 2019
 FOR RADIO STATIONS LICENSED TO UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN BOARD OF REGENTS

News and Classical Network: WERN (FM), WHWA (FM), WHND (FM), WHRM (FM), WHSA (FM), WPNE (FM), WSSU (FM), and WSSW (FM)

Ideas Network: WLBL (AM/FM), WHAA (FM), WHAD (FM), WHBM (FM), WHDI
 (FM), WHHI (FM), WHLA (FM), WHSF (FM), and WHWC (FM)

During the period, this station, as part of the network that makes up Wisconsin Public Radio, has served the public interest by producing and broadcasting diverse content which addresses national, statewide and regional issues. The following is a list of some of the produced or acquired programming or news stories aired in response to areas of concern to listeners served by Wisconsin Public Radio.

ISSUES OF COMMUNITY CONCERN:

- AGRICULTURE
- ECONOMY
- EDUCATION
- ENVIRONMENT
- HEALTHCARE
- POLITICS

Ideas Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List April to June 2019
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
With the national spotlight on immigration, the stakes are high in the dairy industry. A sociologist explains how dairy farmers and migrant workers came to rely on each other and lays out the risks they take to sustain the arrangement. Then we talk to a journalist about how this relationship has changed under Donald Trump's presidency. (Duration: 43 min, 31 sec)	The Morning Show	4/2/19 @ 8:30 am
Farmers across the state and nation are gathering to discuss solutions to the financial strains on the dairy industry. Learn how Wisconsin's farmers are faring	The Morning Show	4/9/19 @ 6:30 am and what changes they hope to see. (Duration: 22 min, 27 sec)

A new county program is using $750,000 to help small farms in Wisconsin survive even through massive flooding. Learn about the incentives given to farmers who join the program and how it's protecting lands for future development. (Duration: 11 min, 32 sec)	The Morning Show	5/1/19 @ 6:15 am
The latest agriculture census shows a bright spot in Wisconsin's ag sector: organic farming. A look at that trend and an increase in the number of women in agriculture in 2017. (Duration: 9 min, 45 sec)	Central Time	5/8/19 @ 3:15 pm
The ongoing trade war between the United States and China has some industry experts concerned about the future of dairy in Wisconsin. Learn about current milk prices and how the industry is faring in the current economic climate. (Duration: 12 min, 20 sec)	Central Time	5/16/19 @ 3:45 pm
A California court recently awarded more than $2 billion to a family over claims that a weed killer causes cancer. New figures show the same herbicide is widely used by Wisconsin farmers. (Duration: 7 min, 46 sec)	The Morning Show	5/21/19 @ 6:30 am
Pres. Trump has announced a second round of aid for farmers as the US-China trade war continues. Learn how the money will be dispersed and the overall economic picture for Wisconsin farms. (Duration: 20 min, 58 sec)	Central Time	5/28/19 @ 4 pm
Soggy fields continue to stall many Wisconsin farmers from planting, leaving the corn crop weeks behind schedule and some farmers in a risky position. (Duration: 9 min, 27 sec)	The Morning Show	6/4/19 @ 7 am
The secretary of Wisconsin's Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection talks about how ongoing trade disputes are affecting farmers and consumers in the state. We also talk about resources available to farmers after a long, wet spring. (Duration: 10 min, 59 sec)	Central Time	6/10/19 @ 3:30 pm

Two U.S. senators put forth new legislation that would allow schools to serve more milk options in school lunches, including whole milk. We discuss the context of the bill and impacts it could have on Wisconsin dairy farmers and students. (Duration: 21 min, 14 sec)	Central Time	6/18/19 @ 5 pm
ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Assumptions about the importance of strategic planning, feedback, and workplace culture shape how many managers approach their jobs. But what if those assumptions were actually myths? A talk with the author of a book urging workplaces to shake free of the past and put the focus on people. (Duration: 21 min, 26 sec)	Central Time	4/2/19 @ 3 pm
A new analysis from UW-Extension shows that economic inequality has been rising in Wisconsin over the last three decades. Learn which parts of the state are seeing the most inequality and what it means for the state's economic health. (Duration: 11 min, 51 sec)	Central Time	4/3/19 @ 3:15 pm
The United Nations predicts that by 2050, two out of every three people will likely to be living in cities or other urban centers. And Census data here at home suggests more and more Americans are moving to cities, as well. These trends can mean big challenges for small towns across America. But there's also room for opportunity, as well. Our guest lays out his ideas for not only attracting tourists to small towns, but also making them incredibly desirable places for people to live and work. (Duration: 10 min, 53 sec)	Central Time	4/8/19 @ 4 pm
Wisconsin's Secretary-designee of the Department of Workforce Development joins us for an interview. We talk about how the state is looking to attract workers to Wisconsin, the low unemployment rate, efforts to boost the minimum wage, job creation and much more. (Duration: 22 min, 35 sec)	The Morning Show	4/17/19 @ 7:30 am

Drivers for the ride-hailing companies Uber and Lyft are striking over working conditions and wages. This comes as Uber is preparing for its initial public offering. Learn the details about the strike and examine the state of gig workers with a digital business expert. (Duration: 22 min, 33 sec)	The Morning Show	5/7/19 @ 6:30 am
With historically low unemployment, businesses across Wisconsin are facing fierce competition for workers. And the pressure might grow in the coming decades with broader demographic changes. A public policy analyst explains how migration could prove critical to the state's economic future. (Duration: 43 min, 31 sec)	The Morning Show	5/7/19 @ 8 am
Fueled by easy credit, baby boomers have built their later-in-life dream homes. But now they've reached an age where its time to sell and buyers aren't showing up. A Wisconsin economist breaks down this growing problem of bigger homes and how it's impacting the housing market. (Duration: 22 min, 32 sec)	The Morning Show	5/8/19 @ 7:30 pm
In the wake of the Great Recession, many of the nation's rural areas have seen declining job opportunities and population loss. Many policymakers are looking to reverse the decline, but our guest says it's time to accept that most rural areas won't grow in the coming years, and it's time to adapt to this new economic reality. (Duration: 21 min, 2 sec)	The Morning Show	5/9/19 @ 6 am
Though some blame their love of avocado toast on their financial woes, our guest says Millennials were actually robbed of the chance to carve out a prosperous life for themselves in America. He explains why and how the Baby Boomers are to blame, and what Millennials must do to reclaim their futures. (Duration: 43 min, 28 sec)	The Morning Show	6/5/19 @ 8 am

Construction is well underway for Foxconn Technology Group's site in Mount Pleasant. A public hearing was held regarding the height of the Generation 6 manufacturing facility the company needs for production. (Duration: 20 min, 58 sec)	The Morning Show	6/19/19 @ 6 am
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
A new report says that the teacher shortage is even more severe than previously thought, especially when the qualifications of existing teachers are factored into the equation. A look at the root causes of this shortage, the consequences of fewer qualified teachers and potential solutions. (Duration: 33 min, 14 sec)	The Morning Show	4/1/19 @ 6 am
State voters approved a majority of referendum requests posed by school districts across Wisconsin. Learn more about the projects approved and why school districts are turning to referendum questions to get funding. (Duration: 9 min, 55 sec)	Central Time	4/4/19 @ 4:15 pm
UW-Stevens Point says it won't be eliminating major programs like history, geology and art, after announcing planned cuts last year. Find out what led to the change of course and how the school plans to keep costs down in the future. (Duration: 6 min, 45 sec)	Central Time	4/11/19 @ 3:45 pm
When it comes to college admissions, the stakes are high — so high, that parents have paid thousands of dollars to have their children's test scores doctored or falsified, as was revealed by the high-profile sting "Operation Varsity Blues." A look at the role that assessments like the ACT and SAT play in the college admissions process. (Duration: 22 min, 33 sec)	The Morning Show	4/16/19 @ 6:30 am
A program at West Salem High School in the La Crosse area is giving students a chance to get hands on experience in the automotive and diesel mechanic industry. Hear from one of the program's	Central Time	5/8/19 @ 4:15 pm coordinators and a student in the class. (Duration: 9 min, 33 sec)

State auditors released new data examining tuition revenue within the UW System. It revealed in-state student enrollment has dropped significantly over the past nine years. Learn what's driving the decline and how out-of-state students are making up the difference. (Duration: 22 min, 30 sec)	The Morning Show	5/13/19 @ 7:30 am
In the spirit of life-long learning, we're teaming up with WHYsconsin and going back to school for a live broadcast from Mineral Point Elementary School to explore the history of Wisconsin. We'll learn all about the people, places and events that shaped Wisconsin's past, and made it the great state it is today. (Duration: 1 hr, 12 min, 58 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	5/15/19 @ 11 am
The first Wisconsin School Garden Day is May 23. We talk with two experts about the popularity of school gardens and what they provide for students and staff. (Duration: 37 min, 56 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	5/16/19 @ 11 am
Learn about an AmeriCorps service award winner's work on college readiness programs, advocacy for students of color at UW-Eau Claire and involvement in Wisconsin's Hmong community. (Duration: 22 min, 32 sec)	The Morning Show	6/6/19 @ 6:30 am
The school year is wrapping up and students find themselves with more time for media including TV, games and apps. We learn the do's and don'ts for screen time and electronic media. We also discuss how to responsibly interact with digital technology and how it can enhance learning for kids and adults. (Duration: 43 min, 7 sec)	The Morning Show	6/11/19 @ 6 am
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE

The Great Lakes are at risk of higher temperatures, fluctuating water levels and more if climate change continues at its current rate, according to a new report by Midwestern scientists. Hear details from one of the researchers and what this means for Wisconsin. (Duration: 21 min, 31 sec)	The Morning Show	4/4/19 @ 7:30 am
For many of the people leaving Central American countries like Guatemala to migrate north, climate change is tied to their decision in one way or another. Hear how changing climate conditions are driving immigration into the United States. (Duration: 11 min, 27 sec)	Central Time	4/15/19 @ 4 pm
We explore the past, present and future of Wisconsin's environmental legacy on Earth Day with former U.S. Sen. Russ Feingold and environmentalist Tia Nelson, daughter of environmental activist and Wisconsin native Gaylord Nelson. (Duration: 22 min, 28 sec)	The Morning Show	4/22/19 @ 6:30 am
Management of the Great Lakes brings together numerous stakeholders, including some of Wisconsin's tribes. Hear about a Native American approach to conservation on Lakes Superior and Michigan. Plus we take you on location in Douglas County to talk about sea lampreys invading the Great Lakes. (Duration: 22 min, 59 sec)	The Morning Show	4/25/19 @ 8 am
According to the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, the impact of global warming will continue to worsen without radical, worldwide change. Learn about why society needs to adopt a new mindset, embracing serious institutional change in order to survive and a young climate activist's view of the future. (Duration: 43 min, 34 sec)	The Morning Show	5/1/19 @ 7 am
Wisconsin has a long and storied logging history. Indigenous people have been cultivating the forests for generations. Settlers build towns and industries off the timber harvest. A Wisconsin native joins us to share what he's learned about sustainable forestry from working the forests of South America and northern Wisconsin and how we can enhance the	The Morning Show	5/2/19 @ 6 am

health of our ecosystems and the quality of the wood. (Duration: 21 min)
As lawmakers debate extending a state land conservation program, we hear a perspective from a state senator who is arguing against the move. (Duration: 10 min, 34 sec)	Central Time	5/3/19 @ 3:45 pm
We are celebrating Drinking Water Week by talking about how vital it is to our everyday lives. We also look at ways you can help protect and preserve this valuable resource. (Duration: 37 min, 24 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	5/8/19 @ 11 am
Solar energy is getting cheaper and being used more. Learn why and what the future may hold for this alternative energy source. (Duration: 34 min, 53 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	6/4/19 @ 11:45 am
The U.S. Department of Agriculture's hardiness zone maps have helped gardeners know when they can start planting after the winter cold for decades. Learn about the history of the maps and how climate change is affecting them. (Duration: 10 min, 14 sec)	Central Time	6/5/19 @ 3:15 pm
HEALTHCARE	PROGRAM	DATE
A number of programs at UW-Madison are working to reduce the disparities in health outcomes in rural parts of Wisconsin. We discuss a new documentary from Wisconsin Public Television and UW-Madison that's highlighting those programs and the challenges of providing quality care in rural Wisconsin. (Duration: 10 min, 11 sec)	Central Time	4/8/19 @ 4:15 pm

Statistics on people with autism seem to indicate that it is much more common in boys and men than in girls and women. But recent research indicates that the difference might not be as big as previously thought. We'll find out how autism can look different and why some say the experience of women with autism needs to be considered. (Duration: 22 min, 27 sec)	Central Time	4/11/19 @ 4 pm
A federal appeals court ruled that Wisconsin is out of all the lawsuits targeting the Affordable Care Act. A political science professor explains what this means and the legal challenges the ACA still faces. (Duration: 20 min, 59 sec)	The Morning Show	4/15/19 @ 7 am
Back pain is one of the most common health complaints in the U.S. We focus on low back pain and learn about different causes and which treatments have the best results. (Duration: 1 hr, 13 min, 31 sec)	The Larry Meiller Show	4/15/19 @ 11 am
The Republican chairs of the state's Joint Finance Committee say they're removing 131 of Gov. Evers' budget proposals, including Medicaid expansion. Find out where this leaves the budget process and hear how Evers is appealing to the public to pressure lawmakers on the Medicaid issue. (Duration: 11 min, 3 sec)	Central Time	5/2/19 @ 3:45 pm
Spring allergies are in full swing. An allergist discusses why it seems like more people suffer from allergies than they used to, how there may be such a thing as being too clean and how to deal with allergy symptoms. (Duration: 34 min, 1 sec)	The Morning Show	5/6/19 @ 6:15 am
Pres. Trump recently announced a new rule that allows health care workers and insurers to opt out of services they say violate their religion or morals. We discuss the provisions of the so-called "conscience clause" and the legal activity against the move. (Duration: 21 min, 47 sec)	Central Time	5/6/19 @ 3 pm

A new bipartisan bill in the Wisconsin legislature would block parents from opting out of vaccinating their children for personal reasons. We talk to the sponsor of the bill about the goal of the legislation. (Duration: 9 min, 11 sec)	Central Time	5/7/19 @ 3:30 pm
You might be surprised to learn that sunscreen actually shouldn't be your first line of defense against the sun. Summer is here, and with it come the looming threats of sunburn and skin damage. (Duration: 33 min, 59 sec)	The Morning Show	6/10/19 @ 6:16 am
Methamphetamine, or meth, has become a growing concern across Wisconsin. Last year, about one in every five drug cases at the state crime lab involved meth — more than heroin and fentanyl combined. An emergency room doctor and drug investigator discusses meth and the toll it's taking. (Duration: 34 min, 3 sec)	The Morning Show	6/13/19 @ 7:15 am
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE
Three rulings regarding lawsuits against Wisconsin's December lame duck legislation came down last week. Learn where the laws now stand and how the rulings are impacting some government appointees. (Duration: 22 min, 31 sec)	The Morning Show	4/1/19 @ 7:30 am
Across the country, young voters turned out in greater numbers for the 2018 midterms than any other point in more than two decades, according to research from Tufts University. A look at efforts to boost young voter turnout in Wisconsin. (Duration: 11 min, 49 sec)	Central Time	4/1/19 @ 4:15 pm
House Democrats launched what Politico called a "1-day investigative assault" on Pres. Trump, moving to obtain his tax returns, financial records and getting a step closer to issuing a subpoena for the full Mueller report. We get analysis of congressional oversight in the Trump era and discuss the role it plays in our system of checks and balances. (Duration: 21 min, 34 sec)	Central Time	4/5/19 @ 4:30 pm

After the spring election, Wisconsin candidates identifying within the LGBTQ community are making headlines. Does this mean a progressive sweep is coming? We talk with an LGBTQ studies instructor about whether these developments are breaking the glass ceiling in politics. (Duration: 22 min, 35 sec)	The Morning Show	4/10/19 @ 7:30 am
The pool of democrats running for president next year has expanded to 22. We talk to a political scientist about the forces luring a record number of candidates to the campaign trail and whether they're the same forces that landed 10 Democratic candidates on the 2018 primary ballot for the Wisconsin gubernatorial race. (Duration: 9 min, 29 sec)	The Morning Show	5/6/19 @ 6 am
Democrats are ramping up their efforts to get their hands on the full, unredacted version of special counsel Robert Mueller's report, but Pres. Trump is now invoking executive privilege to keep the information private. We break down the latest twists and turns in the story, including efforts to hold the U.S. Attorney General in contempt of Congress. (Duration: 22 min, 34 sec)	The Morning Show	5/9/19 @ 7:30 am
Bills that would ban abortions after the detection of a fetal heartbeat, or criminalize the procedure altogether, are being considered and passed around the country. We look at how abortion became a partisan issue and the lobbying forces that shape our political conversations about abortion today. (Duration: 21 min, 38 sec)	Central Time	5/17/19 @ 4:30 pm
New legislation introduced by Wisconsin Democrats would automatically register residents to vote in the state. Hear how the legislation might impact voter behavior. (Duration: 15 min, 24 sec)	Central Time	5/21/19 @ 4:30 pm
A new poll shows that 43 percent of Americans say socialism would be good for the country. Learn what socialism truly is, how people's definition of it has changed, why its appeal is growing and how it's affecting the U.S. presidential	Central Time	6/3/19 @ 4:30 pm

race. (Duration: 16 min, 33 sec)
To understand Foxconn, and the company's plans in Wisconsin, it can be helpful to look back at some of the big puzzle pieces. We discuss some of the complexities and interests of the countries involved in the project, as well as powerful business and political leaders taking part. (Duration: 11 min, 32 sec)	Central Time	6/12/19 @ 3:15 pm

NPR/Classical Music Network Quarterly Issues and Programs List April to June 2019
AGRICULTURE	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin farmers with property damage or livestock losses from winter weather could qualify for low-interest loans from the federal government. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	4/5/19 @ 8 am
Wisconsin farmer groups are coming together to ask for an end to increased tariffs and trade uncertainty. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	4/23/19 @ 5 am
Wisconsin dairy producers and professors are applauding legislation that would invest almost $8 million in dairy research at University of Wisconsin schools. (Duration: 44 sec)	BBC Newshour	5/1/19 @ 3pm
Wisconsin corn growers are facing a tough planting season, thanks to continued wet weather. Farmers who haven't planted yet could lose out on crop insurance or other federal programs. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	5/29/19 @ 5 am
The state Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection is warning farmers against borrowing from unregulated lenders this growing season. Years of low commodity prices mean some producers aren't able to secure operating loans from banks or farm credit agencies. (Duration: 45 sec)	Morning Edition	6/6/19 @ 6 am

ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
Wisconsin continues to add renewable energy jobs, despite a national slowdown last year. That's according to a new Clean Jobs Midwest report. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	4/10/19 @ 8 am
Preliminary numbers from the federal Bureau of Labor Statistics reports Wisconsin's unemployment rate remains at 2.9 percent. (Duration: 38 sec)	Morning Edition	4/18/19 @ 5 am
Harley-Davidson's 115th anniversary celebration and the Milwaukee Brewers playoff run helped Wisconsin's tourism industry generate $21.6 billion last year. The greater Milwaukee area accounted for more than a quarter of the tourism in the state. (Duration: 37 sec)	Morning Edition	5/6/19 @ 5 am
Wisconsin is lagging behind neighboring states in attracting highly educated workers. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	5/20/19 @ 5 am
Ginseng is a $30 million per-year industry for central Wisconsin farmers. But an escalating trade war means they're having trouble finding buyers in the world's biggest market: China. A panel discussion in Wausau looked at the impact of trade tensions on agriculture. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	6/19/19 @ 5 am
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
Voters across Wisconsin have authorized school districts to increase their spending by nearly $700 million for construction projects and operating expenses. (Duration: 43 sec)	Morning Edition	4/3/19 @ 8 am
Gov. Evers' budget proposal includes setting aside $50,000 to study developing a state authority to refinance student loans. Most recent federal data shows people in Wisconsin have more than $24 billion in student loan debt. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	4/16/19 @ 5 am
Wisconsin lawmakers are seeking to protect students from feeling shamed when their school lunch accounts go delinquent. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	5/19/19 @ 6 am
Technology was supposed to transform learning but in some ways it can be an impediment. Especially in large lecture halls where it can be easy to tune out and play a video game or watch a movie. To prevent that, at least one school in the Big Ten is banning certain websites in classrooms. But UW-Madison is trying to keep students' attention another way. (Duration: 3 min, 44 sec)	All Things Considered	5/29/19 @ 4 pm

Marquette University will join a handful of schools in the state to no longer require ACT or SAT scores from applicants. (Duration: 48 sec)	Morning Edition	6/12/19 @ 8 am
ENVIRONMENT	PROGRAM	DATE
The Wis. Department of Natural Resources announced the St. Louis River hit a milestone in the decades-long cleanup of pollution there. The river is among the most contaminated sites on the Great Lakes. But scientists have confirmed a low rate of fish tumors in the river. (Duration: 47 sec)	Morning Edition	4/1/19 @ 8 am
The Wis. Natural Resources Board approved public hearings on a proposed rule that would create a process for setting site-specific phosphorus standards on Wisconsin lakes and rivers. (Duration: 46 sec)	Morning Edition	4/10/19 @ 5 am
Xcel Energy announced it plans to shut down its two remaining coal plants in the Upper Midwest a decade earlier than expected. The plan impacts three plants near the Twin Cities. (Duration: 47 sec)	All Things Considered	5/20/19 @ 4 pm
Recently released emails show staff with the Environmental Protection Agency objected to limiting areas of southeastern Wisconsin that would fall under tougher standards to reduce smog. The emails were obtained by environmental groups including Clean Wisconsin. (Duration: 47 sec)	BBC Newshour	5/28/19 @ 3 pm
A judge has ruled in favor of Racine's bid to withdraw up to 7 million gallons of water a day from Lake Michigan for Foxconn. (Duration: 50 sec)	All Things Considered	6/11/19 @ 4 pm
HEALTHCARE	PROGRAM	DATE
A company that operates eight nursing homes in Wisconsin is under new management while sorting out its financial problems. This is becoming a trend in Wisconsin as nursing home operators struggle with the state's Medicaid reimbursement rate. (Duration: 49 sec)	Morning Edition	4/8/19 @ 5 am
Wisconsin is no longer part of a federal lawsuit to overturn the federal Affordable Care Act. (Duration: 50 sec)	BBC Newshour	4/9/18 @ 3 pm
State health officials say Wisconsin is at risk for a measles outbreak. About 15 percent of residents haven't received the full measles, mumps and rubella vaccine. (Duration: 41 sec)	All Things Considered	5/10/19 @ 5 pm

Next year the state of Wisconsin will start covering weight loss surgery for public employees. (Duration: 39 sec)	Morning Edition	5/24/19 @ 5 am
The new head of the state Democratic Party says healthcare will be "front and center" in Democratic campaigns next year. (Duration: 47 sec)	All Things Considered	6/17/19 @ 4 pm
POLITICS	PROGRAM	DATE
A state Appeals Court has sided with Gov. Evers in a dispute over his decision to rescind several appointments made by former Gov. Walker. (Duration: 42 sec)	Morning Edition	4/9/19 @ 5 am
Another lawsuit has been filed challenging Wisconsin's voter I-D law. The latest case is focused on the law's requirements for student voters. (Duration: 46 sec)	BBC Newshour	4/23/19 @ 3 pm
Vice Pres. Pence was in Altoona drumming up support for a new trade deal between the United States, Mexico and Canada. (Duration: 42 sec)	All Things Considered	5/16/19 @ 4 pm
One of Wisconsin's Democratic congressmen stopped short of calling for impeachment hearings in the wake of new public comments by former special counsel Robert Mueller. But Rep. Ron Kind said he's extremely concerned about the prospect of foreign interference in the 2020 election. (Duration: 46 sec)	All Things Considered	5/31/19 @ 5 pm
Prison reform advocates are hailing Gov. Evers for reinstating the state's pardon review board. It'll be the first time in eight years that pardons would be considered by the governor. (Duration: 41 sec)	Morning Edition	6/13/19 @ 6 am