Apostle J. K. Rodgers, Pastor Luvirt Parker, Overseer Renea Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Jr., Bishop Demitius Davenport. Is it okay to send my kids to public school? I would say, not only is it not wrong to send your kid to public school because it is the responsibility of the parent to raise their children in the Lord. Not only is it not wrong, for some families, I encourage them to send their kids to public school. Because they need that representation in public schools.

Operation blessing is providing clean water for those in need around the world. In Peru the residents of OKO had to rely on shallow wells filled with contaminated water for many of their needs and they had to walk more than 40 minutes just to get water that was somewhat suitable for drinking. Then operation blessing provided a way to build a clean water system within the village giving 28 families safe water piped directly to their homes making it possible for them to have bathroom. One villager telling operation blessing I don't have enough words to say thank you.

Dr. Faron Cole, Dr. Kathaleen Wuopio, Pastor Tim Neal, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II. Is it alright for members of other churches to come in and host devotional Bible studies in our church? Sure, as long as they teach the Bible accurately, I think that's a great thing. Fellowship between churches is a beautiful thing. I think it's great, as long as they know what they're talking about.

Pastor Timothy Walker, Pastor James Friedman, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Nancy Galambos. Is it a sin on the person who participates in someone's execution? This is regarding capital punishment and our justice system. There's nothing sinful about the situation. It's all ordained of God, and we need to understand that so, you know, I wouldn't necessarily participate in that but I wouldn't have a problem if I was asked to participate.

Dr. Faron Cole, Dr. Kathaleen Wuopio, Pastor Tim Neal, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II. Is it ok to watch church services on TV, radio, or the web? It's always good to watch anything spiritual to feed your spirit. There's nothing wrong with that, as long as you're not substituting that with going to church because you still need to be a part of that body.

This is the basement of the administration building here at the hospital and right now it's being used as an elementary school. In kindergarten for 75 kids from the surrounding area who have been forcibly displaced by this war and they've also been out of school for the last 3 weeks but now they're back. The reason that they're doing their school here in the basement is because it's also the bomb shelter. So, we have close to 100 elementary school children who some of their friends a large number of their friends have been killed, massacred.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Jeff Haywood, Pastor Melvin Steed, Pastor Tim Schulte. Is it okay to love God and science? When I think about where science came from, I say yes. But when I say that, I have to be careful that I don't make science my God. I cannot take science and put it over the power of God. I can absolutely love all of the things that surround science but also love God.

The epidemic of school shootings has parents demanding action to keep their children safe. School security has become a $3 billion a year industry with much of that cost invested in high-tech equipment. Experts say the money would be better spent on training staff and students to recognize and respond to threats.

The President of the University of Pennsylvania resigned after outrage over her testimony to Congress last week. Liz McGill would not say that calling for the genocide of Jewish people violated school policy. A host panel is investigating Penn, Harvard and other universities for their failure to address anti-Semitism. In some cases, Jewish students are suing their schools because they don't feel safe on campus. CBN's Brody Carter reports from New York. The Jewish population in New York City is roughly 10%. At Columbia University they're in the top 15 of private universities by Jewish population and Jewish students that we've talked to at CBN they tell us they simply don't feel safe here. One freshman even filing a lawsuit against the university for failing to protect her against anti-Semitism.

Pastor Tim Walker, Overseer Rena Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor David Hughes II, Pastor Ricky Holmes. In Psalms 99:1, does this mean that the Lord causes earthquakes? The term here is not a reference to the shaking of the earth as in a natural earthquake. But look at the first three words of that verse, the Lord reigneth, the Psalm opens with in declaration of God's sovereign rain over the universe and the psalmist goes on to say that because he reigns as king over the universe all of the Earth it should be moved. All of us, both the inhabitants of the earth, even Earth itself should shake and quake in the presence of God's awesome splendor. So, it is not a reference of an earthquake but it is a reference of a shaking and all in wonder over the grandeur of our eternal creator.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Melvin Steed, Pastor Tim Sculte, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Pastor Jeff Haygood. Why did God put constellations in the sky? What do they represent? You know the first thing I think of is in Proverbs 16:4 it says God has made everything for his own purposes. So, when he initiated creation and we read about the creation account in Genesis that God created everything, right? We look at how God created, he spoke these things into existence. So, we see the trinity involved in action and God created this expansive universe to display his glory. And as far as why the constellations are there, I don't think I have a good answer personally for that. So, but nonetheless, it's created for his glory and we could behold his glory every time you go outside and look up on a starry night.

Pastor Eugene Norris, Bishop Demetrius Davenport, Pastor Samuel Vincente, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor James Friedman. Why should we love our neighbors? Chapter 12:30, says this, love the Lord your God with all your heart. And with all your soul, and with all your mind. And with all your strength, verse 31 says, the second is this, love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these. So, when we love the Lord with all of our heart, all of our mind, all of our strength, everything we have on the inside of us, we cannot help, but to love our neighbor because we know what it was like when we were down and out when we had nobody to love us. But while we were yet sinners Christ died for us and now, we can extend that love as well to somebody else. And so that's the greatest way, I'll put it is when your loving mother, father, when you're loved by Jesus, you can't help but love your neighbor, love somebody else.

Wrongly convicted, Josh Kerr spent 16 years in prison for murder, a murder that remains unsolved to this day. Before his trial Josh surrendered his life to Christ. His spiritual renewal was the one thing that carried him through the years of injustice. During his time behind bars the Lord took the anger out of my heart but it required surrender on my part. It required me handing that over to the Lord and then he took it from me.

Dr. Faron Cole Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. If my son and his girlfriend move into my home upstairs, is that a sin on me? I believe that you're responsible for your home and the sanctity of your home. I believe that if you allow things to go on in your home that are inappropriate and wrong, then you would be charged, you know, by the Lord because the Lord calls us to be watchman upon the wall and that's of the city. But also, I think watchman of our own homes. So, in a situation like that, personally, I would not allow it. Now, maybe I'm just old school. I don't know. But I believe that God is a offended when we allow sin to propagate in our own home.
