

WPAU-FM PUBLIC FILE QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAM LIST
REPORT APRIL 1 – JUNE 30 2022

GOVERNMENT

MORNING EDITION Weekdays 5 a.m. - 9 a.m.

RUN TIME – 4 Hours

SOURCE – NPR

Every weekday for over three decades, Morning Edition has taken listeners around the country and the world with two hours of multi-faceted stories and commentaries that inform, challenge and occasionally amuse. Morning Edition is the most listened-to news radio program in the country.

A bi-coastal, 24-hour news operation, Morning Edition is hosted by David Greene, Steve Inskeep, Noel King, and Rachel Martin. These hosts often get out from behind the anchor desk and travel around the world to report on the news firsthand.

Produced and distributed by NPR in Washington, D.C., Morning Edition draws on reporting from correspondents based around the world, and producers and reporters in locations in the United States. This reporting is supplemented by NPR Member Station reporters across the country as well as independent producers and reporters throughout the public radio system.

SOURCE – NPR

6/14/22

(1.) JAN 6 SECOND HEARING -- The House committee investigating the attack on the Capitol on Jan. 6 2021 says former President Donald Trump misled campaign donors by using election lies to raise $250 million dollars after he lost in 2020. - 3:45

(5.) MODERNA AND PFIZER PEDIATRIC VACCINES -- Food and Drug Administration advisers are opening a two-day meeting to review Moderna and

Pfizer-BioNTech's COVID-19 vaccines for children, including the first vaccines for kids younger than age 5. - 3:53

(6.) - IDAHO PRIDE ARRESTS LATEST -- Authorities in northern Idaho are not ruling out more criminal charges after the arrests of 31 white nationalists who are accused of planning to riot at a Pride festival. - 3:51

(10.) - DELINQUENCIES AND ECONOMY -- NPR's A Martinez talks to Aaron Klein, a senior fellow in economic studies at the Brookings Institution, about what delinquent auto loan payments might say about the larger economy. - 5:30

(14.) - AAPI VOTERS VEGAS -- The population of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders is the fastest-growing demographic in Nevada and a rising political force. Voters speak about what issues are top of mind ahead of midterms. – 7:54

6/9/22

(1.) JAN 6 HEARING PREVIEW -- The House select committee investigating the Jan. 6 attack on the Capitol is holding the first in a series of televised hearings tonight. - 3:45

(4.) MISSISSIPPI ABORTION ACCESS PODCAST -- NPR speaks with WWNO reporter Rosemary Westwood, whose podcast explores how a legal case in Mississippi could lead to the end of Roe v. Wade. - 7:09

(5.) SUMMIT OF THE AMERICAS OPENS -- Leaders of nations in the Western Hemisphere get down to business at the Summit of the Americas in Los Angeles. How likely is it that they'll achieve any of their goals? - 3:26

(9.) GUN CONTROL HEARINGS ON THE HILL -- Steve Inskeep asks Greg Jackson Jr. of the Community Justice Action Fund about a House vote on gun reforms and the calls from gun violence survivors to pass new legislation. - 6:00

(10.) LIZ CHENEY PROFILE -- The House committee investigating the January 6 insurrection holds its first public hearing tonight. Republican Liz Cheney broke with virtually all of her GOP colleagues to help lead the probe. – 5:14

ALL THINGS CONSIDERED - All Things Considered is the most listened-to, afternoon drive-time, news radio program in the country. Every weekday the twohour show is hosted by Ailsa Chang, Audie Cornish, Mary Louise Kelly, and Ari Shapiro. In 1977, ATC expanded to seven days a week with a one-hour show on Saturdays and Sundays, which is hosted by Michel Martin. During each broadcast, stories and reports come to listeners from NPR reporters and correspondents based throughout the United States and the world. The hosts interview newsmakers and contribute their own reporting. Rounding out the mix are the disparate voices of a variety of commentators. All Things Considered has earned many of journalism's highest honors, including the George Foster Peabody Award, the Alfred I. DuPont Columbia University Award and the Overseas Press Club Award.

RUN TIME – 2 Hours

PROGRAM SOURCE - NPR

Weekdays 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

6/13/22

(1.) JAN 6 HEARING - TRUMP ELECTION LIES -- The Jan. 6 panel heard testimony from former President Donald Trump's campaign manager in a hearing on Trump's awareness that he lost in 2020 and his effort to push the lie that he won in spite of it. - 4:30

(5.) NSC131 EXTREMISM -- A nascent Neo-Nazi group in New England is attempting to recruit new members by raising its public profile and by latching onto Republican talking points that were once considered fringe. - 5:36

(7.) CANADA GUNS -- A bill before Canada's Parliament aims to stop the spread of handguns -- but one of the most difficult challenges for Canada is the guns being smuggled over the border from the U.S. - 3:54

(12.) DIANNE FEINSTEIN PAST AND PRESENT -- NPR's Mary Louise Kelly speaks with journalist Rebecca Traister about her recent writing on Sen. Dianne Feinstein's career and reports of her cognitive health. - 8:24

(15.) SPACE FORCE HQ MOVE -- President Trump moved U.S. Space Command headquarters from Colorado to Alabama. The Government Accountability Office now says the decision had "significant shortfalls." - 3:45

6/3/22

(1.) DR JHA ON VACCINES FOR UNDER 5 -- NPR's Ailsa Chang talks with Dr. Ashish Jha, the White House COVID-19 response coordinator, about the latest guidance on children under 5 getting the vaccine to protect against COVID-19. - 6:30

(3.) NAVIGATING POST ROE WORLD -- NPR's Ailsa Chang talks with Dr. Raegan McDonald-Mosely, CEO of Power to Decide, and Robin Marty, author of Handbook for a Post-Roe America, about how Americans can prepare if Roe is overturned. - 8:24

(4.) CANADIAN MINISTER OF PUBLIC SAFETY -- NPR's Mary Louise Kelly speaks with Canadian Minister of Public Safety Marco Mendicino about a bill that would place a national freeze on handgun ownership across Canada. - 4:44

(9.) JOBS REPORT AND POLITICS OF THE ECONOMY -- U.S. employers added 390,000 jobs in May -- good news for the White House, which is trying to show it's hard at work to bring down inflation. Price increases are still outpacing people's paychecks. - 6:00

EDUCATION/ARTS & CULTURE

ARTSCENE - Weekdays 11 a.m.

PROGRAM SOURCE – WVIA-FM RUN TIME – VARIED

ArtScene, with Erika Funke as the host/producer, is a daily short program which brings attention to the area's arts and cultural events. Join her weekdays at 11:00am for interviews, reviews and commentaries on films, books, jazz, and classical music. Let Erika's ArtScene help you plan your weekend!

6/10/22 - Dr. LaLaine Little & Dr. Mateusz Wosik

Dr. LaLaine Little, Director of the Pauley Friedman Art Gallery, and Dr. Mateusz Wosik, Assistant Professor of Biology at Misericordia University in Dallas, PA, speaking about the exhibit, "Lost Worlds: Microphotography of Extinct Species," running through July 22, 2022, at the Gallery. There will be a Family Night on Wednesday, June 15 at 5:00 pm; and a group gathering on July 20 at 4:00 pm, at R/C Movies 14 in Wilkes-Barre, for a screening of "Jurassic World: Dominion" with a talkback featuring Dr. Wosik & Dr. Frank Varriale from King's College. www.misericordia.edu

6/8/22 - Joanne Arduino

Joane Arduino, Artistic Director of Ballet Theatre of Scranton, speaking with WVIA's Larry Vojtko about, "Art in the Park", a collaboration with the NEPA Philharmonic under the direction of Melisse Brunet, on Saturday, June 11, 2022 at 5:00 pm, at Covington Park in Lackawanna County. The performance will feature "Peter & the Wolf" and more. www.balletscranton.org

6/6/22 - Timothy Schwarz & Lawrence Stomberg

Violinist Timothy Schwarz, Founder and Artistic Director of Techne Music; and Cellist Lawrence Stomberg, Professor of Cello at the University of Delaware, & faculty member of Techne Music, speaking about their vision for Techne Music and the culminating concert on Wednesday, June 8, 2022, at 7:00 in Peter Hall at Moravian College in Bethlehem, PA, featuring chamber music by Brahms, Beethoven & Bartok. Admission is free and there is a Livestream link at www.technemusic.org

6/1/22 - Dane Bower

Dane Bower, Director of "Once Upon a Mattress" at the Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes Street in Swoyersville, PA. The show runs June 3-5, 10-12, 17-19, 2022. Curtain times on Fridays & Saturdays at 8 pm, with a dinner option at 6:30; Sunday matinees at 3 pm, with a meal option at 1:30 www.musicbox.org 570-283-2195.

5/27/22 - Jan Lokuta

Jan Lokuta, native of northeastern Pennsylvania and longtime arts advocate, speaking about the 2022 Artists' Tour of Landmark Churches in Hazleton, that he will lead on Sunday June 5. The group will meet at 8:30 am at the Hub Welcome Center at 15 West Broad Street and move on to visiting 5 churches of different styles and traditions. There is no admission charge, and there is a limit of 25 participants. For more information or to register: lokutajan784@gmail.com or 570-655-3437.

5/23/22 - Jessica Serrenti & Jenny Shoener

Jessica Serrenti, Head of IT & Digital Services, and Jenny Shoener, Assistant to the CEO, speaking about the history of the Scranton Public Library, its wide-ranging services, and the 11th annual "Swingin' on Vine" event to benefit the Library, to be held Friday, May 27, 2022 at 500 Vine Street, from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. There will be live music, light fare, and more. 21+ to enter. www.albright.org

5/19/22 - John Vaida, Amy Iwazumi & James VanDemark

John Vaida, violin, & Amy Iwazumi, viola, co-founders of NEPACMS, joined by James VanDemark, double bass, speaking about the season finale of the Northeastern PA Chamber Music Society, on Saturday, May 21, 2022, at 7:00 pm, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 35 S. Franklin Street in downtown Wilkes-Barre. On the program, music by Larsen, Ridout and Schubert, with cellist Lisa Caravan & pianist Hwaen Ch'uqi. The musicians will perform Saturday afternoon at 3:00 at the Fine Arts Fiesta on Public Square in Wilkes-Barre, as well. www.nepacms.org/ (Libby Larsen told her story to bassist Matt Heller)

5/16/22 - Mary Anne Fedrick

Mary Anne Fedrick, President of the Board, speaking about the annual Fine Arts Fiesta, May 19-22, 2022, with the theme, "Fiesta in Full Color". The Fiesta will be held on Public Square in downtown Wilkes-Barre and will feature art exhibits, performing artists, art vendors and children's activities and food vendors. For more information: www.fineartsfiesta.org

5/10/22 - Greg Funfgeld

Greg Funfgeld, Music Director & Conductor of the Bach Choir of Bethlehem, speaking about the 114th Annual Bethlehem Bach Festival, May 13 & 14 and 20 & 21, 2022, featuring the Bach Choir and the Bach Festival Orchestra, Soloists & the Bel Canto Youth Chorus of the BCofB; Artist-in Residence Eliot Fisk and more. The B Minor Mass will be streamed live online on May 21, in addition to the in-person performance at Packer Memorial Church on the Lehigh University campus.

www.bach.org

5/5/22 - Maureen McGuigan

Maureen McGuigan, Deputy Director of the Lackawanna County Department of Arts and Culture, speaking about the arts in the community and country at this point in the pandemic, and about the upcoming events supported by county grants, including a partnership for Mother's day with Artworks Gallery and Studio on May 7, 2022, at the Electric City Trolley Museum, 300 Cliff Street, Scranton, on the property of Steamtown Historical Site. There will be a co-presentation of the ballet "Peter & the Wolf" on June 11 at 2:00 at Covington Park with Ballet Theatre of Scranton and the NEPA Philharmonic. For more information, it is Lackawanna Arts and Culture on Facebook.

HOMEGROWN MUSIC - Tuesdays at 9 p.m.

SOURCE – WVIA-FM RUN TIME – 29:00

Homegrown Music is WVIA-FM's exclusive series which each week showcases the talents of regional contemporary music artists in recordings produced in the WVIA-FM studios by series host George Graham and is broadcast Tuesdays at 9:00 PM and Saturdays at 6 PM on WVIA-HD2 Further information on Homegrown Music may be obtained via the World Wide Web at <https://www.wvia.org/radio/homegrown-music/> and <http://homegrownmusic.info>.

June 7 - Round Mountain - This very distinctive brother duo combines elements of traditional folk with exotic world music influences and unconventional instruments including African kora and Bulgarian bagpipes. The result is very appealing and quite fascinating from this 2009 session.

June 14 - Kate Morrissey - An outstanding singer-songwriter and pianist originally from South Dakota, Kate Morrissey was a resident of Bellefonte, PA at the time of this session. Her songs often reflect the wide-open spaces of her childhood home. But she also touches many other subjects in her original songs, in this encore recorded in 2004.

June 21 - Three Imaginary Boys - A first-rate melodic rock band from the Wyoming Valley, the group includes two brothers and serve up original music influenced by the British Invasion, with their own new touches. This is an encore of their 2013 Homegrown Music debut session.

June 28 - A Homegrown Music Concert Archive Encore with RON SUNSHINE AND FULL SWING - Blues and jazz vocalist and harmonica player Ron Sunshine was a regular on the Homegrown Music series for a number of years, appearing in contexts ranging from a small group to a full big band. This 1998 live Homegrown Music concert was one of his best, with a hot, swinging group, performing a mix of originals and creative versions of standard tunes.

April 5 - Scott Chasolen - A versatile pianist, composer and vocalist, Chasolen spent many years performing with the popular Pink Floyd tribute band The Machine. He has also led a fusion ensemble called ulu. This encore features original songs from three sessions Chasolen did with a trio for Homegrown Music in 2011 and 2012.

April 12 - Timothy Zieger and Zach Sprowls - From Factoryville, PA, near Scranton, singer-songwriter-guitarist Timothy Zieger has made three recent appearances on appearance on Homegrown Music. This one, from late 2019, features a duo with pianist Zach Sprowls, for some very appealing original songs by Zieger.

April 19 - A Homegrown Music Concert encore: The Dick Fawcett Band – This Homegrown Music Archive feature spotlights a short-lived but popular Scranton-area group headed by Leroy Pelicci, who went on to record for RCA records. The group was known for their jazzy original material by Pelicci and their jam-band style performances with some first-rate regional musicians, including saxophonist Nick Driscoll and guitarist Neil Nicastro. This encore consists of a live Homegrown Music concert given in September 1998, a few days after which Pelicci abruptly adjourned the band. This memorable performance marked the group at its height.

April 26 - The Coal Town Rounders - A first-rate bluegrass quartet from the Scranton area, who went their separate ways a few years ago, The Coal Town

Rounders are heard at their peak with a set of mostly original material recorded in 2015.

KEYSTONE EDITION

Keystone Edition is a weekly newsmagazine on WVIA Radio that takes you into communities across the listening area, introducing you to the people, places, and events that make Northeastern & Central Pennsylvania unique.

Sundays at 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

4/10/22 – FEATURE 1 - KEBUSINESSFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: Keystone Edition Business to Look at Marketing for Non-Profits

INTRO: THE ROLE OF NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS GOING ABOVE AND BEYOND THEIR MISSION STATEMENTS. KEYSTONE EDITION'S LISA MAZZARELLA HAS THE STORY...

OUTRO: MS. LOOP WILL BE A GUEST PANELIST ON THE NEXT KEYSTONE EDITION BUSINESS, MONDAY EVENING AT 7 ON WVIA-TV. IF YOU HAVE A QUESTION ON THE TOPIC, PLEASE SEND IT ALONG TO US AT 1-833-408-9842

FEATURE 2 - KETICKSFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: Keeping Tabs on Ticks in PA

INTRO: State and local representatives are raising awareness about tick-borne diseases. Keystone Edition's Kat Bolus visited the Pennsylvania Tick Lab at East Stroudsburg University to learn more about the parasite.

FEATURE 3 - KEBENANDJOEFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: Area Actors Look Into the Friendship of Ben Franklin and Dr. Joseph Priestley

INTRO: Central Pennsylvania has an interesting connection to the Benjamin Franklin story. Franklin was a long-time friend of the English chemist, philosopher, theologian, and political theorist Dr. Joseph Priestley, best remembered for his discovery of oxygen. Priestley moved to America and settled along the Susquehanna River in Northumberland, PA, where the Joseph Priestley House continues to tell the story of his accomplishments and relationship with Franklin. Playwright and Director Laurie McCants of the Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble has imagined the final meeting of Franklin and Priestly in London before Franklin returned to America and the revolution that was brewing. You are invited to view the short scene and join in a conversation with Laurie McCants and Penn State Professor of English Carla J. Mulford, who has written extensively on Benjamin Franklin, in a free WVIA live online event Thursday, April 14 at 7:00 PM. Keystone Edition's Erika Funke spoke with McCants and actors James Goode and Peter Brown about the people and the project after they recorded "Ben & Joe" here at the WVIA studios. McCants began with Priestley...

OUTRO: Playwright and Director Laurie McCants and actors James Good and Peter Brown speaking about "Ben and Joe," a short theater piece centering on a conversation between two close friends: Benjamin Franklin and Joseph Priestly-- on the eve of the American Revolution. You are invited to view the scene online Thursday, April 14 at 7:00 pm and join Laurie McCants and Penn State Professor of English Carla J. Mulford, who has written extensively on Benjamin Franklin, as they speak with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke about these two men and the significance of their friendship in light of the American Revolution. Admission is free. For more information: wvia.org. Funding has been provided by PA Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities as part of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021.

4/17/22

FEATURE 1 - KETOMFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: Immigration In PA, and How Area Experts Are Handling It

INTRO: With the Russian invasion of Ukraine soon entering its 8th week, and more than 4-and-a-half-million people already having fled the country, fundraisers and resources for refugees have dramatically increased worldwide. For Keystone Edition, WVIA News' Tom Riese speaks with an immigration and refugee resettlement expert and looks at what resources exist in our region.

OUTRO: Tom will be back next week on Keystone Edition Radio with more coverage of regional immigration and refugee resources.

FEATURE 2 - KEATWOODFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: A Conversation With Margaret Atwood

INTRO: Margaret Atwood, award-winning author of over 50 novels, including "The Handmaid's Tale", has written in her books about environmental devastation, but when she spoke by Zoom with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke, Atwood offered some hope for the future. The wide-ranging conversation will be featured this Monday, April 18, at 7:00 pm as part of Keystone Edition Arts, "Where Environment & Creativity Meet," on WVIA TV in anticipation of Margaret Atwood's visit to Wilkes University on April 26 for a public reading and signing. Atwood says she doesn't always enjoy being a truth-teller...

OUTRO: Margaret Atwood, award-winning author of over 50 novels, including "The Handmaid's Tale", speaking by Zoom with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke. You can view the Zoom conversation this Monday evening, April 18, at 7:00, on Keystone Edition Arts. Other guests include Patricia Johanson, internationally-known environmental artist who has been developing a project titled, "Mary's Garden," at Marywood University in Scranton. And Tannis Kowalchuk, theatre artist, organic farmer, and artistic director of the Farm Arts Collective in Damascus, PA. Margaret Atwood will be the featured author of the Allan Hamilton Dickson Fund Spring Writers Series at Wilkes University. And the Wilkes English Department is hosting "A Conversation with Margaret Atwood" on Tuesday, April 26 at 7:00 pm at the F.M.Kirby Center in downtown Wilkes-Barre. The event is free and open to the public. To register: wilkes.edu/dickson.

4/24/22

FEATURE 1 - KEREFGUEEFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: Refugee Placement and How It Works

INTRO: United States law defines a refugee as someone fleeing their country because of persecution, or fear of persecution, due to their race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion. Last week, the Department of Homeland Security expanded its temporary protected immigration status for Ukrainian as well as Cameroonian refugees. WVIA News's Tom Riese examines how refugee placement works and continues to look at refugee resources in our region.

FEATURE 2 - KEPAGEFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: WVIA Page Turners to Read, Watch, and Discuss Jane Austen's "Sanditon"

INTRO: "Sanditon" was supposed to be a limited-run series on Masterpiece on PBS, but viewers were loyal and vocal in their support, and the producers have gone on to create a second season, with a third in the wings. The Page Turners, WVIA's Book Club, is taking the opportunity to read the unfinished novel by Jane Austen, which is the source of the TV series, so that viewers will have a chance to compare the two approaches as part of an online on Tuesday, April 26 at 7 pm. Diana Collins is Membership Coordinator at WVIA Public Media and founder of the Page Turners, and she sat down with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke to talk about the story...

OUTRO: Diana Collins, Membership Coordinator at WVIA Public Media and founder of The Page Turners Book Club, speaking with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke about the spring selection, "Sanditon" by Jane Austen and the Masterpiece series "Sanditon" running Sunday nights at 9:00 on WVIA TV. There will be a free online book discussion on Tuesday, April 26 at 7:00 pm. and for information www.wvia.org/pageturners

5/1/22

FEATURE 1 - KELARRYFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: K.E. Reports to Look at PA State University Integration: One Year Later

INTRO: Up next, Larry Vojtko talks with Dr. Bashar W. Hanna, President of Bloomsburg University, and Interim president of both Lock Haven and Mansfield

Universities about the integration of the three universities into one administrative entity to be known as the Commonwealth University of Pennsylvania.

FEATURE 3 – KEERIKAFINAL.mp3

HEADLINE: The Events at Harmony Presents

INTRO: On April 6, The Foundation for Harmony Presents announced the Summer 2022 season of performances to take place at their home amphitheater in the woods in Hawley, in Wayne county. Opening the series will be the Nat Osborn Band with funk, rock and soul on July 1. The Jay Ungar & Molly Mason Family Band will have the American Roots music they're so well known for--that's on August 6th. And on July 29 , it's a wonderful selection of opera and tunes from Broadway with the award-winning NY tenor Blake Friedman.

Friedman has received degrees from the Eastman School of Music and the Manhattan School of Music. He made his Carnegie Hall debut singing Anatol in the quintet from the opera "Vanessa" by Samuel Barber, with Leonard Slatkin conducting. He is active on the concert stage, as well, and he has created a very special production that he's titled, "Songs from New York".

The Foundation for Harmony Presents will partner with the Milford Theater in Pike county to host Blake Friedman and "Songs From New York" on Saturday, May 7 at 7:00 pm at the Milford Theater-- before he performs in Hawley at the end of July.

Jill Carletti is Creative Director of Harmony in the Woods, and Keystone Edition's Erika Funke had a chance to speak with her by phone about Harmony Presents and the special performance in Milford...

OUTRO:

Jill Carletti, Creative Director of Harmony in the Woods, speaking with Keystone Edition's Erika Funke about award-winning tenor Blake Friedman and his special production, "Songs of NY" to be hosted by the Foundation for Harmony Presents and the Milford Theater on Saturday, May 7 at 7pm, at the Milford Theater, 114 E Catharine Street in Milford, PA. For information: www.harmonyinthewoods.org and www.themilfordtheater.com

6/12/22

FEATURE 1 - KEAGNESFINAL2.mp3

HEADLINE: Forecasting Floods, and How It's Changed Since Agnes

INTRO: When Agnes hit 50 years ago, the National Weather Service did all they could to provide accurate forecasts and keep the region informed as the storm caused devastating flooding. Today, meteorologists say they've made 50 years of improvements to forecasting technology, and can do even more should a storm like Agnes ever strike again. For Keystone Edition, Sarah Scinto has more.

NPR SPECIAL COVERAGE/BREAKING NEWS

6/9/22

LENGTH – 2 Hours - 8 to 10 p.m.

SPECIAL COVERAGE - JAN 6 HEARING Day 1

The House committee investigating the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol plans a hearing this Thursday, June 9 at 8 PM ET. The committee says the hearing will "present previously unseen material documenting January 6th, receive witness testimony, preview additional hearings, and provide the American people a summary of its findings." We anticipate two witnesses in Thursday's hearing: Capitol Police Officer Caroline Edwards and documentary filmmaker, Nick Quested

6/13/22

LENGTH - 2 Hours 15 Minutes – 10:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

SPECIAL COVERAGE - JAN 6 HEARING Day 2

NPR has heard from the committee that they're expecting today's hearing to run a little more than two hours. Assuming that holds, the committee could wrap proceedings sometime in the Noon ET hour. NPR will follow with analysis. The House Select Committee investigating the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol had announced Sunday that five witnesses would appear in person for testimony at Monday's hearing. However, it now appears that there may be just four. The committee says the first panel will no longer include Bill Stepien, former President Donald Trump's campaign manager. who is not joining due to a "family emergency."

6/16/22

LENGTH: 3 Hours – 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

SPECIAL COVERAGE - JAN 6 HEARING Day 3

Thursday, June 16: Host Kelsey Snell, with Congressional Correspondents Claudia Grisales and Deirdre Walsh, Senior Washington Editor Ron Elving, Investigative Correspondent Tom Dreisbach and WNYC's Andrea Bernstein.

6/21/22

LENGTH: 3 Hours – 1p.m. to 4 p.m.

SPECIAL COVERAGE – JAN 6 HEARING Day 4

Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger and Gabriel Sterling, chief operating officer at the Georgia secretary of state's office are expected to testify. GPB has those confirmed those details with sources familiar with the plans. Raffensperger and Sterling vociferously defended the state's handling of the 2020 election under both public and private pressure from former President Trump and his allies to overturn President Biden's victory in Georgia. In addition, we expect Rusty Bowers, Arizona state House speaker and Wandrea "Shaye" Moss, former Georgia election worker to appear as witnesses.

6/23/22

LENGTH: 2 Hours 30 Minutes

SPECIAL COVERAGE – JAN 6 HEARING DAY 5

Today there is a House Select Committee hearing investigating the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol at 3 PM ET. Former Acting Attorney General Jeffrey A.

Rosen, former Acting Deputy Attorney General Richard Donoghue, and Steven Engel, former Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Legal Counsel are expected to testify.

6/28/22

LENGTH: 2 Hours 19 Minutes

SPECIAL COVERAGE – JAN 6 HEARING DAY 6

The House Select Committee that is investigating the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol is holding another in its series of public hearings on Tuesday, June 28 at 1 PM ET. NPR will offer live, anchored Special Coverage for broadcast as well as live streaming video for your website.

The star witness today is expected to be Cassidy Hutchinson, who was an aide to Trump White House Chief of Staff Mark Meadows. Hutchinson has previously appeared in video testimony and has told Congressional investigators that there were concerns in advance of January 6 that there could potentially be violence.

WVIA-HD2 THE SPLENDID TABLE

SATURDAY AT 8 A.M., SUNDAY AT 11 A.M.

PROGRAM SOURCE – NPR RUN TIME – 1 HOUR

The Splendid Table, hosted by award-winning food writer Francis Lam, has been an original weekend companion, celebrating the intersection of food and life for more than two decades. A culinary, culture and lifestyle program, it has hosted our nation's conversations about cooking, sustainability and food culture and has introduced us to generations of food dignitaries.

6/10/22

Jaya Saxena Swears by Julie Sahni's Matar Paneer

We're dropping a bonus episode in our feed this week of our newest pod baby. It's called The One Recipe and it's all about that ONE magic, indispensable recipe that you simply can't live without! This week we're talking to Jaya Saxena about what crystal you should be keeping in your kitchen, how she developed more confidence cooking Indian Food at home, and her One: a matar paneer from Julie Sahni's iconic cookbook, Classic Indian Cooking. Jaya is the senior writer at Eater, and the author of several books, including Basic Witches and Crystal Clear: Extraordinary Talismans for Everyday Life. You can follow her on Instagram or Twitter @jayasa

6/3/22

Summer Parties with Nicole A. Taylor, Natasha David and Patric Richardson

This week, it's party season with food writer Nicole A. Taylor, bartender Natasha David, and Laundry Evangelist, Patric Richardson

5/27/22

Bettina Makalintal Talks Crispy Glazed Tofu

We're dropping a bonus episode in our feed this week of our newest pod baby. It's called The One Recipe and it's all about that ONE magic, indispensable recipe that you simply can't live without! This week, Host Jesse Sparks talks to Bettina Makalintal about bike love, thriller novels, and her One, a recipe for Crispy Glazed Tofu. Bettina is a food and culture writer, and currently a Senior Reporter at Eater. You can find her recipe on Instagram @the.one.recipe or at theonerecipe.org. You can find more from Bettina on home cooking on Twitter and TikTok @bettinamak, and on Instagram @crispyegg420

5/20/22

Home Cooking with Pros: J. Kenji López-Alt, Daniel Holzman, and Matt Rodbard

Cookbook authors Daniel Holzman & Matt Rodbard answer your cooking questions & we head into the kitchen with Kenji López-Alt for a lesson on Mapo Tofu

5/13/22

In Jacques Pépin's Kitchen

Francis meets up with Chef Jacques Pépin in his home kitchen to talk career, life, and the magic of instant-cured gravlax.

5/6/22

Up Close with Evan Kleiman, Host of Good Food

This week, we talk to the pioneering food radio personality Evan Kleiman host of our other favorite food radio show, Good Food from KCRW

4/26/22

Check out: Borderline Salty

This week, we're sharing a trailer for Borderline Salty, a new weekly call-in food podcast from Pineapple Street Studios, hosted by two of our friends, Carla Lalli Music, and Rick Martinez. They'll share their latest ingredient obsessions, give you their hot takes on the latest food trends, and bring you their kitchen nightmare stories. Whether you're still finding your way in the kitchen or have been cooking for years, this show has something for everyone. New episodes come out weekly — wherever you get your podcasts.

4/22/22

Special Sauce with René Redzepi, Diep Tran, and Khushbu Shah

This week, we dive into the sauces that will elevate your everyday dishes with chef René Redzepi, cookbook author Diep Tran, & journalist Khushbu Shah

4/1/22

Spring Cookbook Season

Listen on: Apple Podcasts | Stitcher | Google Podcasts | Spotify | Pandora This week, we're celebrating the cookbooks of Spring 2022! We talk with British chef Asma Khan about her latest book, Ammu. The book is an homage to her mother and she walks us through her childhood eating, imagine the aroma of pakoras (onion fritters) frying during monsoon season in India! Then, we chat with Rick Martinez about his latest book, Mi Cocina and his decision to move to Mexico City to connect with his culture. He leaves us with a delicious recipe for Ceviche de Camarón y Leche de Coco (Raw shrimp and watermelon tossed with coconut milk and lime juice). We talk to Reem Assil, author of the book Arabiyya , Recipes from the Life of an Arab in Diaspora about Arab bread and why she considers it the foundation of Arab cuisine. Then, Jess Damuck gives us tips to ensure the perfect salad every time, her latest book is Salad Freak

WORLD CAFÉ

WEEKDAYS 7 A.M. TO 9 A.M.

PROGRAM SOURCE – NPR RUN TIME – 2 HOURS

WXPN's live performance and interview program featuring music and conversation from a variety of important musicians.

6/8/22

For Fontaines D.C., a move to London reaffirmed the band's Irish identity

A major change for the band taken during the pandemic showed the group's willingness to make concessions to their aspirations.

6/7/22

Hear a live mini-concert performed by Combo Chimbita

Their latest album, Iré, was released in January and features a rhythmic foundation rooted in Afro-Caribbean transcendence, bewildering chants, booming drums and psychedelic distortion.

6/3/22

Does Sharon Van Etten have an alter ego?

Written during the pandemic, Van Etten's latest album, We've Been Going About This All Wrong, is an intimate and moving collection of songs that are stronger because of how they all fit together.

5/27/22

Lucius talks the importance of their connection with their audience, other artists

Lucius seem to somehow know everyone — including Brandi Carlile, Sheryl Crow and Paul McCartney — they share those stories in this session.

5/26/22

The Culture Corner: Jimi Hendrix's 'Are You Experienced' turns 55

John Morrison talks about how important Jimi Hendrix's Are You Experienced was, how it happened and what its legacy has been for the culture at large.

5/23/22

The Dip pulls from soul, R&B, pop and rock to make a sound that's all its own

In this session of World Cafe, The Dip talks about its journey from playing house parties to having a million Spotify listeners a month.

5/20/22

Del McCoury was there at the beginning of the bluegrass movement

For this new album, Almost Proud, quarantine gave Del McCoury the time and space to dig through a box of collected music to find some gems to record.

5/6/22

Get swept away in Spiritualized's latest album, 'Everything Was Beautiful'

In this session, Jason Pierce of Spiritualized talks about their latest album, Everything Was Beautiful, how it grew and changed in unexpected ways as he worked on it, and how he let himself get lost in the process.

4/29/22

Judy Collins shares live stories on 'Spellbound'

In our conversation, Judy shares some of those stories, talks about her songwriting process and the advice she's gotten from some of her very well-known songwriter friends.

4/26/22

Why Beastie Boys' 'Check Your Head' album still matters 30 years later

A lack of interest and supervision from its label allowed Beastie Boys to experiment, resulting in their critically acclaimed third album, Check Your Head.