Whaddaya Got, Loran?: Dispatches from Georgia

Most Georgians know Loran Smith from Saturday afternoons and Georgia Bulldog football. Larry Munson would oftentimes say after a play, "Whaddaya got, Loran?" His colorful responses and chemistry with Munson made listening to the game an absolute joy. But, for decades Loran Smith has also either written or spoken about the things that interest us. Loran talks about his new book, Whaddaya Got Loran?: Dispatches from Georgia, along with his career. Available July 16-17.

GA Focus Extra: Dr. Bob Cantu, Physical Therapy Faculty Lead at Brenau University discusses their efforts to provide healthcare to migrant worker sin south Georgia.

Alzheimer's Association

According to the Alzheimer's Association, older Black Americans are twice as likely to develop Alzheimer's disease than White Americans. They're also less likely to receive a timely diagnosis, with many receiving a diagnosis much later in the disease, when medical needs are greater. Dr. Carl Hill, Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer at the Alzheimer's Association, discusses these findings. Available July 23-24.

GA Focus Extra: Dr. Ashley Broulette from Children's Healthcare of Atlanta discusses heat-related illnesses.
