Title Connecting with your Busy Spouse
Length 20 minutes
Description We all lead very busy lives, and oftentimes our marriages pay the price. Mark and Susan Merrill share their story of dating and marriage, including having to work through some pretty high expectations and learning to love each other for who they are. They offer some fun and creative ways to connect with your spouse, including flirting with your husband, handling loneliness, and developing better intimacy and trust.
Day two continues the discussion with special emphasis placed on the importance of having an organizing buddy, how to tackle laundry and paperwork and the importance of communicating with your spouse and kids the level of cleanliness you hope to keep.
