Unshackled!	3/10/2024	11:00 PM	Technology	Juan Riesco was a successful entrepreneur, with a popular restaurant and clothing line, until social media disagreed with his values.	28:00
Parent Minute	3/11/2024	2:02 PM	Parenting	Greg Yoder: You speak out of passion without thinking through what you're saying first. Chances are you've unintentionally hurt people. And you probably have a least ONE child just like you. It pains you to watch your son or daughter deal with the aftermath of their lack of being able to guard their tongue. Friends probably come and go. They're rude to us just as we were to our parents. As a Dad who's passionate and outspoken, I've had to FORCE myself to hold my tongue and to help my daughter hold hers. I KNOW I've hurt my wife and my kids with my words – sometimes to prove a point.	1:00
Weekend Connection	3/16/2024	4:02 PM	Employment Economy Stress	Robert Rohm discusses how understanding our unique personalities and ways of looking at the world can lead to a better working environment.	15:00

My Money Life	3/27/2024	6:02 PM	Life Issues	The top four categories of expenses that you need to consider for calculating your insurance coverage: First, your death expenses. Next, your mortgages and other debts. Next, calculate future incomes and earning. Add the four categories to estimate how much life insurance is appropriate, then tweak the number to reflect personal circumstances. For many families, the total could run a million dollars or more, but don't be alarmed. Boosting your death benefit by hundreds of thousands of dollars of term insurance could only cost a few hundred dollars a year.	2:00
