Giuliani on his claim that Clinton is "too stupid to be president" because of Monica Lewinsky scandal: "I'm the right person to level this charge" Clinton Campaign Manager Robby Mook on leaked audio from Clinton primary fundraiser: "The original piece completely mischaracterized what she was talking about"

OCT. 2, 2016 -- In an interview with "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd, Trump adviser and former New York City mayor Rudy Giuliani addressed The New York Times' report on the Republican presidential nominee's tax deduction: "If he didn't take advantage of it, he would have been sued.... The reality is he's a genius."

Giuliani also defended his comments from Monday night, in which he said Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton is "too stupid to be president" because "she attacked Monica Lewinsky": "She was wrong to attack the victim... I'm the right person to level this charge, because I've never made such a charge." When noted that he has his own infidelities, Giuliani responded, "Well, everybody does... I've never ever attacked someone who's been the victim of sexual abuse." Watch the full interview here: <http://nbcnews.to/2dn90fM>.

Clinton Campaign Manager Robby Mook responded to leaked audio of the nominee at a primary fundraiser during the primary season in which she described some of Sen. "She was talking about young people that she'd met who were frustrated that they graduated from college and went into an economy where they couldn't find the job they wanted or expected."

Mook also noted The New York Times' report on Trump's tax return, saying "We talk about the rigged system out there. Donald Trump embodies that." Watch the full interview here: <http://nbcnews.to/2dn9r9R>.

And, and now it's like they've got to fix this election? No...I hope they vote for Hillary Clinton," while Glenn Beck, founder of The Blaze, characterized voter attitudes right now: "We're not going to lose our houses or our jobs or our country. We're losing something much more important. We're losing ourselves. We're losing our civility. We're losing our decency. We're, we're losing our neighbors and our family." Hillary Clinton would pursue a version of T.P.P. if elected, noting "we aren't against trade," but "we haven't talked about that in particular." Kaine said it was not a requirement to come out against the controversial trade deal before joining the Democratic presidential ticket.

On news of the AT&T and Time Warner merger, Kaine said that he shares the "concerns and questions" raised by figures including Sen. Al Franken and Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump: "Less concentration, I think, is generally helpful, especially in the media, but this has just been announced, and I haven't had a chance to dig into the details." Trump campaign manager Kellyanne Conway acknowledged the Republican nominee's place in the polls, telling Todd, "we are behind," noting that Clinton "has tremendous advantages." She also addressed how Trump began his rally speech in Pennsylvania yesterday by threatening to sue those who have accused him of sexual misconduct: "It's a way to defend himself, and remind everybody what he has said many times, which is none of this is true." When asked why he hasn't filed suit yet, Conway replied: "We're busy winning the presidency... He's just I think putting people on notice that they can't just falsely accuse them." #### MTP: CLINTON CAMPAIGN MANAGER ON NEW ‘PERTINENT’ EMAILS IN FBI PROBE: “I HAVE ALL THE FACTS... THAT’S WHY WE ARE SO PUZZLED RIGHT NOW”

Robby Mook on if this ‘October surprise’ could cost Clinton the election: “I don’t think so” GOP VP Nominee Mike Pence on Clinton Emails: “Why doesn't she ask her senior aide to release all these emails?” Pence on FBI Director James Comey: “I've always found him to be a straight shooter”

OCT. 30, 2016 -- Robby Mook, campaign manager for Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton, reacted to Friday’s letter from FBI Director James Comey which cited new “pertinent” emails in the Clinton probe and defended senior aide Huma Abedin’s connection to the emails: “I absolutely feel I have all the facts because all the facts were put out there. The summaries of the interviews - the Justice Department said that Huma fully cooperated. That’s, again, why we are so puzzled right now.”

He added: “Abedin cooperated fully with the investigation that concluded this summer....They were all released out to the public at our request. If these are emails from Huma Abedin -- we don't know if they are, but if they are, we assume they'd have to be redundant because she already turned over all of her emails.” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2eboO6s>.

Mook’s statements echoed what Pete Williams, justice correspondent for NBC News, shared at the top of the program: “They may be duplicates of what they've already discovered through the emails she gave to the State Department or that the F.B.I. found on its own.” He added: “They have no idea what's in these emails.” Watch: <http://nbcnews.to/2e1qtIG>.

Republican vice presidential nominee Mike Pence also joined “Meet the Press,” noting that he has “always found” Director Comey “to be a straight shooter.” He asked: “Hillary Clinton, when this story broke, I believe she was travelling with Huma Abedin. I mean, why didn't she just turn to Huma and say, "Put these emails out"?” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2e1jhF>.

Fla. Sen. Marco Rubio on Trump's conflicts of interest: "Something they're going to have to confront" Kellyanne Conway: President Obama and Trump spoke yesterday for "about 40-45 minutes" Ohio Rep. Tim Ryan on Clinton recount efforts: "I would counsel against it"

NOV. 27, 2016 -- Sen. Marco Rubio (R-Fla.) addressed the future of U.S. relations with Cuba after Friday's death of dictator Fidel Castro, telling moderator Chuck Todd that policies with the island "should all be conditioned upon specific changes on the part of the Cuban government," looking at the models of "Myanmar or Burma as an example of how you can condition openings in exchange for democratic changes on the part of the other government."

Rubio said he'll "make suggestions to the Trump administration" when it comes to Cuba. On the topic of the president-elect's conflicts of interests, Rubio noted: "I imagine they're well aware that this is something they're going to have to confront."

Kellyanne Conway, former campaign manager for President-elect Donald Trump, also responded to the conflict of issue question facing the president-elect, telling Todd that Trump "has been talking to his lawyers" and that "he will comply with the law." She disclosed that Trump and President Obama spoke yesterday for "about 40 to 45 minutes" and that "they've been talking regularly."

Conway reacted to Mitt Romney as a potential Secretary of State in the Trump administration: "People feel betrayed to think that Governor Romney, who went out of his way to question the character and the intellect and the integrity of Donald Trump, now our president-elect, would be given the most significant cabinet post of all, Secretary of State."

Rep. Tim Ryan (D-Ryan) is challenging House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi's party leadership and told Todd that Pelosi's offense is that the party is "not winning." Ryan also commented on the recount decision by the Clinton campaign to cooperate with Jill Stein's call: "I would counsel against it.... We've got to move forward. #### MTP: VP-ELECT PENCE: TRUMP'S CALL WITH TAIWAN WAS "COURTESY," "WOULDN'T EXPECT" OUTREACH TO CHINA TO CALM WATERS

PLUS: Indiana Gov. Mike Pence: "Up to the President-elect" if Petraeus' mishandling of classified information disqualifies him to be State Sec. Former Trump campaign manager Kellyanne Conway: "We are the ones who understood America" Former Clinton pollster Joel Benenson: "We have to rebuild at the state levels"

DEC. 4, 2016 -- In an interview this morning with "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd, Vice President-elect Mike Pence said that President-elect Trump's "call from the democratically-elected leader of Taiwan" was "a courtesy call." When asked if the administration-elect would be reaching out to the Chinese government this week to calm the waters, Pence replied, "I wouldn't expect so. But to be honest with you, the waters here seem like a little bit of a tempest in a teapot."

The Indiana governor also addressed the possibility of former Gen. David Petraeus in the role of secretary of state, telling Todd that it will be "up to the president-elect" if Petraeus' mishandling of classified information disqualifies him for the position. "The president-elect will weigh that against the backdrop of an extraordinary career in military service, whether it's in the role of Secretary of State or another role in this administration," he added.

Andrea Mitchell, chief foreign affairs correspondent for NBC News, emphasized the weight of the Taiwan phone call in a panel discussion following Pence's interview: "The point is the conversation happened. And even here, someone as careful as Mike Pence referred to her as the president of Taiwan....That's a no-no."

Kellyanne Conway, former campaign manager for President-elect Trump, and Joel Benenson, former pollster for Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton, joined the network broadcast to reflect on a heated discussion earlier this week at Harvard's traditional election postmortem. Conway noted, "The fact is that we are the ones who understood America," while Benenson underscored that the Democratic Party has to "rebuild at the state levels." Benenson also added that, in the last four weeks of the election, he would have asked "for a faith forum to hear Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump both talk about their roots in faith and the strength of hers, which I think are dominant."

DECEMBER 18, 2016 -- In his first interview since the election, former Clinton campaign chair John Podesta exclusively told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd: "the first time I was contacted by the F.B.I. was two days after WikiLeaks started dropping my emails," adding: "that was the first and last time" he talked to the F.B.I. about his hacked email account.

Podesta also discussed whether the Trump campaign knew about Russia's efforts, stating: "I would argue that there's very, it's very much unknown whether there was collusion. ... I think really not what Mr. Trump knew, but what did Trump Inc. know and when did they know it, were they in touch with the Russians? I think those are still open questions."

When pressed twice by Todd on whether he thinks this was a "free and fair election," Podesta replied: "I think it was distorted by the Russian intervention. Let's put it that way." Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2hMWDKV>

Gates also defended Secretary of State nominee Rex Tillerson's ties to Russia and Vladimir Putin, saying: "clearly the CEO of any US company that does business around the world is going to want to be on friendly relationships with the leaders and governments of those countries where they do business. But being friendly doesn't make you friends." Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2i3cNza>
