Quarterly Programming Providing the
Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues

2nd QUARTER 2016 SPECIAL PROGRAMS

COMMUNITY

Pride and Peace: a KING 5 Community Forum

Monday, 6/20/16 7:00-8:00 p.m.

One week after the devastating mass shooting in Orlando and on the eve of the nation's fourth largest Pride Festival, The Home Team dedicated an hour of local programming to bringing our community together.

Pride & Peace: a KING 5 Community Forum was a discussion among LGBT and Muslim community members, elected officials, mental health experts and law enforcement representatives. Hosted by KING 5 morning news anchor, Joyce Taylor, the program gave participants an opportunity to express their feelings about the tragic events in Orlando and address the essential question: how do we move forward together toward peace.

“The absolute worst aspects of humanity dominate the dialogue in our country right now. What we want, and what we believe our community wants, is a world where neighbors of all types have tolerance and respect for one another. KING 5 is in the unique position to facilitate and bring that conversation to the masses, to bring people together and help each other through tragic times.” Cheryl Carson, KING 5 news director

The program was televised on KING 5 and streamed on king5.com from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Notable guests include Seattle Mayor Ed Murray, Seattle Police Chief Kathleen O'Toole, King County Sheriff John Urquhart. KING 5 news anchor Mark Wright and New Day Northwest Host Margaret Larson will also join the program, facilitating questions and comments from panelists and live audience members.

Ascertainment

The Puget Sound Association of Broadcasters meets monthly to meet with non-profit organizations around the region. Below is a summary of their presentations.

APRIL – did not attend

MAY - Hosted by iHeartMedia - Seattle, Attended by Betsy Robertson

1) Fostering Together/Olive Crest

Dedicated to finding and supporting foster families in Western Washington. Their programs aim to ensure safe, loving, foster families are available to meet the diverse needs of abused and neglected youth.

2) Growing Veterans

Empowering veterans to grow food, communities and each other. Ending veteran isolation and the all too often suicides that follow through the life affirming act of farming. Three locations in Western Washington help transition veterans into the civilian world.

3) BEST: Businesses Ending Slavery and Trafficking

BEST aligns and equips leaders to use the power of business to prevent human trafficking. Through training, consultation and collaboration, they work with businesses to drive behavioral change and improve the lives of victims involved.

4) Cancer for College

20 year old program that provides hope and inspiration to cancer survivors by granting college scholarships. Cancer for college works to help individuals whose families have been financially crippled by the disease to help students realize their dream of a college education.

June 12 MTP: SANDERS ON ORLANDO SHOOTING: "IT'S HORRIFIC, IT'S UNTHINKABLE"

ALSO: Sen. Bernie Sanders: "I will be meeting with Secretary Clinton on Tuesday evening"

PLUS: Ariz. Sen. Jeff Flake on the Orlando shooting: "Every one that happens is one too many"

JUNE 12, 2016 -- Presidential candidate Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) reacted this morning to the deadly Orlando shooting, telling moderator Chuck Todd, "It's horrific, it's unthinkable. And just hopes go out to all those who were shot that they can recover."

He continued: "We should not be selling automatic weapons which are designed to kill people. We have got to do everything that we can on top of that to make sure that guns do not fall into the hands of people who should not have them, criminals, people who are mentally ill."

Sen. Sanders also shared that he plans to meet with former Sec. Hillary Clinton this Tuesday evening to discuss her campaign because he wants "to get a sense of what kind of platform she will be supporting."

Sen. Jeff Flake (R-Ariz.) also reacted to the Orlando shooting -- now the deadliest mass shooting in U.S. history: "Obviously a horrible, horrible tragedy. And every one that happens is one too many."

He added: "If it is found out that this person was at least inspired by ISIS, then it'll probably be a terrorism debate. If he wasn't, it may be a gun debate." Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/1tkAnNa>.

Joining the show this morning for insight and analysis were NBC News' Tom Brokaw; radio talk show host Hugh Hewitt; MSNBC's Joy Reid; and The Cook Political Report's Amy Walter.

"We don't have any dialogue going on in America about all these mass shootings that have occurred since San Bernardino," Brokaw told Todd: <http://nbcnews.to/1tq4JOX>.
